

SOCIETY

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

Miss Polly Young, Popular Army Post Belle Who Will Leave Soon for Manila

Now that the much-feted Pratt family have come and gone, society has settled down for an unusually quiet week or two. There is scarcely anything of a social nature to chronicle, with the exception of one or two small and informal affairs. Ice skating has taken the place of other exhilarating sports, and many of the Seattle women who are visitors in this city are endeavoring to get ahead of their friends in the north by attending every session of the Ice Hippodrome, in order to perfect themselves in this graceful art before the opening of the Seattle rink. Many prominent folk already have reserved boxes for the opening hockey game of the season, scheduled for December 10, and in some instances for the entire hockey season.

What will happen to us when the exposition is over? No more real reason for running down to the gray southern city for a fortnight or two, with repeated trips in order to see all that was missed on the first trip. San Francisco is always gay, and good times abound whether in the name of the exposition or just because it's the season of the people. There is never a dull moment there, so that Portland folk will still go southward for their fun. Workers for the various church bazaars are busy plying their needles at this early date, and a dazzling array of Christmas gifts will be all ready for the eager purchasers, saving them much time, thought and money, as the articles to be placed on sale are marked very low.

The departure yesterday of Mrs. George E. Young and attractive daughter

Mrs. W. W. Guthrie, Patrons for Blackstone Club Dance

Look have been issued by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Edward Brooke. The ceremony will be solemnized on Wednesday, November 10, at Trinity Church, and will be attended only by relatives and a few close friends. Immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride-elect's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Hunt Lewis, Crossways, Riverwood.

There will be no attendants at the wedding, except Miss Genevieve Brooke, Mrs. Brooke will give her daughter in marriage. Dr. Morrison will officiate, and the blessing will be pronounced by Rt. Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner. Mr. Look will arrive in Portland, November 2, from his home in Louisville, Ky., and the young folk will be extensively entertained previous to the wedding.

The early part of the week started off gaily, with social compliments for the Frederick B. Fratts and their daughter, Miss Mary Carolyn Pratt, as well as her house guest, Miss Catherine Mumford. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. Allen Lewis were dinner hosts in their honor; Monday afternoon Mrs. Lewis was again a hostess, giving a motor party over the Highway, with luncheon at Crown Point. Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett entertained their relatives with a charming dinner party, only members of the family being included. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt and party left Tuesday night for San Francisco, and were accompanied by Miss Helen Ladd, for a few days' trip to the Fair.

showered upon the latest addition to the Marion F. Dolph household, little Miss Claire Houghton Dolph, who arrived Monday night.

Mrs. C. Allen Lewis left Wednesday for an extended stay in San Francisco, visiting relatives and also attending the exposition. Miss Failing and Miss Mary E. Failing also left the latter part of the week for San Francisco and San Diego to visit the fairs, and they will stop off at numerous other interesting points in the South.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Hackley Smith (Jeannette Thomas) arrived Wednesday night to pass a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas. They will remain until Monday, when the young folk will go to their new home in San Joaquin Valley, where they will join the Robert Nym Parks, Mrs. Park being also popular in this city, when she visited here.

One of the prettiest of the week was that for which Mrs. Philip Hart was hostess Wednesday. About 50 of the younger matrons, in a room called during the afternoon, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Carl L. Wernicke, Mrs. Henry Wessinger, Mrs. James D. Hart and Mrs. Zair Wessinger, who presided at the attractive table. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Andrew D. Norris, Mrs. Gilbert Durbin, Mrs. Stanley Jewett, Mrs. Erskine Wood, Mrs. Lewis McArthur, Misses Jean Mackenzie, Katherine Hart and Stella Frohman.

Mrs. Landon R. Mason will leave Thursday for San Francisco, where she will be a guest of Mrs. Philip Schuyler Kamm for part of her visit in the South. Later Mrs. Mason will sail for Honolulu with Miss Helen Platt.

Miss Polly Young, of Vancouver Barracks, who left yesterday with her mother, Mrs. George S. Young, for San Francisco, from whence they will sail November 5 for Manila, was the honor guest for the dinner and theater party over which Miss Claire Wilcox presided Thursday evening. Dinner at the Wilcox residence was followed by a box party at the Hellig, the young folk being chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Koehler. Additional guests were Hamilton Corbett and Harry Ridge.

Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver's bridge tea on Friday afternoon was delightful in every detail. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. A. E. Mackay and Mrs. Arnold Rothwell, the pretty tea table being presided over by Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. Wheelwright, Mrs. Robert W. Lewis and Mrs. C. E. Warrant. Mrs. Walter F. Burrell served punch from a prettily decked table, the floral decorations making an effective foil for the smart toilettes of the guests. Over a hundred matrons and maids called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Maurice E. Crumpacker also entertained Friday afternoon with a charming informal tea, about 60 of the younger matrons and maids enjoying her hospitality. The attractive tea table was presided over by Mrs. Charles C. Hindman and Mrs. Henry Wessinger. They were assisted by Mrs. W. D. Clark, Misses Katherine Hart, Rhoda Rumelin and Ruth Teal.

