Machines Recommended as Economical in Bureau of Street Cleaning.

NET REDUCTION IS $27,135

Mr. Daly Criticized for Opposing All Increases in Salaries in Other Departments and Then Getting Own Driver Raised.

SUMMARY OF WORK OF CITY COUNCIL TO DATE ON 1916 BUDGET. Total amount asked for in all budgets, $3,448,139.39...

The jobs of 42 laborers—the men who sweep streets at night for $3 a shift—were lopped off by the City Council yesterday in favor of street-cleaning machines.

Three Machines Cost $15,000. The plan is to buy three machines at $5000 each. One of these was provided in the budget and the other two were put up to the Council by Mayor Daly yesterday.

Yesterday's budget meeting was marked by only one fuss. This came up when Commissioner Baker made a speech for economy.

Mr. Baker asked Mayor Albee, "What's the occasion for this speech at this time?" asked Mayor Albee. "I'm just trying to make you realize the seriousness of the situation," replied Mr. Baker.

At this point Commissioner Bigelow rushed to the rescue and made a motion which the Mayor and Mr. Baker quit squabbling and get down to work.

Mr. Baker later raised the question of the propriety of Commissioner Daly's salary.

The raise was granted at the session on Thursday. Commissioner Daly had asked for a raise of $1000.

It had been planned to take up the water bureau at yesterday's meeting, but it was not reached before Commissioner Dieck had to leave.

LIVELY TIMES ARE PREDICTED Further Budget Sessions Expected to Be More Spicy.

Lively rows and other doings are in store for the city budget committee (City Council) commencing tomorrow, when 1916 budget appropriations for several important departments and bureaus not touched so far are scheduled for trimming.

The first bureau to be considered at the coming sessions will be the water bureau. Some of the Commissioners have their axes sharpened for clerks and inspectors and general expenditures.

Commissioner Dieck's engineering end of the works is scheduled for an onslaught. For weeks some of the Commissioners are said to have been looking into things in that end of the City Hall, with the result that Commissioner Dieck will have to deliver EPISCOPALIANS TO SELL SCADDING HOUSE TICKETS. Campaign Begins Tomorrow—Public to Have Opportunity to Direct Distribution of Offerings.

A general committee, headed by D. M. Botsford, advertising manager for Meiser & Frank, and sub-committees from all the eight Episcopal parishes of the city, will be on duty early tomorrow morning to sell meal and bed ticket books for the benefit of Scadding House, the institution maintained by the Episcopal parishes of Portland.

Books of 12 meal tickets or seven bed tickets will be sold for $1 each, and as many of the office buildings and business houses of the city as it is possible to visit will be canvassed by the ticket sellers.

Mr. Botsford, in speaking of the plans of the committee, said that the fact that the public would feel as though it was having something to say in the matter of the distribution of the charity would insure the success of the ticket sale.

As a brief summary of the work being done at Scadding House, the following figures are given: During the six months ending February 1, 1915, Scadding House sold 6558 clean beds at 15 cents apiece; gave 7214 beds; 41,683 meals at 5 cents; gave 71 permanent positions; secured 3029 hours of miscellaneous labor; received 172 garments and gave away 1142 garments.

The sub-committees that have been appointed and to each one of which has been assigned a distinct territory in the city to cover, are headed by D. N. Alrutz, of Trinity; Dr. A. J. Browning, of St. Stephens; J. C. Appell, of St. Johns and Sellwood; John Pierson, of All Saints; Gage Hazelton, St. Marks; Paul Cowgill, St. Michael's, and Bruce Roman, of St. David's.

Nationally known women who were members of the party were Miss Anna Gordon, National president; Mrs. Ella Rooke, National vice-president; Mrs. Mary C. Munns, National treasurer; Mrs. Minnie B. Horning, superintendent of prison reform; Mrs. Nannie Curtis, president of the Texas union; Mrs. Florence D. Richards, president of the Ohio union. Other state presidents, superintendents of juvenile work and delegates completed the party.

While in San Francisco the temperance workers will be guests at a reception at the California building, from San Francisco they will go to Los Angeles and San Diego. There the party will disband and its members return home. Many of the delegates returned home from Seattle, and the original number has dwindled from 500 to a few more than 200.

'COPS' NEIGHBORS RAIDED Federal Officers Find Opium Den 2 Doors From Police Station.

A building two doors from police headquarters, on Second street, was the scene of an opium raid by the Federal authorities Friday night. Three Chinese were arrested and half a can of opium seized.

The raid was the outcome of a report to the United States authorities that two cans of opium had been purchased in the building. It was believed that a larger quantity of the drug was to be delivered last night.

Fourteen Deputy Marshals swooped down on the Chinese. Two hours were spent in searching the building. The arrested men were taken to the County Jail.

BOYS' FARM IS URGED

Judge Cleeton Asks County to Provide Industrial Home.

Juvenile Judge Cleeton has written a letter to the County Commissioners asking them to provide an industrial home for delinquent boys.

He suggests that 10 or 20 acres of the old county farm on the Canyon road, which recently reverted to the county, be used for this purpose.

A building, the Judge states, would cost not to exceed $2500. His idea is to provide a place where delinquent boys can get the training and something about agriculture, the principal object being to keep them out of the streets.

Boys of the Portland Trade School have prepared plans and specifications for such a home.
