WEST PARK AND ALDER STREETS

Three Days Only-Today, Tomorrow, Tuesday

Jesse L. Lasky Presents a Trio of Favorites

Carlyle Blackwell, Dorothy Davenport, Theodore Roberts In the Paramount Special Production of

Mr. Grex of Monte Carlo

A story of love, romance and international political intrigue. How the schemes of three of Europe's greatest diplomats are upset by a dashing and impetuous young American, who falls heels over head in love with the Grand

> One of the most unusual plays ever seen. The gambling scenes in the great Casino at Monte Carlo - the rescue from the holdupthe escape to America and dozens of others will hold you solid as a

Get Your Friends Together and Come

11

ALWAYS GOOD PICTURES ICKFORD WASHINGTON AT PARK ST.

Only Four Days, Starting Today

NATURE'S MOST WONDERFUL ENDOW-MENT OF BEAUTY, PERSONALITY AND TALENT

Exquisite

IN HER BIGGEST, MOST IMPORTANT

ALL CHRISTMAS EVE HIS WIFE WAITED

SHOULD

WHILE HIS WIFE AT HOME WAITED AND WAITED.

WHEREIN IS TOLD THE STORY OF A MAN, HIS WIFE, A GIRL. THE SAD WANDERING OF THE MAN, THE EVER TERRIBLE ENDING OF A MIS-SPENT LIFE—AND SOLVING FOR ALL TIME THE QUESTION OF A WIFE'S RIGHTS AND POWERS

A Picture Every Woman Should See

A young American falls headlong in leve with the daughter of one of the diplomats, posing as "Mister Gree," and fie greatly chagrined, but not undiameted, when he learns that she is the Webber and Fields Appear in 30and is greatly chagrined, but not un-daunted, when he learns that she is the Grand Duchess Fedors. His unconscious and unintentional interference in the plane of the statesmen stamps him as a spy and he is ordered "removed." How he causes confusion in the world's greatest diplomatic circles and wins the hand of the Grand Ducheze make many gripping incidents and unusual

The Lasky Company has given "Mr. Grex, of Munte Carlo," a production of its usual lavishness and fidelity to

The ecemes in the Casino at Monte Carlo were taken in a set which was most widely documed books of the an exact replica of the great gambling salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. The scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. The scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. The scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. The scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. The scene is salen at Moste Carle. This scene is salen at Moste Carle. The sale such at suspense, and the attempted from the attempted in the string of the poundary of the Most intense excite ment and suspense, and the attempted in the sale such at suspense, and the attempted that, that he offered her the lead in a "The Melting Pot," that was seen here their that, that he offered her the lead in a "The Melting Pot," that the screen is said by authorities to be absolutely to the said by authorities to be absolutely to the said by authorities to be absolutely that, that he offered her the lead in a "The Melting Pot," that the offered her the lead in a "The Melting Pot," that the intense were the said to t

....... MAJESTIC THEATER OWNER-MANAGER IS PIONEER LOCAL FILM EXHIBITOR.

Edwin F. James.

(Novie Magnates-No. L) Edwin F. James, president of the Purtland Moving-Picture Ex-hibitors' League, and owner-man-ager of the Majestle Theater, one of the most popular motion-pic-ture theaters in Fortland, is the pioneer film exhibitor of the sec-tion. He was not the first in the "game"—a game which has be-come a wrest business—but to come a great business—but to hose gow actively identified with Portland filmdom he ranks first in point of service, as well as seing the only owner-manager on

"big time." August, 1910, Mr. James, then a preminent realty operator of Seattle, came to Portland, leased the old Odds, Wortman & King building at Fifth and Washington streets, and opened washington treater, with 250 seats. There one of the first feature films shown in the city, The ure films shown in the city, "The Fall of Truy," was exhibited. Despite stremmus opposition the James' venture prospered and nine mouths later, in 1911, he leased the present site of the Majestic and spent $82,000 in remodeling the theater, which has a senting capacity of 1100. His success has been pronounced, due largely to his policy in seeking that which the public demands, regardless of expense. regardless of expense, Minute Comedy. apart a husband a wife is told at the dancehall, where Lillian Lorraine as La don on "The Most Popular Motion Picture Triangle photoplay of that name, featuring Bessie Barriscals, while Weber and Fields, the famous comedians of whom is already in the meshes of ecial attraction. Bessie Burriscale appears as a beautiful young girl who enjoys all the tin-sel and gitter of society life and is

Weber and Fields, in their Keystone comedy, get into all kinds of trouble and almost have their necks stretched by Hangman Mack Swain, a most bloodthirsty looking individual. They are the best of friends until they meet a young bud (Mas Busch) and then the trouble begins. Rivalry leads to all kinds of amusing complications.

