

GROUP OF WOMEN WHO CHAPERONED HIGH SCHOOL DANCE RECENTLY.

Mrs. John Owen

Mrs. Wiley B. Montgomery

Mrs. Muffitt Montgomery

Mrs. Julia Helene Swanson

The Thanksgiving dance given by "The Highbinder," a club of the Lincoln High senior class, at the Wheelan Annex ballroom, was one of the prettiest affairs of the week. The chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. John Owen, Mrs. Wiley B. Montgomery and Miss Muffitt Montgomery.

About 20 couples were present and those responsible for the success of the party were: Robert Coggriff, H. Boles Hutchinson, Donald Montgomery and Allen Blide.

Pythian Sisters, met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Wagner, East 8th and Vasco streets. The afternoon was passed at games. Miss Maybelle Olsen played several piano solos, and Miss Lillian Heyer sang. Following refreshments, Past Chief Maude Landenski with a past chief's pin. Those present were: Mrs. Miriam Brooke, Mrs. Mai Gervitz and sons William, Mrs. Mary Littlefield, Mrs. Maude Shinn, Mrs. F. M. Butler, of North Yakima, Mrs. J. P. Mann, Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. T. L. Spencer, Mrs. Hattie Moore, Mrs. G. L. Spencer, Mrs. Al Nolan, Mrs. Kate Erdner, Mrs. Anna B. Kinney, Mrs. Maude Landenski, Mrs. Hattie Kewer, Mrs. Ida Warren, Mrs. Mary E. Steyer, Mrs. Grace Wheeler, Mrs. Lettie L. Olsen, Mrs. Anna Baker, Mrs. Lillian Moffet, Mrs. Kate Jensen, Mrs. Jennie Gilman, Mrs. Lu Scott, Miss Maybelle Olsen, Miss Lillian Keyser, Mr. Lewis, Earl Merchant, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wagner.

On Thursday night, November 18, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Townsend observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage at their home on East Taylor street. About 15 relatives and old friends gathered, and the evening was spent delightfully. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Busch, Jr., of Oregon City, niece and nephew of the "bride," furnished instrumental music, and vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Elsie Bond Buckhoff.

Feasting at the supper table were Miss Helen White, who served ice, while Mrs. Cora Puffer poured tea. Amongst were Misses Alice and Ethel Tait, Catherine Dresser, Dorothy Graham and Dora Brodie. In addition to the daughters of the host and hostess, a brief survey of the past quarter century, with congratulatory remarks, was given by John Heitkamp, of this city, and Frank Busch, of Oregon City. Many tokens of esteem were presented by the assembled guests.

The H. Jinks committee is making elaborate plans for their next dancing party at Cottillion Hall Friday, December 10. Special music has been engaged and the latest dance steps will be shown. The new roof garden promenade will be used in connection with the ballroom.

Four committees—Earl Johnson, Paul Campbell, Stanley Haslett, William Ringler, Glenn Laidlaw, Stanford Anderson, Ethel Clark, Hazel Strife, Helen Wheeler, Helen Dorra, Naidyn Baker, Florence Creamer and Gladys Anderson.

Patronesses—Mrs. Werner Dorra, Mrs. Montrose M. Ringler, Mrs. J. M. Creamer and Mrs. Charles Ringler. Committee on arrangements—Jack Wright, Stanley Johnson, Irving Gules, Iona Hansen, Bert Emery, E. H. Hall, Alvin Hansen, Clara Schaefer, Helen Jennings, Harmon Milligan and Laura Shaw.

The members of the Wallfisch Club, at East Side organization, devoted to the varied interests of women, celebrated their second anniversary at the home of Mrs. O. E. Longwell, thirty-seventh and Yamhill streets, on Tuesday, November 18. A luncheon with Flann, Margaret Whitney, Cecilia Flynn, Anna Cody and Josephine Butler.

The patronesses were Mrs. E. H. Deery, Mrs. M. Limerick, Mrs. T. S. Foley, Mrs. J. M. Lawler, Mrs. P. J. Smyth and Mrs. R. R. Day.

Miss Catherine Newell, of Serene Court, entertained about 45 of her young friends with a Thanksgiving party, November 18, in the parlor of the roof garden, which was artistically decorated in red and green. After a short programme of music and recitations, the young people engaged in a prize game, the successful couple each receiving a candy-filled turkey. The consolation prizes were a Japanese doll and a climbing monkey. The evening was devoted to dancing. After refreshments, the young folks made merry with a serpentine ribbon battle.

