

PIPE INDICES RISE

Market Has Distinctly Upward Tendency.

NET RETURNS ARE LARGER

London Cables Report Sales of Yakima Jonathans at Good Figures—New England and Southern Demand Active.

The apple market is steadily gaining in strength, and while no further advance was announced in the latter part of the week, the course of prices is distinctly strong.

The Texas state is still fairly good, with increasing strength, and more markets are coming to the fore.

The local apple market continues quiet, and California is slow on Northwestern fruit.

According to cables just received from London, Yakima Jonathans sold there at $2.75 to $3 a box, with the freight at about $1.

Prospects are that box apple exports will be less than a number of seasons ago.

REACTION IN LOCAL WHEAT MARKET

Prices Fall Back After Friday's Advance.

October figures favorable.

There was a reaction in the local wheat market yesterday of the bull market that was displayed on Friday, and prices were readjusted at a generally lower level.

October statistics, however, show the market to be a number of seasons ago.

CALIFORNIA GRAPES HIGHER IN PRICE

Oregon Stock in Good Demand at Steady Rates—More Caneberries.
