Death of Grand Keeper of Records and Seal Stinson Casts Gloom Throughout Order in State. Supreme Meet Is Planned.

The Grand Lodge of Oregon, Knights The Grand Lodge of Oregon, Knights of Pythias, will convene in Portland next Tuesday, October 12, in 34th an-nual convention. Because of the many important matters to be considered, this will be one of the most noteworthy conventions of the grand lodge. The grand lodge will remain in session two, and probably three, days. Almost 400 members from all sections of the state will be here to attend the sessions.

members from all sections of the state whill be here to attend the sessions. There are 79 lodges in Oregon now, and all will have at least two delegates, and some from three to five each. In addition to the regular representatives, there will be several past grand chan-cellors attending, and also a number of past chancellors from subordinate lodges, who are privileged to attend the session, though they are not dele-gates.

Mr. Stinson's Death Saddens.

Mr. Stinson's Death Saddens. Universal sorrow among the mem-bers of the order in this state over the death of Grand Keepe- of Records and Seal Stinson will sadden the work of the coming convention. ### Rank to Be Conferred on Class.

Rank to Be Conferred on Class. At the opening of the grand lodge fast Tuesday morning the Grand Lodge Rank will be conferred upon a large class of men from all parts of the state. This rank is conferred upon past chan-cellors of the subordinate lodges only. The annual reports of the grand lodge officers will also be received Tuesday. An encouraging feature of these re-ports is that the Order of knights of Pythias has made a net gain of 359 in this state during the past fiscal year. This gain was made 1 the face of the fact that many fraternal organizations and societies have suffered a loss in and societies have suffered a loss in membership during the past year because of financial depression
