

CLUB HOLIDAYS TO BE FOLLOWED BY GREATER EFFORTS IN ALL LINES

Several New Organizations Are to Appear This Year and Philanthropic Activities Are to Abandon Old Trails. Elections and Social Affairs Are on Calendars.

Mrs. Sol Baum, who will be hostess at Council of Jewish Women Affairs, and her children, Charles and Ann.

AFTER a week of quiet portraiture clubwomen will begin the year with a rather strenuous week. This month and week will see many brilliant club meetings and socials, and the formation of several new organizations, which hereafter will play an important part in women's circles and work. There will also be elections and other important events.

New Year's resolutions are no small part of the items that are included in the plans. Some clubs have issued calendars for the next year or for several months and begun a number of their undertakings under plans very different from those of the past year. A number of the organizations will conduct their philanthropic work for the coming year in a new manner.

The most elaborate event of the week will be the affair given by the Jewish Council of Women at the Multnomah Hotel Wednesday afternoon. The ballroom will be artistically decorated. The regular meeting will also take place. The beautiful Berger-Jones pictures will be shown. A number of women prominent in the council will assist the hostesses. A reception and social hour will be combined with the usual event.

Mrs. Marjorie Goodman and Mrs. Sol Baum will be hostesses. The matrons who will assist are Mrs. Abe Cohen, Mrs. Charles Rosenfeld, Mrs. Max Lowenstein, Mrs. Abe Levy, Mrs. Charles Berg, Mrs. L. Mayer, Mrs. Herman Pollak, and Mrs. Lee Boyer.

Portland clubwomen are intensely interested in the coming "Ramen and Julia," Gaudin's opera that is to be presented at the Helix Theater the nights of January 11 and 12 and on the afternoon of January 13. The affair is to be given for the benefit of the Baby Home and Mademoiselle Jemelli, other prominent agencies and a chorus of 100 voices will give the opera.

Already the clubs are arranging for tickets and a number of the clubs and clubwomen will be busy.

The Council of Parent-Teachers will meet Friday afternoon at 1:30 in room 211 of the Central library. The meeting will begin with the reading of reports of the chairmen of the various committees. The regular business session will begin at 2:30 o'clock. It will be one of the big meetings of the year. Dr. C. H. Chapman will speak on the bureau of juvenile and domestic relations and the parental school which the association hopes to establish.

On Wednesday at 2 P. M. Central Union W. C. T. U. will hold its last meeting in the present headquarters at 1714 Eleventh street. The subject of the meeting is "The Great Mother," and will be led by Mrs. C. C. Taylor, superintendent of the department of women's meetings. Mrs. Robert H. Tall will speak on "Equal Opportunities for Every Child." Mrs. Ada Ulrich will be another speaker. The program will be furnished by Mrs. Margaret Reading Koon, who will present the Trenaia trio in mother songs.

It is also planned to give special home to the birthday of Frances Willard's mother, who, Dr. Terry said, was a "great mother of a great daughter." It is hoped that Jennie N. Kemp, who states president, can be present and give some personal recollections. Mrs. Kemp spent 16 years at the National W. C. T. U. headquarters in Franconia, N. H., and in Evanston, Ill.

The Shakespeare department of the Portland Women's Club will meet on Tuesday, January 4, in Women of Woodcraft Hall, at 2 P. M. The first half hour will be devoted to current dramatic news. The lesson is the first act of "King Lear." This will be an interesting session and all are urged to be prompt.

The Woodcraft Parent-Teachers will hold their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday at the schoolhouse. The teachers will have charge of the meeting.

Chapter E. P. O. E. will meet Thursday at the home of Miss Jean McKershan, 414 Hazel street, at 2 o'clock. All officers are requested to attend, as there will be initiation preceding the business session and social hour.

