Nearly $100 was contributed to the Christman relief fund of the Associated Charities during the first week of its campaign, which began last Monday. This fund is not being raised especially to deal with furnishing Christman supplies to the poor of the city, for they are usually amply cared for on Christman by private individuals and by temporary organizations that spring into existence each year when the holiday spirit is abread.

The purpose of the Associated Charities in raising its relief fund is to "conserve the Christmas spirit." which serve the Christman spirit," which prompts people to give no freely at this time to charitable enterprises, and accumulate a fund which will make it possible to continue relief work right on through the Winter. It is not during the days immediately before and after Christman that the poor need help the most keenly. It is in the months following Christman, when the temporary organizations have ceased to operate and when the holiday spirit has spent itself, the officials say.

POLO GROUNDS, N. T. Nov. 27.—President Wilson, who came from Washington accompanied by his party, among whom was Mrs. Galt, his fiance, was a strictly neutral spectator at the great battle fought here between the Army and Navy. At least no one heard him express himself otherwise, The dampness could not keep down the spirits of the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, who, withal was pleased, as the photograph shows him with the preparedness of both branches of Uncle Sam's training schools. That the Cadeis won was not because the Middles refused to fight. They fought like brave warriors that they are, but the Army had the better team and whipped the Navy to the tune of 14 to 6.
