

EXTENSION ROLL BIG

University Lectures Will Reach
More Than 500 in Classes.

ART COURSE IS BEGUN

Mrs. M. H. Parsons, Dr. D. W. Morton, Dr. George Rebec Begin
Studies—Commercial Teaching
Conference Is Proposed.

More than 500 students will be reached in regular classes, several hundred more will be reached by series of lectures that continue for shorter periods, and still others will be reached by single lectures, in the programme of extension work which will be done in Portland by the University of Oregon this Fall and Winter.

The enrollment in the classes of Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons, which meet in the Central Library, is about 400. Mrs. Parsons' English composition class attracted 125. It is held on alternate Fridays in room B. In the short story class 175 were in attendance. This class is held on alternate Saturdays in room B. In the class in literary appreciation 93 signed the roll; this class also meets on alternate Saturdays in room B.

Literary Analysis Planned.
In the course in literary appreciation, Mrs. Parsons will give a comparative analysis that may lead to a comprehensive view of the technique, significance and art value of modern fiction.

Dr. D. W. Morton, dean of the school of commerce, will go to Portland every other Thursday to talk to the institute certificate holders of the Portland chapter of the American Institute of Banking, and to the bank officers of Portland who may choose to attend that class. The first part of the course will be followed in a study of early American banking history. Arrangements have also been made to visit with the commercial teachers in the various high schools of Portland, to talk over methods of commercial teaching and ways and means of making the work practical.

Dr. George Rebec, professor of philosophy, will conduct on alternate weeks in the Central Library a class in psychology.

Modern Art Course Is Begun.

Beginning Friday, October 15, Dr. Rebec started a course of lectures on "Modern Art in Relation to the Movement of Modern Ideas and Modern Life." These lectures will be given on the first and third Fridays of each month at 2 o'clock, in the Women's Woodcraft Hall. Friday's lecture was on "The Mind of Florence and Leonardo." The remaining topics will be: "From St. Francis to Raphael," "The Angel—Prometheus," "Genius, the Soul of the Flesh," "Correggio and Murillo—Jesuit Piety," "The Genius of Spain," "Bacchus Devout—Rubens," "Durer and Rembrandt—Both Worlds at Once," "Good Taste and Good Sense—From Poussin to Hogarth," "Romantic Half-Lights and High Lights," "The Artist—Scrutinist—The Relation of Art to the Scientific Spirit of the Nineteenth Century," "The Art of Democracy." Lantern slides will be introduced as often as feasible.

A class in advanced German may be conducted through the Winter and some work in education will be done among Portland teachers by Dr. Henry D. Sheldon, dean of the department of education.

JOEL W. GILE, 79, PASSES

Trip Taken Over Plains to Oregon in Year 1865.

Joel W. Gile, a pioneer resident, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. P. Tomlinson, 722 East Yamhill street, at the age of 79 years.

Mr. Gile was born in Plainfield, Conn., and was married to Miss Clara Lott in 1858. With his wife he crossed the plains to Oregon in 1865, spending a year at Boise, Idaho, and afterwards making his home at Portland. For 10 years he had a farm in the Palouse country, which he disposed of, and returned to Portland.

Meier & Frank Co.
Established 1857
THE QUALITY STORE OF PORTLAND
Fifth, Sixth, Morrison, Alder Sts.

Just off the press—the finest, the biggest and most intensely interesting book of new Fall and Winter merchandise ever issued by this great store. This fine new catalogue is printed on the best of paper—it is illustrated in a manner that makes mail order shopping from Meier & Frank Co. a pleasure.

—Instead of going miles through the rain and over bad roads to trade, you can sit down in your easy chair and select almost every imaginable article from our immense assortments.

—No other Department Store in the West maintains such an efficient service for out-of-town shoppers!

—If your name is not on our mailing list send it in and you will receive one of these beautiful catalogues absolutely free of charge.

Our "Personal Service" For Out-of-Town Patrons

—Your orders are not handled in a machine-like way here! They are placed in the hands of intelligent, trained shoppers who are thoroughly familiar with our stocks, and choose for you as carefully as you would do in person.

—If you do not find exactly what you want in our catalogue, write us fully as to the material, the color, the size, and we will send you samples or garments from which a selection may be made.

—Our Mail Order Department is a separate organization. The staff of expert Mail Order shoppers is headed by a woman who has for years studied the needs of out-of-town shoppers throughout the Northwest.

—The day is past when those living in smaller cities and towns need depend on limited assortments of goods—and deny themselves the great facilities and buying advantages which a modern store like Meier & Frank Company can offer.

—Our Mail Order patrons will be found in practically every town, village or country district in the great Northwest. We have built up this immense out-of-town patronage on the strong foundation of SERVICE, plus ASSORTMENT, plus QUALITY, plus VALUE.

—To reliable people out of the city we also extend the courtesy of our Credit Department.

—If you have not yet had the opportunity to find out what "personal service" from the Meier & Frank Mail Order Department means, one request will quickly convince you.
