A huge success, financially and socially, was the County Fair held at the Bnai Brith building. Much credit must be given to B. Rubin and his assistants for their splendid work. The majority of the crowd voted Princess Fatima, realistically portrayed in beauty and charm by Mrs. Marcus Cohn, a stellar attraction. The country store, the bar and a wonderful Monte Carlo were in great favor. Pretty girls in various costumes, music, and clever barkers made the fair complete.

An announcement that has been received with much enthusiasm and pleasure by the members of the younger set is that of the Arcadian Dancing Club's party at the Hotel Portland, Thursday evening, December 4. The main ballroom and reception-rooms will be reserved for the use of the dancers on that evening, and some of the successful features of last season's parties will be repeated.

The Arcadians' dances were a source of real enjoyment last season, and this opening party has been eagerly anticipated for some time past by members of the club and their friends. This will be semi-formal. Five or six dances are planned for the 1915-16 season. The committee for the evening are: Lawrence Cunningham, C. Jerrold Owen, Ralston J. Clary, Frederick L. Carlton, Arthur C. Dayton, C. E. Aravillion, Raymond K. Maynard, Jr.; Miss Jeanette West, Miss Anne Dillinger, Miss Axa G. Paget, Miss Doris Elkington, Miss Marie Dooley, Mrs. Arthur Dayton, Mrs. James H. Abrey.

The Original Hi Jinks will give another dancing party on November 5 at Christensen's Hall. The committee is making every effort to make this party a huge success, and judging from the results of the past parties a large crowd is expected. It may be of interest for the Hi Jinks' dancers to know that a Thanksgiving party is also being prepared.

Plans are being made to have it in the form of a matinee party. As this style is a new one, it is expected to take with much favoritism. The dancing will commence at about 4:30 or 5 o'clock and will be continuous throughout the evening. The main novelties will be dancing and singing in cabaret style. Committees are being appointed from the different colleges, and this affair is expected to be a delightful one.

The committee in charge of both parties is Naomi Marcellus, Harold Shadle, Marion Spoeri, Marion Hoban, Roland Manary, Vesta Tegart, Madeline Brown, Julius Berkey, Margaret Dixon, Bob Hanmaker, Beach Crofton, Harry Humphrey, Mary Dunbar, Lee Waldron, Virginia Brown, Max Schulz, Marie Beach, Perc Brown, Hoyt Brown and Carl Caesar.

WEDDINGS.

Zimmerman-Williams.

Miss Gladys Williams and John W. Zimmerman were married Wednesday, October 27, at the Second United Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. Du Bois officiating.

The church was decked with palms, white chrysanthemums, and ferns. Miss Edith A. Williams sang "Because" and the wedding march was played by Miss Anna Frost at the piano and Miss Gladys Johnston at the cello.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Blodwen Williams, as maid of honor, little Edna Johnson acting as flower girl. Robert Zimmerman, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride was attired in a pretty gown of white crepe de chine made with bolero jacket of filet lace. Her veil was fashioned in a mob cap, and was wreathed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Williams wore a gown of pink Dresden silk, and she carried a shower of exquisite Ophelia roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Williams, and a buffet supper was served by several attractive girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman left for a wedding trip to Seattle for a few weeks.

Isom-Bond.

PORTLAND COUPLE MARRIED AT CHARMING WEDDING EARLY THIS MONTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Dunsmoor

One of the charming Fall weddings was that of Miss Wave Daugherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Daugherty, and Lloyd C. Dunsmoor, Wednesday night, October 6, at the home of the bride's parents, 618 Madden avenue. Rev. E. D. Hornschuch, of the First Evangelical Church, officiated.

The bride was attractive in a gown of cream satin and princess lace, embroidered with pearl beads. She wore a full-length veil also trimmed with pearl beads, and held in place with lilies of the valley. A shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley completed her attractive costume.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lura Daugherty, who was attractively gowned in pearl crepe de chine. She carried a huge bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Master Bruce Silcher and little Naomi Graves scattered flowers in the path of the bride as she took her place beneath a canopy of palms and greenery from which was suspended a white dove.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Lyle Dunsmoor.

Preceding the ceremony, Mary Daugherty, little sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly." The wedding march was played by Mrs. Hattiebelle Ogilbee.

The rooms were aglow with masses of greenery interspersed with huge feathery white and yellow chrysanthemums. The color scheme, white and yellow, was carried out throughout.

About 80 relatives and friends were present. A buffet supper was served by the Misses Avis and Alta Beedy, Dorothy and Verena Johnson, cousins of the bride. The punchbowl was presided over by Miss Elma Daugherty, sister of the bride.

Mrs. Claude Patton.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Patton, 1113 Missouri avenue, was the scene of a pretty home wedding Wednesday evening, October 20, when their son, Claude E. Patton, and Miss Belle Duncan were married by the Rev. W. T. Kerr. The wedding march was played by Walter H. White, a lifelong friend of the bridegroom. The reception hall, living and dining-rooms were artistically decorated with Autumn leaves and dahlias. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine, trimmed with chantilly lace. Her hair was banded with orange blossoms and she carried bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. R. W. Crane. Clyde Taylor attended the bridegroom. Only relatives were present and following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. Mrs. Patton before her wedding was entertained at a number of pre-nuptial affairs.

ENGAGEMENT OF PORTLAND GIRL IS ANNOUNCED.

Miss Lola Mowrey.

The engagement of Miss Lola Mowrey to Marshall A. Case was announced at a recent tea given by Mrs. J. C. Mowrey at her home, 546 Spokane avenue. The wedding will be an event of the mid-winter probably. Mr. Case is identified with the Bank of California.

How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind and You Save $2. Fully Guaranteed

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering distressing coughs, chest and throat colds, is really remarkable. You can actually feel it take hold. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Splendid, too, for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma and Winter coughs.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you—at a cost of only 54 cents—a full pint of better cough syrup than you could buy for $2.50. Takes but a few minutes to prepare. Full directions with Pinex. Tastes good and never spoils.

You will be pleasantly surprised how quickly it loosens dry, hoarse or tight coughs, and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and ask your druggist for "2½ ounces Pinex," and don't accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
