Mrs. Alice Benson, Chairman of College Night at Ice Hippodrome Friday

Miss Crystal Hyland Pretty Bride-Elect Who Has Been Feted During the Week

parties are being arranged, and the judges the occasion will be Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Gay Webster Talbot and Mrs. C. C. Colt.

As a proof of their interest in serious and helpful pursuits a group of Irvington girls are adding an affair to, similar, though to their activities this week, with a banquet for the benefit of the Associated Charities. Tuesday afternoon has been selected for the event, which will take place in one of the parlors of Hotel Portland. Home-made pies, cakes, cookies and other delicacies will be sold to help the needy by attractive young maidens, who have already readily caught the holiday spirit. On the committee are: The Misses Ruth Hilley, chairman; Enola Bracon, Helen and Marie Haller, Mabel and Frances O'Brien, Marion Chapin and Marjorie Cameron. Among the others who are assisting in making the affair a success are the Misses Lelia Guthrie, Yvonne Guthrie, Adel Steels, Phyllis Burns, Dorothea Wagner, May Coon, Frances Fuller and Mrs. Bruce Stewart.

Miss Margaret Ayer is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. S. D. Smith, and aunt, Miss Smith, at their new home in Pettysgrove street, for a few weeks.

Misses Judith Collins, of Cincinnati, and Edna Christensen, of Minneapolis, arrived yesterday and are guests of Miss Myrtle Bets, to be attendants at her wedding to Philip Bushner on December 15. Many social compliments will mark their stay here.

Mrs. Chester G. Murphy entertained about 15 of the younger matrons and maids on Tuesday at an informal tea and sewing bee honoring Mrs. John King Slack.

Complimenting Miss Katherine Eubank of New York, the much-entertained house guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Johnson presided at a charming dinner party Tuesday night. Seated around the table were Misses Brook, Alice Strong, Elva Greife, Mrs. Heppner, A. B. Weston, Edward Salvadore, Leonard Smith, Boston Taylor and the V and W. hosts.

One of the prettiest of the social affairs of the past few days in honor of Miss Crystal Hyland was that given Monday afternoon by Miss Alberta Blair. About 20 of the younger set were her guests for tea, following a thinking party in the earlier afternoon. The attractive tea table was adorned with an unusually lovely pumpkin basket filled with chrysanthemums, shading from yellow to brown (with big, fluffy greenish-blue bows adding an artistic touch to the arrangement. Miss Hyland was the guest of Miss Blair over the week-end.

If the attendance at the premier of the 1915-1916 season of the Monday Night Dancing Club on Thursday night at Hotel Multnomah may be considered as a forerunner of that club's popularity, this year's series will eclipse all previous dances. A number of small dinner parties preceded the affair Thursday night, supper being served in the tea garden at the conclusion of the dance. A number of new members have been added this year and each day brings forth a few additional names to be added to the list. Those who have accepted to date include: Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott H. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Deversaux, Mr. and Mrs. Marion F. Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Durham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shepherd Kelle, Miss Failing, Miss Mary F. Failing, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Gamble, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greife, Albin S. Gile, Rodney L. Gleson, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Morton H. Daley, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewett, Major and Mrs. H. C. Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Katz, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kollock, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Leadbetter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard, Dr. and Mrs. George A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meares, Roderick L. Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Menefee, Mrs. Donald H. Munro, Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Nevins, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Toyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Fage, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold S. Rothwell, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Shewell, Clarence B. Sewall, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Simonds, Alfred F.

Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sherrard, Mr. and Mrs. Lanning Street, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Henry Teal, Dr. and Mrs. Otis B. Wight, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood, Mrs. J. Van Leer Eichbaum and Jordan Zan.

Mrs. Charles M. Blair and daughters, the Misses Margaret and Alberta, will leave this latter part of this week for California, where they are planning to pass the winter. They will be joined later by Mr. Blair, and they will motor through the southern part of the state, after attending both the San Francisco and San Diego fairs.