The Charlie Chaplin Stepping Club held the second of its series of dances Friday night in the crystal room of Hotel Benson, with about 200 young people in attendance. The affair was chaperoned by Mrs. Pinkerton Day, Mrs. A. B. Postles and Mrs. Carroll T. Fentress. The committee of young people in charge of the affair consisted of Misses Josephine Ritter, Ethel Freer, Eva Bosovich, Harriet Daiby, Irene Mosher, Messrs. W. F. Postles, Pinkerton Day, Fred Munsen, George Anderson, Claude Kaim, Lloyd Baker, Carl Taylor and C. T. Fentress.

U-re-ka Card Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. L. Johnson, high score being Mrs. B. P. Padrick and Mrs. Louise Williams. Those present were: Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mrs. W. A. Gill, Mrs. Theodore Hinkley, Mrs. E. C. Kroll, Miss Bertha Schacht, Mrs. J. A. Versteeg, Mrs. D. K. Liff, Mrs. F. L. McKnight, Mrs. B. C. Wagner, Mrs. F. Dunham, Mrs. Millicent Miller, Mrs. B. F. Padrick, Mrs. Louise Williams and Mrs. M. L. Johnson. The club will meet Wednesday, December 15, with Mrs. Emil C. Kroll, of 214 East Nineteenth street.

The last regular meeting of the Nabesee Bridge Club was held at the residence of Mrs. H. H. Kuhn, 435 Wygant street, there being a full attendance.

At the business meeting it was voted to play the game of auction bridge whilst under the rules now adopted and used in the past. The club members were tried at the last meeting and declared an improvement over the old ones.

Honoring Miss Dorothy Walton, a luncheon was given at the University Club Saturday by some women members of the senior class and alumni of Reed College. Huge red chrysanthemums formed the artistic table decorations, with unique place cards. Covers were placed for 15.

A few of the Satellite Girls of the Order of Eastern Star are planning to give a dancing party at the Rose City clubhouse Thursday evening, December 9.

Among the latest dancing clubs to organize and give parties is the "Million Bucks." It is the aim of the club to follow out Eastern ideas of the "Million Bucks." The members of the club, which means that stepping will be one of the main features. The first party will be given Tuesday evening, December 14, in Murlark ballroom. The committee is as follows: Edith Peel, Ouida Kershaw, George Fyne, Billie Garretson, Glenn Laidlaw, Bertie Williams, Edith Davis, Edith Krause, Harry Cherry, Arthur Allen, Norman Schaeffer and Beulah Rhodes. Patronesses: Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Samuel Jagger and Mrs. C. Oberg.

Saturday evening another new club will be launched by popular residents of Nob Hill, to be known as the "Murlark Bucks." The purpose of the club is to promote the "get-acquainted" spirit of popular dancers of residential districts of the city. A series of dances will be given on Saturday evenings. Murlark ballroom has been chosen as the scene of these parties, the first of which will be on Saturday, December 11. The club will be asked to participate: Portland Heights Club, Rose City Club, Irvington Club and Laurelhurst Club.

"The Original Hi Jinks" announce their next dancing party for December 10 at "Christensen's Hall." Believing the success of the Thanksgiving party, much enthusiasm is being shown for this party and a large attendance is expected.

Patronesses: Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Fred Spoor, Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Beach.

Committee: Naomi Marcellus, Marion Hoban, Madeline Brodie, Edith Shadle, Edith Manary, Julius Berkey, Marion Spoor, Vesta Tegar, Margaret Dixon, Bob Hamaker, Beach Crofton, Harry Humphrey, Mary Dunham, Le. Wald, Virginia Brown, Max Schulz, Marie Beach, Perc Brown, Hoyt Brown and Carl Caesar.

The Maxikins are planning on a big special Christmas party to be given in Murlark ballroom, Friday evening, December 17. Like former special events of the club this will be a "different party."

Committee—Edith Miller, Beulah Rhodes, Grace Coomer, Margaret Harvey, Martha Walderhol, Edith Krause, Ruby McKennan, Ethel Hawkins, Billie Raser, George E. Love, Leon Buller, Stanley Haslett, Harvey Altrow, Theodore Anderson, H. J. Faulkner, Mrs. May Blumh, Mrs. L. R. Maple, John Wick, Mary Richmond, Mrs. H. J. Faulkner.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., Dec. 4.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell, a prominent citizen of this county for a past 42 years, celebrated their birthday today, as it was Mr. Campbell's 49th birthday, and Mrs. Campbell is 79 Sunday. W. L. Campbell was born in Pike County, Missouri, December 18, 1866, and on December 25, 1894, in Adrian County, Missouri, he married Miss Margaret A. Payne, of East Tennessee.

Mrs. W. L. Campbell is a descendant of the Hon. Robert Payne and was born December 4, 1826, in East Tennessee. They have three children, eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. They expect to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary, December 25. They came to Oregon in 1913 and since have resided in North-erna Lane County.

