

And Mrs. Robert Wilson. Mrs. Long's guests at bridge were: Mrs. George Minor, Mrs. J. McKelvey, Mr. Charles B. Olsen, Mrs. Charles Olsen, Mrs. Lyle Dreyfus, Mrs. Isaac Gratton, Mrs. Albert B. Brown, Mrs. James Willoughby, Mrs. B. Fields, Mrs. George Wille, Mrs. M. Mowry, Mrs. Harry Drenkel, Mrs. S. C. Morrison, Mrs. M. Christian, Mrs. Jack Bedford, Mrs. Ora Sumner, Mrs. M. Goodwin, Mrs. Edward Staley, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. James E. Sophy, Miss Verna Sonneborn, Miss Bernetta Wortman, Mrs. S. C. Morrison and Mrs. George Minor, assisted the hostess serving tea, at which time additional guests called to meet the visitors, who are receiving a great deal of attention during their visit here.

Julius C. Friendly, who is a member of one of Portland's old families, has captivated a charming and attractive young girl of San Francisco, Miss Emma Herrscher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Herrscher. Their engagement was announced last week in the southern city, and is the result of a recent visit made to the Exposition by the popular bachelor. He is prominent in business and civic affairs of this city, and a member of several Portland clubs. The wedding will be an event of January.

The Herrscher family is one of the pioneer families of the Bay section of California. The bride-elect was educated in Europe as well as in this country. She speaks several languages and is an excellent dancer, her talent in this direction never having been put to further use than to grace a charity benefit occasionally.

On November 21 Mr. Friendly and the Herrscher family will give a pre-nuptial reception at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco. Mr. Friendly plans to take his bride to Florida on a wedding trip, and will not return to Portland until early spring.

The opening party of the Rose City Dancing Club was given at the historic city hall Thursday evening, and was the most successful and enjoyable opening evening of many years. The women were gowned beautifully. The brilliant coloring of their costumes, combined with the artistic decorations of the hall, was effective. During the Winter a series of parties will be given on the first and third evenings of each month.

A pretty tea was given yesterday by Mrs. Barry Eastham to introduce Miss Jean Wold, who has lately returned from the East and is now residing in this city. Miss Wold gave a number of her most graceful and prettiest interpretations of music in dance at the tea. Mrs. Eastham was assisted by Mrs. Frederick Morey, Mrs. Harry B. Torrey, Mrs. John M. Pipes and Miss Emma Wold in receiving her guests. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Mary L. Butler and Mrs. Clara Morey.

Mrs. F. O. Downing is visiting with her parents in San Francisco, where the party will attend the fair. After a few weeks in the South they will go to New York for a brief visit.

Mrs. R. E. Watkins' card party Monday evening at Laurelhurst Club was one of the most delightful and interesting events of the week. Nine tables were arranged for the guests and the rooms were attractive with autumnal decorations or brilliant-hued foliage and bronze and red-toned flowers.

The hostess was assisted in receiving by Miss L. H. Hare, Mrs. H. L. Chandler, Mrs. William B. Hare and Mrs. H. L. Chandler. Additional guests called at the tea hour.

The tea table was presided over by Mrs. A. D. Charlton, who was assisted by Misses Nina Joy, Hella Berger, Ruth Johnson and Mitha Nichols. Little Helen Cornell received the guests at the door.

Card honors fell to Mrs. William Leet, Mrs. Clifford C. Stout and Mrs. Charles A. Steele.

A feature of the afternoon was the vocal selections by Miss Ruth Johns and the reading of several of James Whitcomb Riley's short poems by Mrs. Julia La Barre.

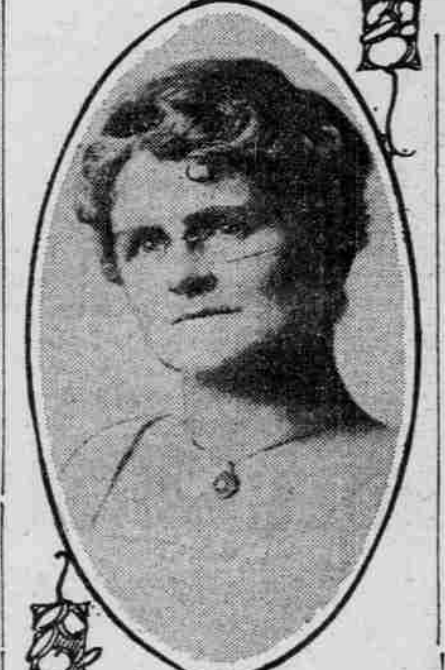

Among the attractive gowns noted were those worn by Misses Ruth Kerr, who was in a frock of black chiffon over satin with beaded corsage.