The Women's Political Science Club will meet Tuesday afternoon in room A, Central Library. Answer to recall, "The Bible on Temperance." At 3 o'clock a lecture will be given by A. E. Baker, attorney and president of the Oregon State Anti-Saloon League, on "Over Prohibition Law." The public is invited. The club has outlined a thorough, practical and systematic parliamentary drill, to be conducted from 1:30 to 2:30 o'clock on each day of their regular meetings, beginning next Tuesday and continued until further notice is given. The business meeting will start promptly at 2 o'clock.

The chairman of the press committee for the General Federation of Women's Clubs in the State of Oregon, solicits the co-operation of all individual clubs and members of press committees. If club news can be gathered and sent over the state, so that each unit of the federation may know the plans and progress of every other unit, it will assist greatly in the development of club activities for the new year.

The federation fully appreciates the importance of publicity for the purposes:

1. To secure co-operative work upon the part of the committee.
2. To get interchange of advice and counsel from different sections of the state.
3. To get a working basis for more united efforts towards ideal home life.
4. To secure a closer understanding and relationship between the farm and city women in order that they may work together, not one for the other.

Reports of special interest:

1. Child study; (2) child welfare and home care.
2. Civic improvement in smaller towns; (3) civic programs; (4) clean-up and city beautification; (5) social work.
3. Civic experiments in education; (1) picture and lecture; (2) studies of textile industries; (3) history of home art and craft in leather, rug, basketry, etc.; (4) general "craft" work; (5) ethnology; (6) libraries.
4. Boys' and Girls' Club activities.
5. Conservation of natural beauty.

There will be a meeting of the dramatic department of the Shakespeare study club Tuesday afternoon at the Central Library, room F, at 3 o'clock.

The Franklin High School Parent-Teacher Association will hold a "Get Acquainted" meeting at the Creston school Tuesday at 8 o'clock. A musical program will be given. Refreshments will be served. The address of the evening. Refreshments will be served.

The Aloha Psychology Club, which suspended its meetings during the holidays, will resume its active work Tuesday in room 716, Morgan building.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club will meet Tuesday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. L. Babbers, 614 East Fifty-seventh street. A grab bag will be a feature of the event. Each member will bring a gift nicely wrapped and all will be mixed and drawn. In the event of a member winning her own gift she will be expected to exchange with another.

The Central Club will meet at the Imperial Hotel Wednesday at 11 o'clock, at which time luncheon will be served and a program given. Refreshments will be responded to by quotations from Elbert Hubbard. A trio will be given by Mrs. G. F. Alexander, Mrs. R. G. Skabara and Mrs. Florence Hammond.

Elbert Hubbard will be the theme of papers by Mrs. Newton McCoy and Mrs. Edward R. Root.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30, at which time three-minute table talk will be given by Mrs. B. T. Boden on "What Our Table Talks Should Mean to Us." Mrs. E. E. Cooper will speak on "The Value of Humor" and Mrs. C. M. Kiggins on "My Favorite Humorous Club of Oregon."

Many of the active and interesting little study clubs in the city is the Fortnightly Club, which has lately affiliated with the State Federation of Women's Clubs of Oregon.

Its meetings are held every other Monday afternoon at the homes of the different members. After finishing with the regular business meeting and program a social hour is enjoyed.

One or two days are set apart in the year as "guest" days, when each member in turn will meet in her home. The afternoon is enjoyed in some pleasant form of entertainment. Members of the club were active in relief work at Christmas.

The topics for study of the remaining year will be: Emerson, Longfellow, Thoreau, Whittier and Poe.

Mrs. Harmond G. Littler entertained for the Rose City Coteries Club on Wednesday at her Mount Tabor home. Eleven members of the club were present and one visitor, Mrs. Elmore W. Brewer, of Pendleton.

The parents' educational bureau of the Oregon Congress of Mothers will begin the new year with a series of practical talks and demonstrations, which will be given at 2:30 o'clock every Friday afternoon at the County Courthouse. The lectures and meetings will be free and open to the public, and working through various channels of their organization the bureau will make a silent campaign to reach those whom the meetings will benefit most.