On Tuesday evening a delightfully varied programme was rendered at the Rose City Park Club under the special direction of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Campbell. While the regular dancing lesson was in progress, the "Laidlaw" cards, while others were either bowling or at the billiard tables. At 10 o'clock everybody repaired to the auditorium, where more than 15 couples enjoyed dancing. An appreciated feature was a monologue and a song as an encore, by F. L. Merland, one of the live members of the club. The membership campaign, not yet concluded, has resulted in the addition of 140 new members, many of whom were present and took an active part in the evening's festivities.

One of the most unique and enjoyable events on the social calendar of last week was the "Hot Club" Thanksgiving party, held in the Hibernia Hall Wednesday evening. Palms and chrysanthemums were used for decorations.

The club members and committee are: Misses Mollie McCarthy, Ella Sullivan, Mary Lawler, Anna Donovan, Josephine Neighb, Margaret Whitney, Cecilia Flynn, Anna Cody and Josephine Butler.

The officers and guard team of Portland Review No. 7 will give their next five hundred party at the home of Mrs. Shook, 726 Hoyt, Tuesday night.

Oregon Rose Camp No. 1841, Royal Neighbors of America, will give a dancing party Wednesday night at Royal Academy Hall, 554 Fifth street. The committee in charge includes: E. Coffey, Miss Ruth Angel, Norma Neve,

Madame Irene Corsets

Satisfy the Most Fastidious Women

---They represent the highest in corsetry---beauty of line, excellence of workmanship, fineness of material and comfort. The —Number 3089—Illustrated—has the new and approved high bust, short hip and incurved waist line. This model, $8.

Madame Irene Colonial Model

—The new military models—high bust, long hips—$6.50-$12.

Our Winter line of these famous corsets is now complete. Every popular new Winter model is represented. Corsets for every figure. —When you consider that your corset forms the real foundation for your gowns, you will appreciate the importance of this wide assortment of Madame Irene Corsets. Come in and see them.

—Meier & Frank's Corset Store, Third Floor, Sixth Street.

Expert Corset-tiers Are Here to Fit You.

Our Corset Hospital Saves Corset Bills.

Clara Miller, Helen Daniels, Nell Simmons and Mabel Smock.

The A. T. B. Fancy Work Club met at the home of Mrs. J. T. Leonard Tuesday afternoon. The members of the club are going to entertain their husbands Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Taylor French, president of the club.

The women of the First Christian Church are planning for their bazaar and cafeteria dinner and evening, December 10. The dinner will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Mrs. T. T. Prickett, of 260 Wheeler street, will entertain the Hassalo Aid Society Wednesday, December 8, from 2 to 4:30 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

WEDDINGS.

Garber-Nudelmann.
Miss Dorothy Nudelmann and L. Garber, of Spokane, were married Sunday night at Rose City Park Club, the ceremony being read amidst a bower of palms and seasonal flowers in the parlors.

Previously at the appointed hour, Miss Esther Levitt sang "Oh Promise Me," and "Because I Love You Dear," accompanied by the orchestra with Miss Fannie Gettelman at the piano.

The bridal procession entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March"; the bridesmaids, who were the Misses Gustie Weiser, Anna Levitt and Florence Nudelmann, carrying tall shepherd crooks with ribbon streamers and baskets of pink cyclamen. Following the bridesmaids came Miss Edna Polonsky. She carried a large lily in which was concealed the ring. Miss Esther Levitt was maid-of-honor. Little Miss Reva Nudelmann acted as flower girl and carried a basket of Dorothy Perkins roses.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. She wore an exquisite gown of ivory satin with an overdress of silk tulle and Princess lace. Her veil was caught to her train by a spray of orange blossoms, also she wore a crown of these blossoms in her hair and she carried a huge shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. There were 15 guests present, many being from out of town.

The ushers were Messrs. Robert Nudelmann, Louis Nudelmann and Mr. Wolfe. Benjamin Goldstein acted as best man.

Mrs. J. Nudelmann, mother of the bride, was gowned in blue soiree, with an overdress of blue tulle. Following several days prior to the wedding Miss Dorothy Nudelmann entertained 15 of her most intimate girl friends with a theater party, followed by a luncheon at the Hazelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Garber will make their future home in Spokane where Mr. Garber has business interests.

Coe-Pattison.

Last Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pattison, 185 Laurelhurst avenue, Miss Carmen Pattison, their only daughter, was married to Joel Coe, a young business man of this city. The ring service was used, and the nuptials were solemnized by Rev. W. H. Hampton, pastor of the Montavilla Methodist Episcopal Church. More than 50 friends and relatives of the contracting parties and out-of-town guests attended the wedding. The handsome young bride was the "Queen of Roses" in the first electrical parade of the Rose Festival seven years ago. The bridegroom was of white mesquite, and the bridegroom was of white mesquite, and the bridegroom was of white mesquite.

