

Miss Gertrude Bide; Fignese of John Bewley (Continued From Page 3.)

numbers, with the exception of the Cathedral choir portion, which will be under the direction of Frederick Goodrich. Many of Portland's well-known musicians will participate in the musicales.

Among the prominent speakers will be Governor Withycombe, Senater Harry
Lane, ex-Senator Gearin and Judge Kavanaugh. (A. + +)

The dance-loving community will rejoice to learn that the favorite Murlark Hall is to be reopened, thoroughly renovated and more attractive than in the past. On Thanksgiving eve. November 75, a formal reception and dance will be given by the present managers, fecorse E. Love and A. Mansfield Himes.
It will be used only for private dances, for which society folk will be hosts, as well as the exclusive clubs.

Mrs. Maud McPherson Hess, recently from Scattle, is the house guest of Mrs. Henry Fleckenstein for several weeks. Mrs. Hess is a celever artist, specializing in portraits and miniatures. She has painted portraits of a number of prominent women of the Puget Sound city, also in Chicago and New York. She formerly lived in Chicago, but studied in New York with the leading masters of art.

Mrs. Fleckenstein is planning a large social function in her honor which will be an event of the near future. Mrs. Maud McPherson Hess, recently

One of the merriest of the numersus Halloween parties Saturday night was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton Day were hosts at their attractive home in Ladd's Addition. The rooms were gally decorated with pumpkins, black cats, goblins, with Autumn leaves forming a background for the fantastic decorations. A general scheme of yellow and black was used throughout the house.

The guests were all arrayed in pillow-cass-and-sheet garb, and the Halloween games and dancing were the diversions of the evening. The supper was served by a number of bachelors attired in trailing robes and grotesque caps. Punch was served by William Postles, and the refreshment table was presided over by Mrs. F. M. Koontz and Mrs. U. G. Gingrich.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Trees.

Koontz and Mrs. U. G. Gingrich.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tracy
Moore. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Koontz.
Misses Eva Boscovich, Marie Thatcher,
Marie Short, Maris Gingrich, Ellabel
Wiggington, Pauline Heintze, Flora

**

Mrs Lester Means, Who Entertained Last Week

For Bride-Elect

pass the Winter.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tracy
Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy
Moore, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Koontz,
Misses Eva Bosovich, Marie Gingrich, Filabel, Wisgington, Pauline Heintze, Flora,
Belis Parrott, Christine Parrott, Marion
Cancy, Gladys Anderson, Ruth Doty,
Lina Brown, Frances Shea, Mrs.
Gingrich, Raiph Parker, Don Hansen,
Frank Bilodeau, G. L. Baker, Ayn
Short, Jack Berry, W. Lee Waldron,
Carl Caesar, Lewis Smith, Robert Beck,
Gilen Coffean, George Anderson, Frederick Boynton, Haroid Schadle, John Whitten, Jerome Holkman, William
William Postless
Mrs. Henry McCraken and daughter,

Mrs. Henry McCraken and daughter,

James Burness, Charles Bibes, Clifford

Mrs. George Cotner Mason, and her son. Henry Mason, left Sunday for a visit to the exposition in San Francisco. This is Mrs. McCraken's second visit.

One of the notable events of the week in the social calendar was the card party Tuesday afternoon at the Laurelhurst Club. Mrs. William H. Smith, who is chairman of the season, was hostess for the evening. An artistic musical will be on hand to assist those who have not yet become proficient in the art of skating, and the committee includes: Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Mrs. C. Edward Grelle, Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, J. C. Ainsworth, Victor A. Johnson, Lewis H. Mills, Gordon Forbes, C. H. Davis, Jr., and Irving L. Webster.

Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mrs. Ervin G. Leihy and Mrs. W. I. Swank were hostesses for a progressive dinner on Halloween night for the following boys: Gerald Fuiteron, Edgar Baker, Philip Swank, Clifford Snider, Henry Prebble, Leland Chapin, George Joseph, Willard Leihy, Harry Coffin, Jr., and Horaca Kingsley.

