Blasing, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Moreland.

The Indian Club will entertain tomorrow at Oddfellows' Temple with cards, dancing and other diversions. The Weeren girls' quartet will sing, and solos will be given by Mrs. J. W. Hamilton. A group of readings by members of the Gillespie School of Expression also will be part of the program. A candy booth and a "good luck tree" will be features of the evening.

The first of a series of public social evenings to be given to artists and friends will be held Tuesday evening at room A, Central Library, by the Mutual Art Association.

Two of the features of the evening's program are a talk on art by Robert A. Miller and numbers by the Bishop Choral Club.

The Society of Oregon Artists are to be the special guests of the Mutual Art Association on this evening.

Pursuant to the entertainment committee's announcement of fortnightly dances, the Portland Bowling Club will give its next dancing party Thursday evening at the clubhouse, foot of the street. The program will be in the nature of club members and their friends. The committee in charge consists of Edward Humphrey, Robert Yetts, William Gregory, David Cooper, Stanley Roquist, Arthur Allen and Joseph Risch.

Much interest is being evidenced in the Catholic Women's League card party, which is scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the league rooms, 123 Fourth street. Mrs. W. E. Ceman, chairman of the entertainment committee, is being ably assisted by Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. Josephine Hughes, Mrs. James F. Clarkson and Mrs. Daniel Maher.

The O. A. C. Club of this city, is anxiously awaiting Wednesday night, when it will entertain the visiting Syracuse eleven in Murliark Ballroom, Twenty-third and Washington streets. An evening of entertainment and dancing planned by the club assures a most enjoyable time.

The Maxims stepping party next Thursday night at Murliark Ballroom, is creating a great amount of interest among the popular club dancers, and by the enthusiasm that is being shown by a large and jolly crowd will be present. Webb's colored orchestra will furnish music for the stepping.

Interest grows apace in the bazaar to be held by the German Red Cross Society on the afternoon and evening of December 2, 3 and 4, in the German House. Donations for the affair will be gladly received at the German House any time before the opening of the bazaar.

The annual mask ball given by the drill team of Portland Lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood will be held in Manchester Hall, 23 1/2 street, Tuesday night, November 23. The committee of young ladies has worked faithfully to make this affair a success.

The Overlook Dancing Club announces the engagement of Robert R. Cooke as instructor of its club dances. Instruction will be given from 8:30 to 9:30, the rest of the evening to be devoted to general dancing. The first party will be given Wednesday.

Mrs. Arthur Ward will entertain the Rose Social Club Thursday at her home, 267 Twentieth street North. All Royal Neighbors and friends are invited.

The Million Bucks Club announces their next stepping party to be held in Murliark Ballroom for Tuesday night, December 14. Invitations will be issued soon.

The ladies of Atkinson Memorial Church, East Twenty-ninth and Everett streets, will hold a bazaar on Tuesday, December 7, from 10 A. M. until late evening. Fancy articles and aprons will be on sale. A lunch will be served from 12 o'clock until the bazaar closes.

WEDDINGS.

Webb-Courtney. Thanksgiving evening nearly 100 friends met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Courtney to witness the wedding of their daughter, Lois, to Robert Guy Webb of Chehalis, Wash. The service was read by Rev. L. K. Grimes of the Central Presbyterian Church.

The bride, a striking brunette, was in a quaint gown of ivory satin with court train, ornamented with silver thread lace and head trimming. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her sister, Miss Genevieve Courtney, who attended the bride, was becomingly gowned in evening green chiffon over white brocade tulle, adorned with gold lace. She carried pink bridesmaid roses. The pretty little flower girl, Virginia Clare Montague, was the bride's cousin. She was dressed in pale pink satin and carried a basket of Cecil Brunner roses. The bridegroom was attended by Arthur F. Brown of Chehalis.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Goldie Peterson sang "At Dawning." Miss Clara Gibson played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and again during the service Miss Peterson sang "Benediction."

The white, pink and green color scheme was effectively carried out with chrysanthemums and ferns in the chrysanthemum room and by Caroline Testout roses in the living and dining rooms.

Mrs. Courtney was gowned in velvet. The bride is a former student of Mills College and of Oregon Agricultural College, where she helped to organize the chapter of Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. Webb is a railroad man of Chehalis, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Webb of Spirit Lake, Idaho. He is also a former O. A. C. student and a member of the Gamma Upsilon fraternity at Corvallis.

After a trip through the South the young people will be at home to their friends January 1, at Chehalis.

Koenig-Lyle. A wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lyle, 1114 East Taylor street, Wednesday night, at 8:30, when their daughter, Ora, Anna, was married to Ernest J. de Koning. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white roses. Ferns and chrysanthemums were used for a background. The ceremony being performed under a wedding bell and before an improvised altar of palms and roses.

Rev. Elmer Smith, of Sunnyside Methodist Church, read the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives and many close friends. Preceding the service, Miss Julie O'Donnell sang "I Love You Truly." The bride entered with her father, who gave her away. Miss Velma H. Lyle was her sister's only attendant. She wore a shell-pink satin gown with chiffon and lace trimmings, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bride was attired in a crown of ivory white satin, with Irish lace trimming. Her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, and her veil was fastened with orange blossoms. Arthur de Koning was best man. Mrs. Ella B. Jones played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the bridal party entered. "Tame Own" while the vows were spoken. A wedding supper was served at 10 o'clock.

The bride possesses a charming and attractive personality. Mr. deKoning is a prominent young business man of this city. After a wedding trip they will make their home in Irvington and will be at home to their friends after January 1.

A number of pretty affairs were given for the bride during the past month.

