LODELL'S TEAM IS GOOD

EX-PLAYER OF MONARCHS WRITES OF SUCCESS IN MONTANA.

Peep at Lineup Shows That Most of Players Have Been Recruited From Portland City League.

That Al Lodell, who left the Monarchs of the City League to first teach for Seattle and then jumped that club to manage an independent organization in Forsyth, Mont., gathered a good ball club about him in the city.

Two of the lightest players in the league will captain teams this season. Hughie McKenna, who is expected to captain the Columbia University representatives last year, will have charge of the collegians on the gridiron, and will assist Coach Callaghan in his work.

Moe Sax, the Jefferson High School star, will be captain of the Academy team for the coming season by his teammates. Moe is in great condition at present and he expects to have a winning combination of players to lead the team.

Although his school does not open until a week from tomorrow, Coach Callaghan is going to have his aspirants out on the Academy field Wednesday of this week.

ALBANY FURNISHES BIG STAR

Coach Stewart, of Aggies, Lands Good Catch in Merle Briggs.

ALBANY, Ore., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—Albany High school, which has furnished many star players on football teams of the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College the past few years, has a freshening representative on the squad which Coach Stewart, of the Aggies, has sent to Newburg for preliminary work.

Merle Briggs, for four years an end on the Albany High and who graduated from the local school last Spring, has been chosen by Stewart as one of the stars of the high school team and served one year as captain. Though light, he was one of the best ends the local school ever turned out.

Although the big battle with the University of Washington champions is doomed to the discard, and November 6, the day it was to have been played in Portland, craved from the calendar of varsity events, interest in football is even keener among local fans and students than ever before.

Bezdek has a squad of veterans and one or two promising freshmen enlisting again, there is always a chance of the proverbial "dark horse" scratching his name in the wall of collegiate fame.

Special Incentive This Year. One fan, more pessimistic, said: "It may be a fine year of intercollegiate athletics. We want to make it a good one, and if the faculty does shut down on this activity it is essential that we get the best of the Oregon teams for years, can say that the last ones turned out were the best."

Coach Bezdek, before he left the city, said that he was fairly well satisfied with his squad and, with any kind of a backfield to replace the collegians which he had lost, he would allow the team to play for the fall.

ment, an added starter, carrying 123 pounds, and ridden by Jockey Borel, finished third, four lengths back, with the remainder of the field 16 starters straggling in straggling order for nearly a sixteenth of a mile.

Thunder carried 122 pounds and was ridden by Jockey Joe Notter. Borel carried 126 pounds, the heaviest impost in the race.

The Thompson entry was made up of three starters, the other being Vermont, which finished in 10th place. The time of the race was 1:14.4, and the winner's share of the $25,000 stakes was about $17,000.
