Miss Mabel Mescott, Member of Social Hop to Be Given November 19.

Miss Elizabeth Jacobs. The rooms were attractive with autumn leaves and bowls of marigolds.

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Walton and David K. Brace recently was announced. The marriage, which will be the result of another Reed College romance, will take place in December. Miss Walton is a native Oregonian, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Walton, 458 West Park street. Mr. Brace is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Brace, formerly of Lincoln, Neb., now residing at 587 Flanders street. Both young people graduated from Reed College last June. Mr. Brace for some time has been interested in athletics, being one of the city playground directors for the past two Summers. He was also assistant in the physical education department at Reed in his senior year. He is at present engaged as physical instructor in the Salem Junior High School.

One of the simple but pretty home weddings of the week was that of Miss Hazel A. Daly and Charles J. Arndt.

Miss Mildred Camp, Who Played March At Gibbons-Bosly Wedding

Message of Oberammergau, is the fact that for generations past members of her family have taken part in this famous "Passion Play." Her cousin, Josef Mayer, was the famous Christus, and her father, associate stage director of the "Passion Play" since 1890.

Fraulein Mayer tells how it was her mother's ardent desire to play the part of Mary Magdalene, but it was with great joy she greeted the announcement of her daughter's having been chosen for the role. Marie Mayer and her mother learned of the choice of the Burgomaster and committee through the town crier as he went about the streets calling the names of the leading actors.

Fraulein Mayer's beauty and charm, together with her wonderful ability, have won for her many friendships. Lady Milner, sister of Lord Milner, became deeply attached to her, and through the interest of Lady Milner, Marie Mayer was introduced to Dr. Gray, and for two years she studied at the famous university center, Cambridge.

Several events are being planned for Fraulein Mayer during her stay in Portland.

In honor of Mrs. Homer Blackburn Jamison, a bride of the late Summer, Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison entertained yesterday afternoon with a large and delightful tea at her home on Main street. The hours were from 2 to 5 o'clock, and the rooms were thronged with prettily-dressed women. Receiving with the hostess were: Mrs. Homer Jamison, Mrs. Harper N. Jamison and Miss Harriet P. Cooper, of Chicago.

In the drawing-room, where the guests were received, an attractive arrangement of dahlias, chrysanthemums, autumnal foliage in reds, yellows and greens made an effective foil for the smart toilettes of the women.

In a snug little corner, banked with greenery and intertwined with tiny electric lights, punch was served by Misses Norma Redman and Ethel Risley. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. H. M. Clinton, Mrs. W. B. Keeler, Mrs. L. M. Keen and Dr. Gertrude Lord Gates.

A color scheme of red was developed in the dining-room with huge dahlias, candelabra and brilliant ivy. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. F. E. Hilton, Mrs. J. Cousin Haro, Mrs. F. C. Knapp and Mrs. T. C. Taylor. They were assisted by Misses Julia Boone and Olive Risley. Miriam Holcomb received the cards at the door.

Miss Virginia Smith, Flower Girl, Gibbons-Bosly Wedding

About 125 women called during the afternoon to greet the bride.

An orchestra, screened behind a bank of autumn branches, played throughout the calling hours.

The gowns were charming, and the latest models from the fashionable designers. Mrs. Jamison, Sr., was in a creation of brown velvet, embellished with gilt lace and fur. Mrs. Homer Jamison wore a frock of pale green chiffon, adorned with pink trimmings.

Mrs. Harper Jamison's gown was a pink Georgette crepe, trimmed with dainty lace. Miss Cooper was attired in soft blue poplin and chiffon.

The ceremony was read by Rev. W. C. Kantner, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Daly at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The bride was gowned in ivory satin, tulle and lace, and her veil was wreathed with orange blossoms, and her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The wedding was attended only by relatives, about 20 being seated for the wedding supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Arndt left for Washington, D. C., on their wedding trip, and they will return to Portland in the Springs.

The Blackstone Club has completed elaborate preparations for its opening dancing party to be given Friday evening at Cottillion Hall.

The committee in charge, consisting of Thomas B. Collins, Ernest J. Magius, Walter T. McGuirk, Alfred Shawcross, John L. Bosworth, Thomas G. Ryan and Chester S. Caplinger, have given special attention to the musical feature of the occasion. An augmented orchestra has been engaged and A. E. Davidson will render several selections during the evening.

Judge and Mrs. W. N. Gatens, Judge and Mrs. George N. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. John K. Killock.

The following young women will assist the floor committee: Irene M. Harmon, Lydia M. Villeneuve, Ruth A. Routledge, Winifred P. Ralston, Ethel M. Goodrich, Hazel Linville and Virginia A. Ryan.