One of the charming and pretty teas of the week was given yesterday by Mrs. Wilbur Pelton Reid at her attractive bungalow in Mount Tabor. The affair was planned as a preliminary to the hostess' sister, Miss Zola Hitchcock, bride-elect of P. Stimpson Gannett, and Miss Crystal Hyland, fiancée of L. A. Abell. A smartly gowned throng of matrons and maids called during the afternoon to greet the honor guests, the receiving line including Mrs. Edwin Forest Hitchcock and Mrs. William Forest Reid, was quite the center of attraction for some time.

The Reid home was prettily decked with white chrysanthemums and ferns, the dining-room being adorned with a general color scheme of pink, roses and lace ferns being arranged on the tea table.

Alternating at the tea table during the two hours of the reception were: Mrs. Harry Swart, Mrs. Frederick Stott, Mrs. H. Cudlipp and Mrs. Bruce Stewart, the first hour, with Mrs. T. Irving Potter, Mrs. Charles Stolte, Mrs. Cyrus A. Woodworth and Mrs. Ann Shorne serving the last hour. Further assisting in the dining-room were Misses Marie and Helen Haller, Margaret Rader, Marjorie Best, Marcia Parker, Plawnee Killingsworth.

In the drawing-room were Miss Nell Swart, Miss Eugenia Calhoun, Mrs. Elisha Farrington, Mrs. William Gannett, Miss May Van Dyke. A string orchestra played during the afternoon and the attractive floral decoration of the rooms made an effective foil for the smart tailcoats and toilettes of the guests.

Miss Hitchcock has been feted almost continuously since the announcement of her engagement a couple of weeks ago, and several affairs will take place this week to honor this interesting maid. Miss Hyland also has shared largely in the social affairs of the week, although with few exceptions the events have been of a delightfully informal nature.

Among those who are planning to leave early next month for New York and other Eastern points are Mr. and Mrs. Oskar E. Huber, Miss Elizabeth Huber who will be joined in New York by Miss Winnifred Huber who is in Dana Hall, and Mrs. Oscar B. Menefee and small daughter, Flora Jane, who are going East to pass the holidays with Miss Elizabeth Menefee, who also is attending Dana Hall.

Mrs. P. F. Moore and daughters, Misses Helen and Shirley Eastham, are to winter in New York. Mrs. Moore and Miss Shirley Eastham left yesterday for San Francisco where they will meet Miss Helen Eastham, who preceded them by a week. After attending the fair, they will continue East to remain until summer. Miss Shirley Eastham will also off for a fortnight's visit with friends in Pittsburg, Boston and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Oskar E. Huber entertained with an informal dinner Wednesday evening at Hotel Benson, covers being placed for six. Later in the evening the party was augmented by a number of couples, all of whom attended the supper dance at the Benson. Among the party were Mr. and Mrs. Huber, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Ayer, Dr. and Mrs. James C. Zan, Mrs. Laura Smith, Miss Margaret Ayer, Dr. and Mrs. George A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse, Mrs. Gay Lombard, Jordan Zan and Frederick T. Fucster.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Honeyman left for a short visit in San Francisco to attend the fair.

An event of interest to many residents of this city is the sale for the benefit of the prisoners of war fund that will be held this week in Vancouver, B. C., in which Mrs. T. W. B. London, a former society matron of this city, is actively interested. The affair is styled a "superfluous sale" and includes contributions from different families in Vancouver and surrounding towns of old silver, Sheffield plate, curios, pictures, and countless other articles given by sympathizers. The sale will be held in the Pacific building, adjoining the Canadian Handicrafts Shop, where the well-known Canadian housewares and other fascinating articles are sold.

All the prominent women of Vancouver are deeply interested in this affair, and any Portlanders contemplating a visit to the Sound city will find many wonderful and fine old articles for sale, and at the same time assist in a noble and worthy work.

To meet Mrs. Merrill Moore, a bride of a few months ago, her sister, Mrs. A. M. Cannon, has asked a number of matrons and maids to tea tomorrow afternoon. The Moores have recently returned from their wedding trip and are domiciled in apartments in Trinity Place.