Mrs. W. B. Hare's gown was pale blue chiffon with beaded tulle and Mrs. E. J. Chandler, dull green pussy willow tulle with trimmings of fur and lace.

Mrs. Watkins' gown was of a heavier shade plush with blouse of broadened chiffon trimmed in fur.

Mrs. J. C. Hare, yellow satin with black velvet bands and white ermine collar.

Mrs. George A. White and Mrs. L. A. Bowman, Patronesses For Scout Young Auxiliary Halloween Ball.

Mrs. W. A. Munroe, Prominent Member of Committee.

Mrs. Charles A. Steele, Mrs. Stuart C. Menzies, Mrs. Julia Barr, Mrs. F. G. Stoll, Mrs. C. A. Ziegler, Mrs. Thomas P. Blair, Mrs. G. A. Nichols, Mrs. Frank W. Paris, Mrs. W. A. Leet, Mrs. C. A. Johns, Mrs. John W. Baker, Mrs. G. Cornell, Mrs. T. C. Warner, Mrs. Bell Raeder, Mrs. W. Wallace, Mrs. W. A. Covell, Miss Coral Lambers, Miss Nina Joy, Miss Cora Thompson, Miss Peggy Hayward, Miss Ruth Johns, Miss Mitha Nichols, Miss Leonora Kerr, Miss Helen Berger and Little Helen Cornell.

The Unitarian Women's Alliance members have banded themselves into small "clubs," each working in its own way for advancement of church work. The "Irvington" one of the groups, will entertain next Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. W. Crighton, 280 East Seventeenth street North, with a Halloween party, including new features to the old-time custom of this unique festival. In addition there will be card games and music. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the work of the Unitarian church.

Miss Mabel Withycombe, daughter of Governor and Mrs. Withycombe, was a visitor in Portland last week, as the guest of Mrs. McKellip, at Wheelod Annex.

Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and her sister, Miss Genevieve Thompson, left last week for San Francisco, where the latter has taken an apartment for a month. Mrs. Teal will remain about a fortnight, and upon her return, Mrs. D. P. Thompson will join her daughter in the south. Mrs. Teal and her sister will visit in San Diego, attending the fair, as well as the exposition.

Everything is in readiness for the masquerade ball to be given at Christensen's Thursday night.

The women in charge for Scout Young Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, are doing everything possible to make it a notable event. The carnival spirit will prevail and ghosts, goblins and Halloween sprits will be seen.

Dancing will commence at 8:45 and the grand march, led by eight little "pumpkins," will take place at 10:15.

Prizes will be given to the best-dressed couple and one each to the woman and man for the best sustained character, the most original costume and the most comical costume.

The patronesses who will judge the costumes are: Mrs. George A. White, Mrs. Diana McDonnell, Mrs. Della McKinnon, Mrs. H. P. Cloyes, Mrs. Harry J. Kelly, Mrs. W. W. Wilson and Mrs. L. A. Bowman.

The Irvington Thursday Night Dancing Club, formerly the Aloha Club of last season, will hold their first party Thursday evening.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the reception Thursday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wells, in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. Mrs. and Mrs. C. L. Menck received with them early in the evening, and in the latter part Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dickson assisted them in receiving.

The rooms were attractive with quantities of yellow chrysanthemums, palms and autumnal foliage. A procession of "House of Beauty" roses and ferns decked the den. During the first part of the evening the pretty refreshment table was presided over by Mrs. F. C. Baker, Mrs. Jessie Stearns, Mrs.

Ethel French and Mrs. Charles Hilton. Later, the following were in charge: Mrs. Edwin Hitchcock, Mrs. C. C. Newcast, Mrs. H. N. Randall, Mrs. D. E. Bowman, Miss Zola Hitchcock, bride-elect, and Mrs. Orlando Davison assisted about the rooms.

The refreshment table was attractive with an artistic arrangement of Mme. Aaron Ward roses, with garlands of greenery festooned from the corners of the table to the chandelier.