They played games and came masked

They played games and came masked and garbed grotesquely, in accordance with the holiday.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Tilzer entertained at Dr. and Mrs. A. Tilzer entertained at bridge in honor of their daughter's sixth birthday on Tuesday evening. Prizes were awarded to the high scorers. A delicious and elaborate supper was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rushlight, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cellars, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jellison, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney and Miss Comport. The little friends of Miss Tilzer were entertained in the afternoon.

The premier of this season's dances of the Monday Night Dancing Club's series will be held November 15, and the event will be preceded by soveral dinner parties. Members are requested to notify Clarence B. Sewall as promptly as possible of their acceptances. It is one of the oldest established dancing clubs in the city and also one of the most popular. The membership consists of the younger married set, with the addition in the last few years of a group of popular by chelors.

Miss Helia Berger, a recent debutante, entertained the belies and beaux of the younger set with a Halloween dancing party Saturday night at the Berger's handsome home on Melrose drive. The drawing-room and library were effectively decorated with Autumn flowers and foliage, Jack-Olanters cast wierd lights over the merry dancers and reflected tumn flowers and foliage, Jack-o'lanterns cast wierd lights over the merry dancers and reflected an occasional ghost or soblin from a shadowy corner, while a live ghost promenaded the upper hall.

A delicious midnight supper was served in the dining-room, where ghosts, goblins and black cats added to the grotesque atmosphere.

Miss Berger was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Robert Berger.

Assisting in the dining-room were Miss Charlotte Pageler and Miss Esther Hawkins.

Hawkins.

The guests were: Misses Palm Cowden, of Silverton; Charlotte Pageler, Nadyne Baker, Eva Mae Anderson, Esther Hawkins, Winfred Evans, Anna Lee Miller, Melba Reagan, Nina Joy and Marie Scritsmier, Dr. Elmer Anderson, Ernest Roberte, Martin Hawkins, Arthur Anderson, Henry Hawkins, David Hawkins H. Reisrow

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin to San Francisco on Monday night. Mrs. Talbot will remain for a short time only and the Shevlins will go East to pass the holidays with their sons, who are in Eastern schools.

The card party which the women of The card party which the women of Irvington gave (or the benefit of the children's playground Thursday was a great success. About 250 attended and played auction. Mrs. R. A. Glitner won the prize, a basket of beautiful dahlins. The members of the committee are: Mesdames Ellis Lawrence, Norris Gregg, Norman Pease, LeRoy Park, W. G. Holford, A. L. Berkeley, E. J. Condon and David Goodsell, Jr., chairman.

Mrs. Charles Carter, of Pendleton, entertained with a luncheon at the Ho-tel Nortonia on Wednesday.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST General inspection of all of the troops in the post was held Friday. Colonel H. H. Wilson, acting commander of the Seventh Brigade, of Fort Lawton, Wash., was accompanied by Lieutenant-Colonel Carleton, inspector-General of the Western Department. The troops, in command of Lieutenant-Colonel David J. Baker, Jr., accompanied by his staff, were taken out for a few milles' march.

miles' march.

Lieutenant-Colonel Carleton was the luncheon guest of Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Baker Friday.

Colonel Wilson was entertained Friday by Captain George S. Tiffany, post adjutant.

Wayne Stewart, Richard Word, Lester White, Dan Wright and the hostesses.

One of the best attended social affairs at the Rose City Park Club was held Tuesday night, the occasion being "members' night" at the club, Each member was permitted to invite a friend, and the evening was truly delightful and gala.

Cards, games and mueic were the diversions of the evening, billiards and bowling also entertaining the devotees of those sports. In the ballroom Robert A. Bowlby and Miss Frances Ross gave an exhibition of modern dancing, after which all those present enjoyed dancing for the balance of the evening. Hoste for the events were Mr. and Mrs. David J. Baker, Jr.

Captain and Mrs. Robert S. Knox on Thursday night entertained at dinner to the party in honor of Licutenant and Mrs. Baker on their honeymoon trip to California. Covers were placed for 12 and the other guests were Mrs. Rixie, Mrs. Jens Busge, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Baker, Lieutenant and Mrs. George C. Rockwell, Lieutenant and Mrs. George C. Rockwell, Lieutenant Isenschmidt.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Breckinridge and his sister, Miss Breckinridge, will arrive today and pass Sunday as guests of Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. David J. Baker, Jr.

