THREE REAL SALESMEN. TO represent a line that is the UNQUESTIONED leader in its floid—a line backed by an advertising campaign of a hundred thousand collars a year, using more National space than all its competitors put together.

Any man who is a genuine quarter-sawed oak salesman and not a veneered imitation, will see in our offer the one best opportunity in America today, for our business is on the eve of a big boom such as struck the automobile industry about six years ago.

Our men call on the home, but they are not "house-to house" men — "neither are they canvassers," all calls are made by appointment. The men we want will not be satisfied to work on any basis but straight commission: although we do put salesmen out on a salary basis, that is hot the type of men we need now, but big, successful salesmen that we can develop into branch managers.

We also want one man to call on retail stores. Send full particulars about your record -prove your case to us, and we'll prove durs to you. Address R. F. B., 1101 Power Avenue, Cloveland, Ohio.
