

CAMPFIRE GIRLS PLAN BENEFIT PERFORMANCE

Ceremonial Robes to Be Worn at Entertainment in National Theater October 30—Beads Insignia of Honor, Bestowed for Deeds Well Done.

Camp Fire Girls in Ceremonial Robes

Girls Are Good in Camp

ARRAYED in their ceremonial robes and with bright honor beads strung about their necks, the campfire girls of Minnehaha and Chinook camps will appear in an entertainment that is planned for the night of October 30, when the National Theater will be turned over to the campfire girls and their friends.

On the occasion of the benefit performance there will be motion pictures depicting the various activities of the campfire organization and showing the lessons that are taught in the work and ceremonials.

Each bead worn by a campfire girl means an honor won. Home tasks well done are regarded as victories. Duty becomes a pleasure when one is a true campfire girl. Dishwashing is dignified as an accomplishment; housework is glorified. Any task well done is not only a duty, but a pleasure—a triumph. Honors are gained by doing the homely, every-day things with a spirit so splendid that the workers feel a pride in their task and a joy in its accomplishment.

There are three ranks in the organization—the wood gatherers, the fire makers and the torch bearers. Athletics properly supervised are encouraged, as they tend to make the girls healthy.

Italy's Ancestral Glories.

Henry Dwight Sedgwick in the Yale Review.

Three times has Italy ruled over Europe. She has sat on the political throne under the Caesars; on the ecclesiastical throne under the popes, from Gregory the Great to Leo X, and on the intellectual throne of the Renaissance. These things every Italian family remembers. Augustus Caesar and Trajan, Hildebrand and Innocent III, Dante and Petrarch, Michelangelo and Raphael, Galileo and Bruno, are in his mouth like household words. The Italian does not consider himself and us as equals; he accepts, he believes in, he is proud of his long descent and his ancestral glories. When thinking of rope, have the most glorious past, and that they, out of all the peoples of Eu-

A Woman's Mirror

OWING to happy recovery of health by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound thousands of women throughout the world once more enjoy the reflection they see in their mirrors.

Nothing is so pleasing to the eye as a happy, robust, healthy woman, but owing to some curable disorder peculiar to their sex many women suffer week after week and month after month. Without complaining, they do their duty like soldiers until all beauty and freshness of features are gone; premature old age appears and their mirrors tell a sad and disheartening tale. Many women owe their health to

Here are three out of tens of thousands of Genuine Testimonials:

An Operation Avoided.

"I suffered from female troubles so badly that I had a great deal of pain, and if I slipped on a stone in walking, or got the least jar, it would hurt me terribly. I continued to get worse until I had spasms, and was advised that I would have to go to the hospital for an operation. I objected to that, and one day a friend called and advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for she said she had the same trouble dreadfully and could get no help until she took it, which cured her. Therefore I began taking it, and after the first bottle I was better, and four bottles have entirely cured me of the trouble."—Mrs. ELLA F. RICE, 182 Friendship Street, Providence, R. I.

In a Short Time I Recovered.

"I suffered from female trouble so that the best physicians advised me to go to the hospital for an operation, because they thought there was something growing in my left side which would have to be taken out. I refused and instead sent to the drug store for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it according to directions. In a short time I recovered enough to do my work, and later was able to make the trip to Decatur, Ill. I know the Compound worked a miracle in my case, and I have recommended it to many persons and told them what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2300 Blk. E., Williams Street, Decatur, Ill.

Makes Change of Life Easier.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a world of good, and I want to recommend it to others who suffer as I did. When I began to take it I was passing through change of life. I was very nervous, could not sleep nights, and had a great deal of pain and soreness. I was advised to have an operation but they did not think I could live through it. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have come out all right. I think every woman in this condition should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at this time of life, as it is such a good remedy."—Mrs. A. BANNIGAN, 57 Knickerbocker Avenue, Paterson, N. J.

A medicine that has restored so many women to health and can be proved to have done it, must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which cannot be equalled by any other medicine for women.

NEAT DESIGN FOR TRIMMING A BABY BONNET AND GIRL'S DRESS

The accompanying designs are sufficiently simple to warrant any woman who is fond of the needle adapting them to her uses. The cap would make a charming and inexpensive little Christmas gift and the dress design could be beautifully incorporated on a holiday frock.

The detail drawings show the method of working. In using the printed designs from the paper the directions are as follows: If the material used is sheer the easiest way is to lay it over the design which will show through plainly, and draw over each line with a hard, sharp pencil. If your linen is heavy, secure a piece of impression paper—the kind that does not rub off—lay it on your material, place the design over it, and trace with a hard pencil.
