WATER CONFERENCE TO OPEN TUESDAY

If the water power section of the conference will be devoted to discussion of the best means of opening for development the undeveloped water power resources in the vast territory embraced by the states of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mex

The present conference is the result of a call issued by the Oregon Legislature last Winter, inviting Legislatures of ten other states, or where the Legislatures were not in session, the Governors, to appoint five delegates each to attend a conference to be held in Portland. The purpose of this con-ference was declared to be to declare in more specific detail the principles which the water power and public land states of the West deem a just and equitable basis for developing their resources."

Overlooked States Invited.

In this call the States of Nevada and New Mexico were inadvertently not in-cluded at the time by the Legislature. Governor Withycombe, of Oregon, who was empowered by the Legislature to fix the date of the conference has in-cluded these states, however, and in-vited them to send delegates.

cluded these states, however, and invited them to send delegates.

Answers have been received from all but two of the states, Nevada and Wyoming, naming the delegates appointed to attend the conference. Representatives of Nevada and Wyoming also are expected to be present.

The tone of the conference is not likely to be friendly to the pian for Federal control, with its attendant inefficiency and red tape and stagnating influence on the states, which is one influence on the states, which is one of the leading features of the Ferris bill, now before Congress. The centered undoubtedly will suggest important amendments to the bill, which has the support of Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior

Secretary of the Interior.

Among the speakers at the conference are to be many men of National promi-

Oregon who will open the conference; Governor Lister, of Washington; Gov-ernor Johnson, of California; Governor Spry, of Utah, and Governor Carlson,

Five delegates will be accredited from each state. Members of the Oredelegation are Governor Withy-be, chairman; W. Lair Thompson, lamith; C. W. Hudson, of Bend; S. Huston and Edgar B. Piper, of

Following is the text of Senate joint memoria! No. 6, as passed by the Oregon Legislature, calling the conference and giving the reasons therefor:

Whereas, There is now pending in the Congress of the United States legislation designed to encourage the development of the water-power resources of the West, and Whereas, it is contemplated by such legislation that the interest and control of each sinte in the water power which may be developed, under the provisions of such legislation, shall in some particulars he no more than one-half, the other one-half accruing or resting in the Government of the United States, and
