Taylor-Street Methodists Succeed in Electing Four Delegates to Saratoga.

MEN FRIENDLY TO BISHOP

Representative of Southern Church Brings Gretings, Which Are Returned in Kind and Reunion of Branches Is Discussed.

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 25 .- (Special.)-That the Taylor-street Metho dist Church row, politics and other factional differences entered quietly into today's sessions of the annual conerence of the Methodist Episcopal hurch now in progress here, was the expression of many of those present when the so-called insurgents elected four delegates to the general confermce of the Methodist Church to be held at Saratoga, N. Y., next May. The delegates elected were Dr. Clarence True Wilson, of Portland; Rev. J. T. Abbott, of Eugene; Rev. Hiram Gould, of Newberg, and Rev. C. C. Rarick, of Portland

The reserve delegates elected were Rev. A. N. Avison, of Salem; Rev. James Moore, of Salem, late district superintendent, and Rev. W. B. Holigingshead, delegate-at-large.

The opposition to the insurgent control of the conference was led by Rev. T. W. McDewell and Day Brand P. J.

If it is conference was led by Rev. J. W. McDougall and Rev. Frank L. Loveland, but neither was able to assemble sufficient strength to assure election. To avoid, if possible, the chance of these two men securing places on the reserve list of delegates to the general conference the election of the alternates was postponed until late in the day.

Delegates Friendly to Bishop. The delay in balloting on the re-serve delegates to the general confer-ence was admitted by many of those present at the session to have been erfangd in order that the insurgents could select another slate. While the active delegates are not antagonistic to the bishop in every way, they are admittedly opposed to the Fortland church consolidation, or acceptable to the dissenting faction. Personally the Only two delegates were elected on the first ballot, these being Mr. Wilson and Mr. Abbott. There were no for-nal nominations, the members of the conference being entitled to as many votes as there were delegates to elect. Dr. Wilson received 71 votes and Mr. Dr. Wilson received 71 votes and Mr. Abbott 58 votes. Fifty votes were necessary to elect. On the third ballot Mr. Gould was elected with 84 votes. Mr. Gould was elected with 84 votes. Mr. Rarick received 71 votes on the lifth ballot. The relationship existing between the Methodist Episcopal and South Methodist Episcopal and South Methodist churches and the contemplated union of these two denominations was discussed at some length, following presentation of the subject by Dr. T. B. Ford, of Oregon City.

Dr. Ford was a delegate to the recent conference of the Methodist Church held here, and expressed himself at that time with regard to the self at the sex. From these men were far the best. From these one were chosen the three who competed in the final tests, Long Tom, the old king; Speedball and Culdesac, the hardest-plunging horses in the West, were saved for them to ride.

Following are the 15 who qualified for the semi-finals and the horses they draw:

Reunion Is Favored.

Bishop Cooke responded and spoke on the South as his home and where he would like to lie when his life's work was done. Nothing would bring about the union of the North and South as would the union of the two Methodist Churches, the bishop said.

Considerable discussion with regard to the advisability of con-tinuing the agent for the conference claimants' fund. It was decided to retain the officer and Rev. George H. Hopkins was named for the position.

Dr. Bovard, secretary of the Home Missions Extension Society, made a report in which he showed that about