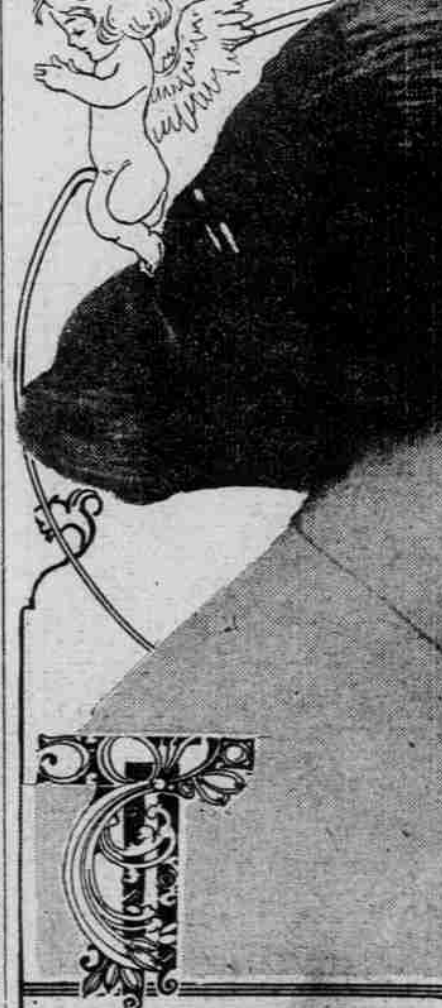

Miss Kathryn Newberg and Miss Chlorinda Wells were stationed at the punchbowl.

The Phi Psi Sorority entertained Thursday, October 21, with a charming dancing party at the Oregon Yacht Club in honor of their new members, the Misses Marian Spoerl, Helen Wilson, Hortense Ballin, Florence Tatham and Alice Bullington. The club was uniquely decorated, suggestive of Halloween, and the same spirit was carried out in the programme and refreshments.

And Mrs. Fred Spoerl and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hood chaperoned the affair.

The guests were: Misses Edna Holman, Alice Holman, Mary McConnell, Selma Kropp, Francis Soden, Marjorie McCollum, Doris Elkington, Marie Thatch, Vivian Woolly, Marie Short, Mary Dunbar, Florence Tatham, Mary Page, Helen Wilson, Alice Bullington, and the most elaborate party of the

Hampson, G. A. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ober, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hoogstraal, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rector.

Dr. R. P. James and Miss Eva Cox were married in St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco, Wednesday night. Their courtship was quite romantic, having its inception in Carney Hospital, of Boston. Dr. and Mrs. James will arrive in Portland today and will be at home in the Stelwyn apartments after November 1.

Mrs. L. N. Lipman, Mrs. S. Rosenfeld and Dr. Arthur Rosenfeld returned from the fair in San Francisco. Miss Ruth Rosenfeld remained in town. Southern California with her aunt, Mrs. Isaac White, after visiting Yosemite and the Grand Canyon.

Portland Lodge, No. 55, A. F. and A. M., will entertain Friday evening, October 23, at Masonic Temple, with their annual party. Dancing and cards will be the diversions of the evening. Patronesses for the event will be:

Mrs. J. C. Moreland, L. P. Sampson, P. S. Malcolm, H. C. Weber, F. W. Jailer, H. J. Holman, G. H. Nicol, H. J. Houghton, J. G. Clarke, J. C. McGowan, James Peter Moffett, Edgar Stevens, William J. The committee includes: W. O. Roberts, A. H. McGowan, H. E. Cowgill, Jr., James Peter Moffett, W. J. Holman, H. A. Craft, Edgar Stevens, H. Chickering, H. C. Weber, H. J. Houghton.

The engagement of Miss Alta Mansfield, daughter of Mrs. R. D. Inman to Leve E. Ebers, Jr., was announced recently. The bride-elect is a charming girl, and is the great-granddaughter of Colonel John Mansfield, D. D., a pioneer missionary of this country. Miss Mansfield is a graduate of Portland Academy, later attending University of Washington. Mr. Ebers is physical director of the Lincoln High School, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ebers. The wedding probably will take place early in the year. The engagement was announced at a luncheon, for which Miss Myrtle Brix was hostess.