Miss Margaret Ayer, who has been the house guest of the Dick Sherwoods in Spokane for a few weeks, returned to Portland yesterday.

Miss Katherine Hart presided at a pretty informal dinner Tuesday evening at her home, covers being placed for eight.

Miss Vona Guthrie will compliment Miss Grace Peters, popular bride-elect, with an informal tea Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Stevens entertained a group of friends at a pretty luncheon Thursday, honoring Mrs. Frederick Emery, of Pittsburg, Pa., who is the house guest of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Pitcock. Covers were placed around an attractively decked table for Mrs. Emery, Mrs. J. Edward Gantenbein and Miss Albin Page.

Among the enthusiastic skaters at the Ice Hippodrome during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. LaMont (Della Hahn), of Seattle, who are the guests of the latter's father for a few weeks. They frequently entertain a group of friends at the rink, having become devotees of this sport, in order to be ready to take up the exercise when the rink in Seattle opens.

Mrs. Marion H. Humeau, of San Francisco, is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. A. B. Steinbach, and is also a devotee of ice skating. She was the guest of Mrs. I. N. Lipman at a skating party last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Gorman, of Seattle, have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Helena Ursula, to Joseph Patrick Cronin, of this city, the wedding to take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Seattle. A number of enthusiastic motorists of this city and close friends of the bridegroom-elect have planned to motor to the Sound city for the event.

Complimenting Miss A. A. A. Mearns, the latest bride to blossom in social circles, Mrs. Everett Amos will entertain a group of the younger set tomorrow evening at her home with an informal dance.

Honoring Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker, who will leave soon for the East, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine R. Smith presided at a delightful dinner Saturday night. Seated around the prettily decked table were: Dr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Claude D. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Ribsdale, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, Madame Joanne Jomelli, J. A. McHolland, Orin Bachus and the host and hostess.

The opening of the Forting Symphony Orchestra concert will be a notable event of this afternoon at the Hellig Theater. Many line parties will be entertained and the boxholders for the initial performance are: Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Colonel and Mrs. Henry C. Cabell, Miss Failing, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mr.

LITTLE MAID WHO, AT 3, HAS A REMARKABLE VOICE

Helen Loraine Stratton, the attractive little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Stratton, of 804 East Mill street, who, at the age of 3 years, shows remarkable musical talent. Her parents plan to undertake the culture of her voice at an early age.

and Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur, Miss Elizabeth Caldwell and Mrs. Mose Christensen.

This concert will be followed at the close of the week, Saturday night, with the second of the chamber concerts, at the Art Museum.

Arrangements for an interesting evening to be given by Fraulein Marie Mayer, of Oberammergau, the gifted and talented young artist, known as the Mary Magdalene of the Passion Play, 1910, Oberammergau, are being made by Mrs. G. J. Frankel, Mrs. Adeline M. Alvord and Mrs. Herbert Garr Reed, on Friday evening, November 5, Fraulein Mayer will be heard at the White Temple in her beautiful and inspiring talk, "The Message of Oberammergau," in which she tells of her country, her people and her play. Fraulein Mayer has passed most of her life in the atmosphere of this famed Passion Play, having appeared in the production three times—once as one of the children of Jerusalem, in 1890, as the Angel in the Garden of Gethsemane; in 1900 and 1910 in the role of Mary Magdalene. She is also the first participant to appear before the American public, and since her arrival in America she has been the recipient of much social attention.

Some of the prominent people who will act as patrons and patronesses for November 5 are: Mayor and Mrs. H. R. Aibee, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Alderman, Mrs. William C. Alvord, Mrs. William F. Amos, Rev. John H. Boyd, Mrs. Robert George, Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Rev. and Mrs. Luther R. Dyott, Mrs. Frederick Eggert, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. French, Mrs. F. J. Flynn, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Hinson, Miss Josephine Hammond, Mrs. J. Coulter Hare, Mrs. Thomas Honeyman, Mrs. G. A. Johnson, Rev. and Mrs. Frank L. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Leot, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Father O'Hara, Rev. J. Richard Olson, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Plummer, Mrs. Cora Puffer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Smith, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens, Mrs. E. E. Tait, Mrs. Waitman T. Wade, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox and Mrs. H. C. Wortman.

The first of a series of delightful dancing parties will be given by the Blackstone Club on Friday evening, November 5, at the University Club. Effort is being spared by the committee to make the opening party one of the most interesting and enjoyable affairs of the season. The patrons and patronesses for the occasion are Judge and Mrs. Calvin U. Gantenbein, Judge and Mrs. George N. Davis, Judge and Mrs. W. N. Gaten, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollack. Members of the committee on arrangements are: Chester S. Caplinger, Thomas B. Collins, Alfred J. Shawcross, Thomas G. Ryan, Ernest J. Maguire, Walter T. McGuirk and John L. Bosworth. This committee will be assisted by the following young women: Winnifred P. Palstan, Ruth Atwood, Hazel Louisville, Lydia M. Villeneuve, Irene M. Harmon, Virginia A. Ryan and Ethel M. Goodrich.

