Various Departments Will Be
Presided Over by Experts in Mat-

Children and Men.OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Students of every age and description will gather on the campus of the Oregon Agricultural College for a week of lectures, demonstrations, conferences, organization meetings, fairs and many other things that contribute to better training for the farm, the home and the shop during the week of January 3 to 8.The exercises are designed to give to the people of the state who are unable to devote a great deal of time to study an opportunity to get some of the latest and most practical scientific information. The work is so arranged as to make it both attractive and of great value. The exercises will be given by the strongest members of the college staff, assisted by some of the greatest authorities to be found in the United States and Canada.Many Hundreds Expected.
Last year the exercises of farmers' week were attended by more than 2300 persons and Director Hestel believes that this year the attendance will be much greater. A number of the state organizations have called their meetings at a time when their members may profit by the work offered by the college staff.On Monday special emphasis will be placed on horticulture, road construction and drainage. On Tuesday these three subjects will be continued and in addition there will be a meeting of the Oregon Jersey Cattle Club and Oregon Holstein Association, the Oregon Guernsey Club and conference of min-will also be a conference on feed crops and seed grains.Thursday the Oregon Butter and Cheesemakers' and the Pure-Bred Breeder's Association will convene.

Farmers Are to Confer.Friday there will be a conference of State Grange and Farmers' Union officials and a meeting of the Oregon Horse Breeders' Association.
On Saturday the programme will be given over to the question of marketing, purchasing and land-clearing problems.A number of the best dairy cows to be found in the Northwest will be on exhibit during the week. Breeders from Oregon and Washington have agreed to send their best animals. In addition to this, 24 dairy cows will be brought to Corvallis, representing the Clackama-qua County, Clatsop County, Clatsop County, Clatsop County, Clatsop County, mous hens.A boys' and girls' stockpiling contest will be staged Friday and Saturday.A particularly strong programme has been prepared for the women's section. In addition to the local staff, Miss Anna Barrows, of Columbia University, and Miss Alice Havenhill, of Vancouver, B. C., have been engaged to assist in the work. These two women are generally considered to be leading authorities in home economics and child welfare. They will offer lectures and demonstrations throughout the week.DENTISTRY AID TO HEALTH University of California Practice Found to Be Curb to Disease.UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Berkeley, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—To cure heart disease and rheumatism by proper care of the teeth has been the accomplishment of the university infirmity. Dental work is done for students at about two-fifths the cost of professional service.Working with a fee of $2 a semester from each student, a staff is kept on hand which cares for all ailments no matter how slight or how weighty.

During the past month an average of more than 150 students received medical attention, or advice daily—a total of nearly 5000 consultations that month. About 15 students were in the hospital daily on the average. More than twice as many men as womenwere numbered in the hospital department due largely no doubt to the strenuous football practice.CHILD WELFARE TOPIC NOTED AUTHORITIES TO LECTURE AT O. A. C. FARMERS' WEEK.Prominent Women Speakers Will Discuss Problems to Be Met in Caring for Home.OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—The women of the state interested in home

Homemakers' week at Corvallis, January 3 to 8.Miss Anna Barrows, of Columbia University, New York, and Miss Alice Havenhill, of Vancouver, B. C., have women will take part in a number of conferences and round tables for the consideration of problems in their respective fields of work.There will be lectures and demonstrations by members of the college staff and leading women of the state.

tered for the woman's work during the week.Subjects typical of those to be considered are: "Principles of Cookery," "Cooking of Fruits and Vegetables," "Practical Suggestions on the Sanitation of Rural Homes" and "All Sorts and Conditions of Kitchens."Lewiston Golf Tourney Arranged.

cial.)—The golf tournament to beplayed between teams composed of the regular members of the golf club, with CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.)—The organization of the Southwest Washington Hotelkeepers' Association was perfected at a meeting at the Hotel Wilson yesterday. Robert Murray, manager of the Centralia Hotel, was elected president, and Guy Lamoureux, of Elma, secretary. It was voted to affiliate with the state hotel-keepers' association, and Manager Morck, of the Washington Hotel, in Aberdeen, was chosen as delegate to the state meeting that opens in Seattle Monday night. Hotels at Kelso, Raymond, South Bend, Aberdeen, Elma, Olympia, Cheat the meeting.neighboring orchardists are planning on buying a machine.

"The history of the past season has demonstrated the necessity of raising a large percentage of the higher grades."
"Unless the cull product is eliminated to a large extent," says Wilmer Sieg, sales manager of the Apple Growers' Association, "a grower had best get out of the business."
The past year's success of E. H. Shepard, editor of Better Fruit, and others, whose crops have run to more than 75 per cent extra fancy and fancy, demonstrates that thorough spraying can overcome disease, pests and that it isworth the outlay of money expended in buying sprays and machines.Fire Insurance Companies Lose.
OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 18.—(Special.) —In losses and expenses during 1915, fire insurance companies will have paid out $1.25 in Washington for every $1 they have collected, according to estimates of Insurance Commissioner Fishback. Since the companies have had an unusually good year in the Middle West and previous good years here, however, Commissioner Fishback does not look for any general increase in rates.Our entire Washington-Street