MOTHER'S SECRET" IS HERE

Ralph Kellard Is Featured in Offering at Majestic.

"Her Mother's Secret," featuring the Broadway star, Ralph Kellard, who recently algaed with William Fox, and Dorothy Green, who supported William Farnum as the vampire woman in "The Wonderful Adventure," will open a three days' engagement at the Majestic Theater today. In addition to this feature film, the Army and Navy football game, which was staged on the Polo Grounds, New York, on November 27, will be flashed for Portland pigskin enthusiaats.

igekin enthusiants. pigsain entiusiasts.

The Kellard-Green vehicle is a strong Fox photo-drama, replete with interesting situations and tense moments. The film gives both stars a splendid opportunity to display their talents, while a number of beautiful scenic effects. fects are introduced to add to its at-

The Army and Navy football game, Despite strenuous opposition the James venture prospered and aline months later, in 1911, he eased the present site of the Malente and spent 552,000 in remodeling the theater, which has seating capacity of 1100. His increase has been promounced, due argely to his policy in seeking that which like public demands, egardless of expense.

The Army and Navy football game, one of the big football features of the year and the stellar athletic event in Covernment officialdom, was played at New York this year on November 27, with 45,000 people in attendance. The Army won, 14-6. Cadets and middles in uniform, the Fresident and his Cabinet, as well as a large gallery of the limited States, are included in the film. Following "Her Mother's Secret" will come Robert Mantell and Genevieve matic attraction at the Pickford The-ater, opening today.

ater, opening today.

There is a wonderful picture of a of whom is already in the meshes of the charmer. The manner in which the charmer as an added peckal attraction as an added both men is revealed in an exceedingly interesting series of illustrations, and the intrigue involved in her winning the intrigue involved in the winning a cottage from one of the men and inducing the other to act as the "angel" willing to marry simply for money and all the luxuries and pleasures that its possession will bring.

Frank Mills is shown as the young unspoiled man who has inherited wealth and lefaure. He does not believe waste from a supposed to be out of town on business, provide an opportunity for some spirited acting.

wealth and lessure. He does not believe Miss Barriscale when she coldly tells him that if it were not for his wealth ashe would not marry him. Then comes the failure of the mine in which Mills is interested. Miss Barriscale, who has wedded him, is furious to think that her plans for amusement and luxury have some astray.

She goads Mills to recoup his position. He begins speculation and makes some lucky deals.

Then comes the loss of Mills fortune through the machinations of a former rival for Miss Barriscale's hand (Wedgewood Nowell). Miss Barriscale's hand (Wedgewood Nowell). Miss Barriscale's hand (Wedgewood Nowell). Miss Barriscale refuses to aid Mills with $50.002, a former gift from him.

The plated elsewhere, the dancing girl jilts her old admirer for the new with whom she has really failen in love, her reading a note written to her by the wife, in which the circumstances under which the money apent for her advancement and pleasure has been obtained from her own, and not her husband's resources, are told, and the scene between the young through the machinations of a former gift from him.

The plated duel in the dark between the plate of the more gift from him.

The plated duel in the dark between the sweetheart who was discarded and the sweetheart who was discarded and the one who is in favor, in which the plate was just the girl Sidney Olcott take him out of his money-mad career in the machination of the machination of the machination of the machination of the money in order to take him out of his money mad career in the machination of the machination of the money are to the money in the dark between in the sweetheart who was discarded and the one who is in favor, in which the the him out of his money-mad career in the machination of the machination of the machination of the machination of the money in order to take him out of his money-mad career in the machination of the money in order to take him out of his money mad career in the machination of the machination of the money in order to take him out o will be released Thursday. The pic-

Shades of matinee idols! "Pretty" Charlie Ray slipped off from the Irene studios and was married last week. Who the girl is has not been definitely established as yet. Charlie Ray's work with Frank Keenan has been his best. Miss Held is seeing herself on

Miss Heid is seeing herself on the screen and with great delight remarks that "It's wonderful." Her daughter. Laine Carrera, will play in one of the

Carlyle Blackwall And Dorothy Davenport In Mr Grex of Moste Carlo At Peoples

BEGINNING TODAY

MISS Dorothy

Green (Who scored a marked success as the vampire woman with William Farnum in "The Wonderful Adventure.")

Appearing With

Ralph Kellard

In a Heart-Accelerating, Emotional

Matinee Idol

Her Mother's Secret

An Exceptional Wm. Fox Production MAJESTIC NOVELTY TRIO-Roberts, Ogden and Ransom

= ALSO BIG SPECIAL ===

Army and Navy Football Game

At New York Polo Grounds, Saturday, Nov. 27