"Resolved the

"Resolved that no exhibition games be played in Coast League cities prior or subsequent to the playing season." Action No Surprise.

The action hardly comes as a surprise since individual directors had already expressed themselves against allowing big league teams to come here for the Spring. Comiskey not alone brought his White Sox to the Coast, but divided his men into two security. rided his men into two squads, which was the real cause for protest. Here-after the Coasters will do no playing save during their own season. In the same conjunction, it was agreed that no more than three weeks be given over to Spring training. Here-tofore most of the clubs have been a month and five weeks in the Spring training camps, which is unquestion-ably a waste of money. President Baum was instructed by resolution to suffern

President Baum was instructed by resolution to enforce the ruling of the National Association, which prohibits players in organized baseball from competing against ineligibles either in or out of the season. As has been said, this refers to the Imperial Valley League, which has harbored a number of Federals during the Winter months. Coast players competing against the Federals will be fined or susepnded.

Winter Ball Dissupposed.

Winter Hall Disapproved. A warning is issued as well to the talent in the Coast League against Winter baseball of any sort. They are advised that the Coast League disapproves of Winter baseball, and it is a detriment to the playing ability of the men. The pennant was formally awarded to the San Francisco ciub. It was remarkable that though the men came in at all hours of the night after the game here, the landlady of their hotel was not awakened by any disturbance, and carousing had evidently not been induiged in.

At Saturday's game 1000 yellow chrysanthemums were distributed to California women students as the gift of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst. The flowers were grown at her home at Pleasanton.

As soon as "space permitted," the Dally Californian, the student paper, devoted half a column to a review of the article by President Foster, of Reed College, entitled "An Indictment of Intercollegiate Athletics," which appears in the current Atlantic Monthly. No comment is made by the reviewer.

This article was highly commended by Professor Bowden in a class which met previous to the big game. Though a teacher of music, Professor Bowden turned aside to comment on the spirit of sportsmanship which Dr. Foster emphasizes, and which originated, as Mr. Bowden said, in England.

More than $20,000 was cleared by California as a result of the big game. This is the largest receipt balance, with the exception of last year. The attendance was 14,000 this year, whereas 28,000 witnessed last year's game. The receipts went this year entirely to California, except for expenses for the Scattleite journey.

SMACK OF LIPS IS HEARD

Roscoe Fawcett Believes Nebraska in Eight or Ten Months Will Wall Over Easy Plucking of Coin From Big Farmer's Friends.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. In about eight or ten months the folk of the countryside will hear loud wails exuding from the State of Ne-braska and the more philanthropically inclined will be taking up collections to forward to Bill Bryan's state for the benefit of certain heart-sick and needy wrestling fans.

This prediction is founded upon a well-established belief that in about eight or ten months Joseph Stecher, of a Dodge, Neb., and his multitudinous inancial backers will be ripe for the plucking by Frank Gotch, world's champion wrestler.

For several months we have been sitting back in our swivel cushions watching the old army game proceed.

Steeher Honored at Banquet. Stecher is a big fellow, weighing about 210 pounds, and he has been whipping everybody around the middle belt of the country with such startling regularity that the fans there look upon him as a copper-colored idol.

Not long ago the fans got up a hig banquet for Stecher and a diamond belt was presented to him by the Governor.

Game Past Preliminaries,

Fail by Roller Recalled.

Joe Carroll, who is as wise as they make 'em about the mat game, was in Seattle a few days ago and he said Gotch would have to beat Stecher in 20 minutes or not at all. Possibly! He thinks Stecher would throw Dr. Roller easily, although, if we remember aright, Roller pinned him to the mat quite some time ago before the "warming up" pracess was begun. Stecher and Cutler drew $21,000 in Omaha, showing that P. T. Barnum underestimated on his "one-per-minute" ratio. Gotch's backers figure that a Gotch-Stecher match would draw $75,000.

In the meantime we are sitting high, watching the coils tighten.

The above unique display of Velvet Smoking Tobacco is to be seen in the window of Sig Sichel's Cigar Store, Third and Stark streets, and has attracted much attention.

"Velvet Joe," the genial pipe philosopher, says: "Th' man that starts out with a candle to find a leak in th' gas gets quick results, but they ai."t satisfactory." This is "Velvet Joe's" aptly expressed opinion of the unsatisfactory nature of all quick-cured tobaccos. He contends that the only process that will cure tobacco without spoiling it is the process of time. Liggett & Myers' two-year-aged Velvet was the only brand of smoking tobacco to receive a first prize at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.