Captain and Mrs. Robert S. Knox on Thursday night entertained at dinner party in the party i

New Plush Coats

-Handsome, stylish coats, tailored from rich, black plush.

-Lavishly trimmed with fine, soft fur; extremely distinctive and individual.

-Pre-eminently the out-door garment for Winter wearing. The prices are moderate:

-$20, $22.50, $25, $27.50, $30, $32.50, $35

-Raglan Raincoats for women and misses are shown in all sizes. These are tailored from showerproof tweeds and mannish mixtures. Indispensable for out-door wear on rainy days.

Tailored Suits

-Smart models in both plain tailored and fancy tailored effects. Scores of lovely garments are shown, trimmed with fur or braid. These beautiful suits are shown mostly in broadcloth, velvet, gabardine, serge, wool poplin and in many of the novelty weaves. Your inspection is courteous-

$17.50 to $62.50

Women's Store, Entire Third Floor. Abundantly Daylighted. Elevator Service

BEN SELLING

den, of Silverton; Charles Pagedon, Restiner Hawkins, Winifred Expension, David Hawkins, Winifred Expension, David Hawkins, 4th Henry Hawkins, Gliver de Hawkins, 4th Henry Hawkins, Gliver de Hawkins, 4th Henry Hawkins, Gliver de Hawkins, Hawkins, G

L. G. Clarke, Mrs. W. J. Hoffmann, Mrs.
R. Martin, Jr.
Members of the fance committee:
Richard Martin, Jr.: chairman: R. A.
Nielsen, secretary: Otto Kramer, Arthur C. Callan,
Virgil L. Clark, Arthur C. Callan,
Charles E. Runyon, Walter J. Holman,
Julian Coblentz.
Mrs. Offley, wife of Captain Robert
Kobert A. Miller, chairman: G. B.
Cellars, R. D. Inman, Alva Lee Stephens,
Heary Saldwin, Mrs. Allen Parker
Henry Feldman.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Hare, of

Mrs. Offley, Wife of Captain Robert Soffley, Friday afternoon gave a delightful bridge party. Five tables were lightful bridge party. I am making

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Hare, of Spekane, passed last week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Coulson Hare. They were delightfully entertained while here and left Friday for a brief visit in Scattle en route to their home. Dr. Hare is clerk of the United States District Court of Washington.

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin to San Francisco on Monday night. Mrs. Talbot will be companied with the control of the Court of Co decreasing in value after years of wear; but mostly for their distinctly rich and unfading colorings and harmonious color combinations .. We now have the finest collection of Oriental Rugs ever shown by us and feel confident to supply almost Cartozian Bros.

all needs in this line.

Importers of Oriental Rugs. 473 Wash. St., Bet. 13th and 14th

Oriental Kugs

have become an absolute necessity in artistically furnished, beautiful

mes, not merely for their dura bility, artistic designs, and by not

NEW LINE FUR TRIMMED SUITS AT $19.50 JUST IN!

CHERRY'S is the store—and you know what that means! You can pick yours out tomorrow, put it right on and wear-it—and PAY FOR IT ON WEEK-LY OR MONTHLY INSTALLMENTS!

Wear it—and PAY FOR IT ON WEEKLY OR MONTHLY INSTALLMENTS!

Earlier in the season CHERRY'S put some Fur-Trimmed Suits on sale at $19,50. Such elegant, Leantifully failored Suits they were for the price that they sold like lightning, and another line was ordered.

It's come now, and if you missed getting a Suit from the former shipments, better hurry along up to CHERRY'S tomorrow and pick yours out before the story is repeated.

Perhaps you haven't the full price on hand. Well, what of it? A fraction of the cost is plenty for the first payment, you know, and CHERRY'S CREDIT SYSTEM makes the future payments convenient and extremely easy to meet,
And say, you should see their line of Corduroy Skirts in black, blue, brown,
Nice plain tailored for $2,35; other stores are asking $5,50 for them. Now here is their address—380-391 Wash, in the Pittock block. Don't fail to see them MONDAY.

How to Remove WRINKLES In Fifteen Minutes,

ATTRACTIVE GIRLS ENTERTAIN WITH HALLOWEEN PARTY.