That wrestling is received with more ar-dor by the fans in other places than Port-land there is no doubt. Nebranka cops the bacon for wrestling nuits, however, Just the other day Governor Morehead of that state, presented a diamond belt valued at $3009 to Jce Stecker. The belt was made of gold and contained 305 diamonds.

Jack Dillon, who according to Frank Kan-dall, is no longer a middleweight but a full fiedged lightheavy, has issued a challenge to Jess Willard. He announced he was will-ing to clean up the horizon of hopes before he got the match with the champ or re-tire from the squared circle.

thre from the squared circle. George Foster, horn in Bokoshe, Okla., iwenty-six years asco. is another of those Hight hand pitching "phemons" who have caused the rest of the American league managers to shudder. Most of his exper-lence has been gained with the Red Sor, as he started his career in the Red Sor, as he started his career in the Red Sor, as he started his career in the Red Sor, as he started his career in the ream league with Houston in 1912, and was with that iteam for a whole year before discovered. He came to the Red Sor in 1918. Foster is one of the smallest pitchers in the American league. He stands only about 25 feet 5 Inches and weights around 150 pounds. We'll admit that he's a midger as pitchers gr, but the Fulliller will bear out the assertion that he is a bear cat for his inches.

wonderfully effective, holding the White Sox to a single hit. When all is said and done the work of Eddie Plank on October 11, 1911, was undoubtedly the high-water mark in world's series pitching history. Never was the crossfire artist better, and at his best there were faw his peer. It .033 his best there were few his peer.
