BY ROSCOR FAWCRIT.

BY BOSCOR FAWCETT. Fielder Jones left Portland last sight for the East, but before going he handed out some Christmas advice to big lengue ball managers. The great ex-Federal Lengue boss' Christmas package consisted of a few commentaries on the Federal Lengue talent that sught to make good in the American and National Lengues dur-fung the coming senson.

Ing the coming season. As Manager Jones' advice on such matters is worth about $15,000 per sea-son, no doubt his views on the matter will be accepted with considerable in-terest over and about the effete East.

All-Stars on Jones' List.

Exclusive of the Chicago and St. Louis Federal clubs, which will be amalgamated with the Cubs and Browns, the following all-stars adorn Manager Jones' list:

He says that the Chinago Federals have no particular stars, although Lealis Mann, ex-Scattle outfielder, and Fincher are mighty good ball players. "Benny Kauff and Lee Maree, of Brookiyn; Hal Chase, of Buffelo, and Ed Konstchy, of Fittaburg, are four of the greatest stars of the baseball universe." declared Manager Jones just before he stepped aboard his train bound for St. Louis. "Hal Chase is undoubtedly the great-bound for B. Louis. "Hal Chase is undoubtedly the great-est first-macker in the world. Konetchy and Magee are not far behind him. First base is Mages's natural position.

UNCLE SAMS PLAY

VICTORIA TUESDAY

Each Septet Is Keyed to High

Pitch, as Leadership of League Is at Stake.

HARRIS' KNEE IMPROVING

Another strenuous night of ice hockey is slated for the Portland Ice Hippodrome Tuesday night when the Portland Uncle Sams will be entertain-Portland Uncle Sams will be entertain-ing Manager Lester Patrick and his Victoria Aristocrats. Each aggrega-tion is keyed up to a high pitch, as a win for Portland will keep it in the leadership of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association, while a defeat charged to the Uncle Sams will cause them to land in the same elevation as Victoria. Considerable rivalry exists between the squads, not only because Victoria proved a big stumbling block in the way of the Portlanders last year in the league race, but because Ran Mo-

the league race, but because Ran Mc-Donald, who wore the colors of the Portland team during the 1915-16 campaign, is now drawing pay from the Aristocrat management. Ran has been in communication with several of his friends in Portland, and he expects to put up a great battle against his former teammates. The best scorer on the Victoria squad is Lester Patrick, who leads in the individual averages, while Ran McDon-ald is third among his players.