The bride's bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The flower girl was Little Grace Oliver. She carried a basket of Baby roses enclosing the ring. The bridesmaid's dress was of pink chiffon tulle and she carried a bouquet of Caroline Testouts.

The wedding march was played by Miss Lola Beckner, and "Because" was rendered by Miss Frances Turner before the ceremony. The Pattison home was beautifully decorated with ivy, palms and white carnations, the color scheme of green and white being carried out throughout the home. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Coe, of Coats, Kan., and their daughter Edna; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schrevel, Coats, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thompson, and Mrs. T. L. Purcell, of Kelso, Wash.; Mrs. George Gorsche, of Salem, Or.

Roberts-Justus.

WOODLAND, Wash., Dec. 4.—(Special.)—The home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Coe, of Coats, Kan., at high noon on Thanksgiving was the scene of the marriage of their youngest daughter, Edna, to Oscar Justus, of Portland. They were attended by Miss Ruth Wilson, of Kalama, as bridesmaid, and La-

McHenry, also of Kalama.

The bride wore a charming gown of cream messaline and carried chrysanthemums, a rare maid-of-honor was attired in lavender crepe de chine.

Rev. G. C. Poolton, of Kalama, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Justus are well known in Woodland, and having been Captain of the steamer Metlako and the bride the sister of Mrs. H. J. Caples, whose husband is one of the owners of that steamer. The bride is from one of the old-time families of Cowlitz County that have long been identified with its progress. Mr. and Mrs. Justus will make their home in Portland.

Bowen-Stanwood.

Miss Amy Thompson Stanwood and Robert G. Bowen, of Seattle, were married in this city Wednesday, November 24, at Calvary Baptist Church, Rev. L. N. Monroe officiating. They were attended by Miss Cora Brown as bridesmaid and Dr. C. W. Miller as best man. Preceding the ceremony Miss Edna Slater sang "Love's Coronation." The wedding march was played by Miss Gladys B. Morgan, who also played during the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a navy blue traveling suit, with a white and silver hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore navy blue and a corsage bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley.

The young couple left Sunday for Seattle, where they will make their future home. Mr. Bowen is a former Portland man.

Burg-Harris.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Burg, 644 Dekum avenue, November 30, at 9 o'clock, when Charles Burg and Miss Bertha Lee Harris, both of Portland, were married by Rev. O. C. Wright, superintendent of missions for the Oregon Baptist state convention. Miss Burg, sister of the bridegroom, and L. L. Brown acted as bridesmaid and best man. Refreshments were served and a delightful evening was passed by the guests, who extended their congratulations and best wishes.

Flaherty-McIntyre.

Daniel T. Flaherty and Miss Ellen Francis McIntyre were married Saturday, November 27, at 9 A. M. in St. Lawrence Church, Rev. J. C. Hughes officiating. Miss Anna Halland attended the bride, and William McIntyre acted as best man.

After a short trip to the Sound cities, Mr. and Mrs. Flaherty will make their home in this city.

The wedding came as a complete surprise to the friends of the couple.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Miss Genevieve Ward has returned from a delightful two-day visit with friends in Puget Sound cities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Freeman are visiting their sons in San Francisco and Alameda. They will return about January 1.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osborne, Jr., entertained a small party of friends who motored up to the Anne Davenport innhouse.

Mrs. E. J. Messenger, of Kansas City, Mo., who has been passing the Summer with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Allen, will leave Wednesday for her home in the East.

Mrs. L. D. Freil, of 1839 Sixth avenue, recently returned from a two months' trip through the Middle West, where she was extensively entertained. Returning, she stopped off in Seattle to visit friends over Thanksgiving. She was joined in Seattle by her husband.

Congratulations are finding their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Smith, 875 East Yamhill.

Of Interest to Ladies

I am selling the Fall model Suits at half the original cost. Some are plain and some are dressy. The styles are very practical and are made of the best imported fabrics.

S. Aronson

Main 5210. 425 Alder.

J. K. STERN

LADIES' TAILOR

417 Alder St.

All Suits specially reduced in price.

Our Corset Hospital Saves Corset Bills.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Professor Ringler announces new dancing classes now starting. Cottillion Hall—Adv.

LADIES! BUY YOUR FURS NOW

The Silverfield Co.

286 MORRISON ST.
Bet. Fourth and Fifth Sts.

Selling Out

Their Entire Stock at 1/2

REGULAR PRICE

Positively RETIRING FROM BUSINESS

AFTER 26 years in business as Portland's leading wholesale and retail furriers, we are positively closing out our stock and retiring from business for good. Our entire stock is terrifically reduced in price, in fact, much of the stock is selling at half price and less. You certainly should not miss such a grand opportunity to supply your wants in this line. Come to the store at once, even though it is just to look.

Special Prices on Made-to-Order Garments.

Fixtures For Sale