Now comes the Woman's Exchange sale and tea, which ranks high among the social events of the season. The event will take place Tuesday morning, and will be in charge of the members of the board, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, as chairman of the committee, which includes the officers and directors of the Exchange, who are Mrs. E. L. Thompson, president; Mrs. Leon Hirsch, first vice-president; Mrs. William C. Alford, second vice-president; Mrs. J. K. Gamble, secretary; Mrs. S. Tammiton, assistant secretary; Mrs. Adrian McCallman, treasurer; Mrs. Arnold S. Rothwell, assistant treasurer; and directors, Miss Failing, Mrs. George S. Whiteside, Mrs. Edward Ehrman, Mrs. Marcus Fieschner, Mrs. Martin Winch, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mrs. W. O. Van Schuyver, Mrs. S. B. Lanthicum, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. Alma D. Katz, and Miss Olive Failing. From 4 o'clock until 6 tea will be served, prominent matrons and maids assisting in the pretty dining-room. The reception committee, which will attend to the comfort and needs of all who take advantage of the opening of the sale to secure the most attractive of the wares displayed, includes Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. T. L. Elliot, Mrs. Sigmund Frank, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. E. L. Thompson.

Oriental Rugs

The power of an Oriental Rug to enrich and transform a commonplace room is wonderful and amazing. An Oriental Rug is a materialized song of labor, an expression of the love and industry of a human soul. The years add to their preciousness and time but enhances the soft beauty of their coloring. We have recently received a large importation of carpet-size Rugs. We consider an Oriental Rug more than a piece of merchandise, and we endeavor to impress our customers with the truth of this. It is the genuineness of the Cartozian Bros.' importations which gives them interest and true value.

One of the features of this year's sale is the housekeepers' table, which will be filled with delicacies made by members of the Exchange from their choicest and most treasured recipes. The Exchange cook book, always a boon to housekeepers, will occupy a prominent place in the sale. Society folk are planning little parties for the tea, having already reserved tables for the event. Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon will be Mrs. John G. Edwards, Mrs. Walt F. Burrell, Mrs. John Latta and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot.

Mrs. C. C. Hindman is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hindman, Jr., at their home, 211 North Nineteenth street, for several weeks. She is being entertained with many delightful informal affairs.

Mrs. Wilson Clarke was hostess for an informal sewing bee and tea party Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John King Slack. The tea table was attractively set with garden flowers, and was presided over by Mrs. Frank Dooley.

Colleges night at the Ice Hippodrome Friday evening will be a gala event, and is claiming more than a quarter of society folk, but the college, fraternity and sorority sets in and around Portland, as well as the private and high school contents of the city.

"AND CHERRY'S GRANT CREDIT ON ALL THESE MARVELOUS VALUES!"

"Doesn't it seem almost like a fairy story, France, to see these lovely things and to know that we can actually BUY some of them TODAY, in spite of not having more than a quarter of the price in our purses?" That's part of our conversation some one overheard in Cherry's beautiful Clothing Store yesterday. You know the place, no doubt—that tremendously popular shop at 389-391 Washington street.

It's a store that's always popular, on account of Cherry's liberal Installment Payment System. But there are special drawing cards just now. ## TODAY'S BEAUTY SUGGESTIONS

Face powder simply covers up an unattractive complexion and leaves no lasting benefits. Those who have tried a simple spumax face lotion find it much better, as it removes skin discolorations, such as freckles and tan, and makes the skin smooth, white and velvety. This lotion is made by dissolving four ounces of spumax in one-half pint hot water, then adding two teaspoonfuls glycerine. This complexion beautifier does not rub off or show like powder, and gives a more refined appearance. It removes both thinness and hollowness, rapidly giving the skin a permanent healthy, youthful appearance.

An especially fine shampoo for this weather can be had at trifling expense by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage briskly. This creates a soothing, cooling lather that dissolves and removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on a glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem very much heavier than it is. After a canthox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure.—Adv.
