BATHERS PERFORM "STUNTS"

Late Season Cottagers and Visitors Find North Beach Surf Fine.

LONG BEACH, Wash., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—A long season of lovely weather and all manner of beach activities is drawing to a close at North Beach. Window boxes are disappearing and shutters are appearing, and those who want only a quiet month are remaining, school and college all many away, but those who have no duties in town for September and October will gladly remain at the seashore, where the autumn is particularly lovely. Finer than ever before has been the bathing in the surf. Bathers along the North Beach shore are real, bathers, leaping, diving, swimming, floating and doing all kinds of "stunts" in the breakers. It is interesting to notice the number of old persons who go into the ocean for a daily dip. Men and women between 60 and 70 take their plunge as regularly as the boys and girls, and say that they feel the better a thousand for it.

Several farewell parties were given during the week to those leaving for their homes during the season.

Long Beach was victorious in the last bowling tournament of the three seasons, winning all of the three games played last Monday night.

Many of the cottagers and visitors witnessed the games, which were unusually exciting. As the score stands for the entire season, Long Beach leads Seaside by four games.

The members of Long Beach's team include Fred Jacobsen, Henry Gerwig, Dr. Hill, Fred Lundquist and Leo O'Hanlon, and on Seaside's team are Jerome Stone, Kenneth Goulter, Ernest O'Bryan, Hodler and Clyde Woodham.

In one of the Meadows cottages at Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. M. Wilson, of Lindsay, Wash., and Mrs. R. H. Groves and Edith regularly as the boys and girls, and say that they feel the better a thousand for it.
