SOME OF THE FINE EXHIBITS AT WILLAMETTE GRANGE FAIR.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Remarkable exhibits of what is possible agriculturally in the fertile, fruitful Willamette Valley were shown at the Grange fair Thursday, Friday and Saturday. An individual farm display by C. T. Wilkinson, of Salignaw, contained 150 separate exhibits. One by M. M. Wheeler contained nearly as many. A new feature of the latter exhibit was 12 different varieties of hay in miniature sales.

DRIVING BEE IS ON BILL

GOLF CHAMPION AND BALLPLAYER TO HAVE CONTEST TODAY

Between Games of Double-Header Spectators Will See Golf Club or Ball-Bat Honor Decided.

Rudolph Wilhelm, Oregon's champion golfer and one of the longest drivers in the Northwest, will be on hand this afternoon at Recreation Park and do his part toward convincing the baseball fans that a golfer can drive a golf ball further with a golf club than a baseball player can with a bat.

This event will take place between games of this afternoon's double-header. The 334-degree fan seems to be of the opinion that the baseball player can hit the ball further than the golfer. But when Rudolph is talking about sending the little white pellet over the schoolhouse on the other side of the center-field fence, it gives one cause to reflect.

Rudolph's average distance is said to be 250 feet on a fly, which would carry the ball into the center-field bleachers. It must be admitted that not many ballplayers are adept at hitting a baseball into this section of the park at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets.

Captain Bill Speas, of the Beavers, will select one of his best fungo artists to compete with the golf champion.

Pride Justified By Performance

Every owner of a Mitchell "SIX of '16" is proud of his purchase. And this pride is justified by the performance of the car. In a nutshell, this is the secret of Mitchell popularity—it answers every demand of personal pride.

Pride in Action—the quick start, the instant stop, and the miles of smooth, easy running between. Rough roads seem ironed out as you skim them in this Mitchell Six.
Pride in Appearance—lines that suggest abundant power with grace and comfort; the many exclusive details of luxury and convenience.
Pride in Mitchell Service which makes of every Mitchell an investment rather than a purchase.

Every car delivered creates an enthusiasm that sells another car, but by working 24 hours every day we are keeping up to the demand. Why not come in at once and see "THE SIX of '16"? Big car at a moderate price—125 in. wheelbase and a full 48-h.p. flexible motor. Words cannot describe its beauty, strength and power. You must see it—feel the wheel—get the thrill of its smooth action. A car is here at your disposal for a trial spin.

ELKS TO VISIT SALEM

THURSDAY NAMED SPECIAL DAY AT STATE FAIR.

Major Frank Hennessy and Band Will Participate and Special Train Has Been Provided.

Elks' day at the State Fair next Thursday. A special train for the Elks will leave the Oregon Electric station at Tenth and Hoyt streets at 8:30 A. M. Thursday and will leave Salem on the return trip at 11 P. M. A round-trip fare of $2 has been arranged with the railroad company, the return ticket to be good on any train up to and including the following Monday.

Led by Major Frank Hennessy, minus his belligerent mustache, the Portland Elks' Band will head the excursion of antlered ones on the Salem expedition. At the fair special features of entertainment for Elks will be provided. The band—50 pieces strong—will play at the fair and probably downtown in Salem.

The Salem Elks officially will be hosts, Thursday night they will entertain the Portland band at their own clubrooms. A programme of entertainment, dancing and refreshments will be provided for the visitors. Excursions from other points in the state probably will be arranged by Elks' lodges in the various cities.

FAIR HONORS EXPECTED

Poultry Entered at Lane County Exhibit Going to State Fair.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Lane County birds will figure prominently in the awards at the Oregon State Fair, according to Dr. P. Keeney, Oregon Poultry Commissioner at the Panama-Pacific Exposition and judge of the poultry exhibit at the Lane County Fair. They will also capture honors at the World's Fair show in San Francisco in November, he says.

Eugene poultrymen carried off the bulk of the honors at the two big California shows last year and established Eugene's reputation among the poultry fanciers of the Pacific Coast. This year the Lane County Poultry Association is going in for a fight for honors against the entire country. Next week all the birds shown at the poultry show here will be shipped to Salem.

JOMELLI SALE UNDER WAY

Increased Business Expected at Booth for Concert Tickets.

Young society women of the city are combining their best efforts to make the Jomelli concert for the salvation Army Rescue Home a financial success. They have a booth in the Fifth street entrance of the Lipman & Wolf department store, where the sale of tickets was in process yesterday. The sale will be continued Monday and Tuesday.

Saturday's sale was not as successful as had been anticipated, but on Monday morning the girls will resume their work with vigor and perhaps establish several booths on the busy business street corners.

MR. BOURNE BUYS BIG FARM

Ex-Senator May Erect Mansion on Alabama Plantation.

Ex-Senator Jonathan Bourne, of Oregon, has purchased a 1400-acre farm in Alabama, according to a letter received from Mobile, by a Portland man, from a personal friend in Alabama.

The plantation is near Thosdore, Alabama, and is known as the Carol Plantation. Several hundred acres already have been cleared and winter planting has begun. The Bourne mansion will be built on the new plantation, it is understood.

Mr. Bourne's legal residence has been in Oregon for many years, but in the past ten years he has been only nominally a resident of this state, his interests and time being attracted to other fields.
