Crandall and Mrs. Crandall, of Salem, and Mrs. David Morse, of Empire City, also were present.

Commissioner O. M. Clark and Mrs. Charles A. Gray, celebrated their birthdays on Wednesday in a real runaway party, leaving the exposition entirely for the diversion of a so-called party to see "The New Henrietta." Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morden, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jackson, all of Portland.

The formal announcement of Miss Crystal Hyland's engagement to Luis O. Abeill, of Bolivia, was the occasion of a dainty tea party in the breakfast-drawing-room on Saturday, a small intimate affair to which personal friends of Miss Crystal were invited, and for which Mrs. Gray was hostess.

Two of the prettiest of the Oregon girls here, Margaret Raider and Hil-dreth Humason, poured. Guests from Portland were the Misses Margaret Raider, Mildred Humason, Geraldine Courson, Constance Hyland, Dorothy Crawford, Mary Theobald, Margaret Sheehy, and Mesdames George Hyland, Roland Chapman, Ernest Duncan, Nicolai O. M. Clark, George McBride, Baxter D. G. Lively, from Bend, Miss Muriel Perringer, from Hood River, Mrs. C. N. Ravellin, and the following from exposition official circles: The Misses Josephine Moore, Margaret Goldaracena, Dorothy Manning, Misses Duenas, Helen Wilcox, Misses Barnett, Dorothy Cooper, Florence Burlison, Misses Black, the Misses Brown, Galena Gale, Alice Davis, Vera Garrat, Pearl Delzer, Viola Nordman, Dorothy Dowd, Mesdames Cramer, Power, Torchiana, Goldaracena, Duenas, Marvin, Green, Seabury, Dorcas, Roma, Walein, Dollar, Beth, Chen Chae, Kium.

Two of the most popular Oregon girls to have graced the Oregon building, Miss Nell Theilson, a daughter of Henry B. Theilson, and Miss Ingrid Lively, a daughter of Representative Hawley, both of Salem, after several weeks in the building during the time they attended many exposition functions and assisted Mrs. Gray in the reception room, have left for home.

Mrs. O. M. Clark with her son and daughter-in-law, the Tutties, have gone to Los Angeles for a few days of sightseeing. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morden, who have been delightful guests in the building, left Wednesday by boat for Portland. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jackson, of Portland, and Mrs. Ingrid Lively, a daughter of Representative Hawley, was a dinner guest. Mrs. George Gray and daughter, Prudence, of Salem, have arrived for a short visit with Mrs. Charles A. Gray. Jim Mahon, of Anderson Valley, Harney County, one of the big ranchers and stockmen of that section, made a flying visit to the Oregon building, but stayed only long enough to say emphatically that every county ought to be roasted for not having a fine big exhibit down here.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

F. M. Seifer was entertained on September 17 on the occasion of his birthday with a surprise party, arranged by relatives and friends. The evening was passed playing 500, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Seifer was assisted in serving by Mrs. May Wilson, Miss Berl Wilson, Miss Minnie E. Smith and Miss Charles Lutz.

Card honors fell to Mrs. S. H. Howard, S. H. Howard, George L. Gardner and T. A. Martin.

Pink and white asters were used to deck the rooms. A. O. Wand made a speech of presentation, giving the honor guest a handsome gift on behalf of the assemblage. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Anita Brooks Urdahl, talented little daughter of Mrs. Clara Brooks Urdahl, celebrated her sixth birthday on Thursday at the home of her grandparents, Judge and Mrs. J. J. Brooks, near Balboa Park, San Diego, Cal.

The table was decked with pink roses and ferns, a huge birthday cake with six candles being the feature of the decorations. Miss Dorothy Cohen, of San Diego played piano selections and later Miss Anita Urdahl entertained the gathering with Greek dances.

Judge Brooks, who also celebrated his 77th birthday although weeks in advance of the date, was surrounded by friends of his youth. The hostess

EDNA HAS A SUGGESTION WHICH SHE WANTS "ALL THE GIRLS" TO READ

She bought her Autumn Suit ON CREDIT, and she declares it's simply heart-breaking to her to think of the many scores of other girls who don't really understand how convenient and worry-saving CHERY'S Installment System is.

Edna's suggestion is that every single woman in Portland who'd like a new Suit this week GO TO CHERY'S tomorrow or very soon and buy one on weekly terms.

She sympathizes warmly with the shabby dressers who "would dress better if they could afford to," because she was so recently a member of that class herself. But she says it's easy to graduate into the well-dressed class—there's really no excuse, you see, for looking dowdy when CHERY'S will trust you and sell you just what you need to wear just when you need it.

A fraction of the price is all you'll need to pay when you pick out your Suit. Any woman of responsible character will gladly be received as a credit patron at CHERY'S.

You had better take their address, as you'll want to use it in a day or so—258-259 Washington street, in the Pittock block.