Miller-Cockerham. Miss Nora Cockerham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cockerham, of McMinnville, Or., and Brentford Miller, of Salem, Or., were married at high noon Thursday, November 25, at a home ceremony, which was attended by only the nearest relatives and friends.

Dr. E. Northrup read the service. The bride was attended by Miss Vera Backstrom, of Portland. Horton Cockerham, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was charming in a gown of white satin and chiffon, with trimmings of point lace. She carried an artistic bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was gowned in blue crepe de chine, and she carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses. Miss Emma Cockerham, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. The Cockerham residence was beautifully decorated with Oregon grapes and Chrysanthemums. After an extended trip to California for about two months they will make their home at Gervais, near Salem, Or.

Griffith-Conolly. The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Conolly in Irvington was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday night, November 23, when their daughter, Gladys, was married to Earl G. Griffith, the Rev. McLean officiating.

"I Love You Truly" was sung by Miss Helga Thompson and Medelsohn's Wedding March was played by Harold Conolly, brother of the bride. The little flower girl, Lela Griffith and Marjorie Seiple, were charming in blue and pink silk frocks. Miss Marion Conolly, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, was attractively gowned in orchid taffeta and she carried chrysanthemums of the same shade.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, was gowned in white crepe meteor with an overdrape of tulle. She carried bride's roses and wore the veil worn by her mother 22 years ago, the ceremony being the anniversary of her parents' wedding.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Ralph Griffith. Refreshments were served to about 80 guests. During the evening several musical numbers were rendered. The house was decorated prettily with smilax and roses, the smilax being sent from California by an aunt of the bride.

Larkins-Whitmore. Miss Margaret Whitmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitmore, and John Larkins, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, 633 East Tyler street, St. Johns, Thanksgiving day, Rev. L. A. Hayner officiating.

Mrs. Whitmore gave her daughter in marriage, and she was attended by Mrs. R. Whitmore as matron of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Johnson, a bridesmaid. Ray Whitmore acted as best man.

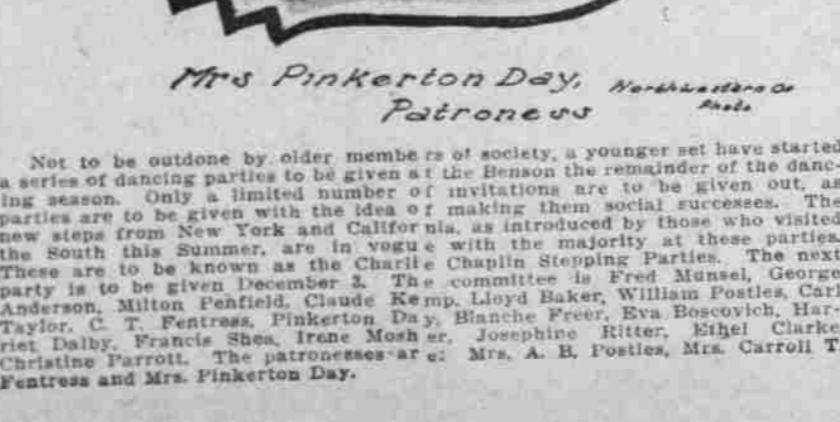

The bride, who is a striking brunette, was charming in a handsome creation of silk crepe de chine. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Mr. Larkins is well known in St. Johns, where he is engaged in business.

Durkin-Walker. Announcement of the marriage of Anne Walker to Owen E. Durkin, which was made recently at an informal tea party given by Mrs. A. T. Meyer and Mrs. T. W. Gerber, came to their many friends and acquaintances as a complete surprise. They had stolen away to Kalama, Wash., and were married on October 9. So closely had they guarded their secret that only Mrs. Gerber had been honored. Mrs. Durkin is a pretty brunette, vivacious and extremely popular, and is a member of a Salem family. Mr. Durkin, pioneer of Portland, Mr. Durkin received his education in Portland schools and at Anderson, Milton Penfield, Claude Kemp, Lloyd Baker, William Postles, Carl Taylor, C. T. Pentz, Pinkerton Day, Blanche Freer, Eva Bosovich, Harriet Dalby, Francis Shea, Irene Moshier, Josephine Ritter, Ethel Clark, Christine Parrott. The patronesses are: Mrs. A. B. Postles, Mrs. Carroll T. Pentz and Mrs. Pinkerton Day.

Not to be overlooked by older members of society, a younger set have started a series of dancing parties to be given at the Benson the remainder of the dancing season. Only a limited number of invitations are to be given out, as new steps from New York and California, as introduced by those who visited the South this summer, are in vogue with the majority at these parties. These are to be known as the Charlie Chaplin Stepping Parties. The next party is to be given December 2. The committee is Fred Munsell, George Anderson, Milton Penfield, Claude Kemp, Lloyd Baker, William Postles, Carl Taylor, C. T. Pentz, Pinkerton Day, Blanche Freer, Eva Bosovich, Harriet Dalby, Francis Shea, Irene Moshier, Josephine Ritter, Ethel Clark, Christine Parrott. The patronesses are: Mrs. A. B. How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made K. and M. You Save 25 Cents by Making Your Own.

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering distressing coughs, chest and throat colds, is really remarkable. You can actually feel it take hold. A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough—relieves even whooping cough quickly. Spleen did, too, for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, bronchial asthma and Winter coughs.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it in a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you—at a cost of only 54 cents—a full pint of better cough syrup than you could buy for $1.50. Takes but a few minutes to prepare. Full directions with Pinex. Tastes good and never spoils.

You will be pleasantly surprised how quickly it loosens dry, hoarse or tight coughs, and heals the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in quinine, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces Pinex, and don't accept anything else. It's the only one of its kind, and if money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