An interesting wedding of the week was that at which Miss Anna Louise Kurtz became the bride of Luther Stevens Oakes, of St. Paul, on Wednesday evening. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oakes, a member of the Lutheran church, Rev. Oswald Taylor officiating. Harry Macree, of St. Paul, acted as best man, and the bride was attended by Miss Adelaide Armstrong, also of St. Paul.

A reception followed the ceremony and a number of out-of-town guests, many of whom came from the Middle West in a special car, attended.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Oakes will make their home in St. Paul.

Mrs. Oakes is a charming girl, and has lived in this city for a few years only. She has made her home in Irvington, and has become very popular in the Irvington set, socially and in the tennis set. She is an enthusiastic tennis player. Mr. Oakes is a native of Vermont, a graduate of Dartmouth College, and is now in charge of the contracting firm of Winton Bros. Company of Minneapolis.

NEWS OF THE ARMY POST.

Most of the parties given in the post for the past several weeks were in honor of Colonel and Mrs. George S. Young, and their daughter, Miss Polly Young, who have been here since May, 1912. Colonel Young has been ordered to command of the Eighth Infantry at Manila, and will sail from San Francisco November 5, on a Government transport.

Colonel Young will leave here Monday for San Francisco, but Mrs. Young and Miss Polly Young went to Portland, Friday, where they remained over night with Mrs. Harold Young, wife of Mrs. Young's son. They left for San Francisco yesterday afternoon on the Southern Pacific and they will be quartered at the Presidio until November 5.

During their stay here the Youngs have not only made a large number of warm friends in the post, but in Portland society as well. The hope is expressed that when Colonel Young is ordered back to the United States he will be sent to this post. Miss Young has been popular, especially among the younger set in Portland. The large number of farewell parties given in their honor show better than words the popularity of the Young family here and in Portland.

The most elaborate party of the week was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Herbert C. Gibson and Mrs. Guy I. Rowe, at the home of the former, in honor of Mrs. Young. Five tables of bridge were played, and those who did not play the game dropped in later for tea and to bid Mrs. Young bon voyage. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. David J. Baker, Jr., Mrs. William Brooke, Mrs. Hiram Cooper, Mrs. Lee H. Stewart and Mrs. Peter C. Field. Mrs. Baker presided at the coffee urn, and Mrs. Brooke had charge of the chafing dish. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Jens Bugge, Mrs. Robert S. Knox, Mrs. George C. Rockwell and Mrs. Raymond E. Ingalls. Among the Portland guests present were Mrs. James B. Honeyman, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Frank B. Riley and Mrs. J. F. Dickson, Mrs. Charles B. Sears, Mrs. Margaret DuBois Waring and Mrs. Lee H. Stewart, of Vancouver, also attended. The home was attractively decorated, autumn leaves, cut flowers, chrysanthemums and dahlia being used in profusion with pretty effect.

Miss Claire Wilcox, of Portland, entertained at a dinner party for Miss Polly Young, in Portland, Thursday evening. After dinner they attended the performance of Ruth St. Denis at the Hellig.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Lee H. Stewart, of Alcatraz Island, near San Francisco, are visiting for a month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Taylor, parents of Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Glass, wife of Lieutenant Ralph R. Glass, entertained at a bridge party for Mrs. Young and her daughter, Miss Polly Young, Monday afternoon. Three tables were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Hiram Cooper, Mrs. Murray Baldy and Mrs. Herbert C. Gibson. Mrs. Robert S. Knox, Mrs. Jens Bugge and Mrs. John H. Page, Jr., assisted the hostess in serving dainty refreshments. Fall flowers and leaves entered largely into the decorations and on the dining table was a large basket of fruit.

Major and Mrs. Peter C. Field on Thursday evening entertained at dinner. Covers were placed for ten. The color scheme was white and green, chrysanthemums adding to the artistic effect. The guests were Captain and Mrs. Charles T. King, Lieutenant and Mrs. Torrey B. Magee, Mrs. Margaret DuBois Waring, Miss Tiersan, Lieutenant Davidson and Lieutenant McNarney.

Mrs. Young on Friday presented her daughter, Miss Polly Young, with a five-passenger touring car. Miss Young drove her mother to Portland in the car Friday afternoon. The car was shipped to San Francisco, where they will use it until they go aboard the transport, when the car will be packed for shipment to Manila.

Mrs. Hegeman, wife of Captain Harry A. Hegeman, has issued invitations for a Halloween dinner, to be given Saturday evening, October 30. Covers will be laid for ten.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.