The wedding of Miss Myrtle Brix and Henry Philip Buehner will be an event of December 15, which will be a large affair at Westminster Presbyterian Church. After the arrival of two of the bride-elect's attendants, Miss Judith Dooling, of Cincinnati, and Miss Edna Christensen, of Minneapolis, early next month, a number of prominent social affairs will be given to honor the popular young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank were honor guests at the charming dinner party presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Max Hirsch last night at their home. Later the evening was passed in dancing.

Honoring Mrs. Robert S. de Bow, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. N. Sreadick, Mrs. Preston Smith was luncheon hostess on Wednesday. Additional guests were: Mrs. Clara H. Waldo, who will leave shortly for San Francisco; Mrs. Florence M. Creadick; Mrs. John Bradley and Mrs. Preston C. Smith.

Mrs. A. B. Steinbach will entertain tomorrow with a bridge tea in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Marion Hirschman, of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. de Schweinitz have postponed their departure for Florence, Or., until next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jacobson left last week for a brief visit in San Francisco, after which they will go to New York for a month.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker will be at home this afternoon from 4 until 7 o'clock to bid adieu to their friends. Mrs. Walker will leave in a few days for the East, and will be accompanied as far as San Francisco by Dr. Walker.

The engagement of Miss Jean Spencer to George W. Herron was announced last week at a pretty bridge tea, for which Miss Mary Blossom was hostess. Miss Spencer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Spencer and is a popular bud, being very popular in the younger contingent. She is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall.

Mr. Herron is the son of William Christy Herron, a prominent resident of Cincinnati, and for the past five years he has made his home in this city. He formerly lived in Ohio. The wedding date has not yet been set, but plans are being made for an early wedding. Only a few of the bride-elect's closest friends were guests at the announcement party, and the tea table was presided over by Mrs. Roland Durham and Mrs. Sidney Bert. They were assisted by Miss Cornelia Stanley, Miss Dorothy Strowbridge and Miss Laura Blossom.

Friends of Mrs. Lewis Fox Frissell, of New York, will be pleased to learn that she will reach here tomorrow for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell. Mrs. Frissell has been attending the Fair in San Francisco, and is en route to her home, so her stay in this city will be for but a few days. The following day (Tuesday) Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Montgomery and children, Margery and Jack, will arrive for a week's stay with Mrs. Burrell. Among the smart affairs planned to honor the interesting visitors will be a dinner, for which Mr. and Mrs. Burrell will be hosts Tuesday evening.

Miss Nellie Bayly, whose wedding will be an event of this week, has been delightfully feted for the past few weeks. Miss Hazel Russell and Mrs. Earl C. LaTourrette were hostesses for two very pretty luncheons during the past week, the former being given at her home and the latter at the University Club on Thursday.

Yesterday Mrs. Ralph Robinson entertained a few of the bride-elect's closest friends with an Oreganum party, followed by tea at the Portland Hotel. The wedding will be an event of Tuesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Bayly, and Dr. Herbert L. Gibbon, her fiance, will arrive from Spokane tomorrow.

Mrs. Schuyler C. Long entertained at a bridge tea at her home on Crampton avenue Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Edward Stanley, of South Bend, Ind., and Miss Vera Sonborn, of Laporte, Ind., who are her house guests for a month. Wall baskets of bright-hued autumn leaves and clusters of yellow chrysanthemums were used for decoration, combined with palms. Highest honors at the nine tables of auction bridge fell to Mrs. James Willoughby.

WOMEN SHAVE UNKNOWINGLY

When women are so unwise as to use so-called hair removers, they actually shave unknowingly because such preparations stimulate hair growth after each removal. The proper way to remove hair is to devitalize it. It is impossible to accomplish this result with pastes and rub-on preparations because they only remove hair from the surface of the skin. DeMiracle, the original liquid depilatory, devitalizes hair by attacking it under the skin as well as on the skin. Imitations of DeMiracle are as worthless as pastes and rub-on preparations because they lack certain ingredients that DeMiracle alone contains which give it the power to rob hair of its vitality—its life sustaining force. Buy a bottle of the genuine DeMiracle today and you will get the original liquid hair remover. Others are worthless imitations—refuse them. Remember, you are not asked to buy DeMiracle on a mere promise of your money being refunded. DeMiracle is the only depilatory that has a binding guarantee in each package which entitles you to the refund of your money if it fails. DeMiracle is sold in $1.00 and $2.00 bottles. The larger size is the most economical for dermatologists and large users to buy. If your dealer will not supply you, order direct from us. The truth about the treatment of superfluous hair mailed in a plain sealed envelope on request. DeMiracle Chemical Co., Dept. D, Park Ave. and 129th St., New York—Adv.