Prominent society women are taking a keen interest in the concert to be given by Madame Valair on Sunday, November 14, at the Hellig Theater. Madame Valair's programme will include sacred songs and operas arias. She will be assisted by Miss Katherine Ensey, J. Hutchinson, pianist, will be her accompanist and G. C. Kirchmann, cellist, will also contribute to the programme.

Madame Valair has only recently come to this country from France, and is well known in musical circles throughout the United States as well as abroad.

Fifty pupils from the five high schools will be guests of Madame Valair at her concert and shortly after it she will hear the voices of the boys and girls and select the best of each and give them a year's scholarship.

Patronesses for the evening will be selected from prominent society leaders of Portland.

Earl Cartwright, of New York, was entertained by Harry W. Hogue at the Nortonia on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hogue gave a dinner at the Nortonia on Tuesday complimentary to Mr. McCook, of Fresno, Cal.

Mrs. Mary Butt Griffith and Miss Mary Griffith, who were en route from San Francisco, where they were attending the Daughters of the Confederacy convention as delegates from Atlanta, Ga., passed a few days the latter part of the week in Portland as the guests of W. G. Carey. Mr. Carey entertained his guests at the Ice Hippodrome where they enjoyed the novel experience of seeing for the first time in their lives an ice field, and upon the ice slides. They will leave this morning for their home in the South.

Honoring Mrs. F. H. Morgan, who will leave soon for a visit to her old home at Clarksville, Tenn., Mrs. T. H. Edwards was hostess for a charming party Thursday afternoon. It was a sort of travelers' shower, the honor guest receiving a basket filled with beautiful gifts. Music was one of the diversions of the afternoon. Mrs. C. H. Gardner giving an instrumental selection, Miss Lella Coyie and Miss Madeleine Grady, vocal solos. The guests were members of Chapter A. P. E. O. The rooms were attractive with an arrangement of salvia against a background of brilliant autumn leaves. Yellow chrysanthemums and white asters were used in the dining-room on the pretty tea table.

Miss Virginia Edwards and Frances Gardner gave an interpretation of the Pavlova gavotte in costume, which was one of the most delightful features of the afternoon. About 25 guests enjoyed Mrs. Edwards' hospitality.

Complimenting her cousin, Miss Dorothy Nudelman, who recently announced her engagement to Isadore Garber, of Spokane, Wash., Miss Florence Nudelman entertained at a Japanese tea at her home last week. The decorations and costumes suggested the Orient.

Mrs. Pearl Madison, Miss Ruth Newman and Miss Myrtle Nudelman presided at the tea table, which was decorated with Japanese parasols and chrysanthemums. Refreshments were served to the guests seated on Japanese cushions around the fireplace.

A feature of the event was a china shower. About 25 guests enjoyed this novel event. The wedding will take place November 28, and the bride-elect will be entertained extensively with pre-nuptial affairs.

Mrs. M. M. Gearin and Miss Gearin, of the Mallory, left yesterday for a month's visit at San Francisco, to attend the Fair.

Mrs. John McCracken, after passing several weeks in California, has returned to her apartments at the Mallory.

The popular University Club is the scene for many delightful luncheons, dinners and dances. Many reservations already have been made for the next dinner-dance, Friday evening. One of the large affairs planned for the week at the club is a dinner to be given by the University of California Club on Saturday. About 50 members will attend. W. L. Finley is in charge of the affair.

Rogers MacVeagh was host yesterday for a dinner party in the ladies' annex, covers being placed for six. A small luncheon of five covers was presided over by Mr. and Mrs. G. Husted yesterday in the annex, and on Thursday a charming luncheon was given for which Mrs. J. R. Holman was hostess, 12 covers being placed for the guests.

Another affair eagerly anticipated in the dinner to honor Dr. Thomas F. Holgate, which the Northwest University Association has planned for Thursday, November 11. The association has made arrangements for 40 guests.

Another delightful affair of yesterday was the luncheon for which Mrs. C. J. Reed was hostess in the attractive annex, covers being laid for 14.

Portland Alumni chapter of Delta Tau Delta will entertain with a dinner and a dance at Hotel Benson on Tuesday evening, November 18.

Mrs. O. P. Dannels, of Albany, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mark Schlusler, 465 East Forty-ninth street North. She also will visit her son, James and Mrs. Robert A. Miller, her sister-in-law, and son-in-law, Charles Kirk.

WARNING TO USERS OF HAIR REMOVERS

Don't Experiment With So-Called Superfluous Hair Removers.

If you use a simple toilet preparation and it proves to be worthless you only lose money. It is a very serious matter, however, when you use a doubtful hair remover, because it will either result in permanent disfigurement or cost you many dollars and take months or possibly years to gain control of the growth after it has been stimulated by the use of such preparations.

DeMiracle is sold in $1.00 and $2.00 bottles. The larger size is the most economical for dermatologists and large users to buy. If your dealer will not supply you, order direct from us.