Christmas baskets were sent to many of Portland's needy and Christmas thereby brought into many homes as the result of the efforts of the social service department of the Parent-Teacher Association.

Many of the Parent-Teacher circles provided Christmas baskets, in many cases entertaining several communities. Community churches being given to raise money for provisions. Fernwood and Irvington, having no needy in their own districts, contributed their offerings to the needy community.

Fernwood school children filled baskets, each room supplying one family with a dinner and toys. Through the kindness of the hospital wards of the city were remembered by a gift from the Parent-Teacher Association. We wish to thank J. M. Burgess, of Pilot Rock; Tom Boylen, R. N. Hugh and Gerald Stanfield, Mr. Burgess has held high positions in the National Association of wool men.

The Friends Circle of the Eastern Star will hold its installation of officers tomorrow night at Vincent's Hall.

The committee that outlined the work and will have charge of the lecture part includes Mrs. John Risley (chairman), Mrs. T. Newton, Mrs. John Waldron, Mrs. J. N. Walker and Mrs. E. H. B. Greenman. Two men have been elected to the advisory board. They are Professor H. B. Starkbreaker and Professor I. H. Morgan.

The committee that will have charge of the social program at the meetings is as follows:

January 12, Mrs. J. W. Foster, chairman; Mrs. John Waldron, Oak Grove Parent-Teacher Association; January 19, Mrs. E. H. B. Greenman, Parent-Teacher Association; February 5, Mrs. J. P. Chapman, Franklin High School; February 12, Mrs. J. H. McGreggor, Glenhaven Parent-Teacher Association; February 19, Mrs. G. Swanik, Holiday Parent-Teacher Association.

The executive board of the Oregon Congress of Mothers is actively engaged in organization work in the interests of one of the largest child welfare exhibits held in the West to be held at the Armory from April 3 to 8 in connection with the Northwest field sessions of the National Association of Mothercraft Education.

The Laurohurst clubhouse has been the scene of a gay party to the children of the Laurohurst Home by the women of the Study Club last Monday. Autos were donated to convey the children to and from the clubhouse. The club was decorated with cedar, Oregon grape, red bells and streamers. Miss Ewing, of the Central Library, told Christmas stories, and music and games followed. The members brought candies, food and cakes to be served with hot chocolate.

The subject at Laurohurst Study Club will be "Maeterlinck's Pella and Melisande" at next Monday's lesson. The president, Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, will lead the discussion.

The Alameda Tuesday Club gave a mid-holiday card party at the home of Mrs. T. L. Adams, Danckley avenue and Twenty-ninth street, at which the women entertained their husbands and friends. The house was decorated with Christmas colors and holly, and all seemed to have the spirit of the season. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Adams, when the club will renew its charity work.

The Alberta Woman's Improvement Club will meet Tuesday evening in the assembly hall of the Vernon School House. F. E. Conter will speak on "True Charity." The public is invited.

Mrs. G. H. Watson will entertain the members of the Overlook Women's Improvement Club and their families at her home, 464 Alhambra street, Friday evening, January 7. The husbands of the members of the club are invited, and an enjoyable affair is anticipated.

Mrs. Watson is known as one of the most popular hostesses of the organization and she is making elaborate preparations for the event. Decorations will be appropriate to the season. A large attendance of the club members is expected.

The department of public speaking of the Coterie Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Miller Benn, will meet Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Imperial Hotel.

The West Side class of the Portland Shakespeare Study Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to take up the study of "Twelfth Night." The meeting will be a regular monthly gathering of the club and will be held at the home of Miss Claire Oakes, 554 East Taylor street.

The Holman Parent-Teacher Association has postponed the meeting which was to have been held on Tuesday and will meet instead on January 11.

Mrs. J. M. Costner will go to Corvallis Tuesday to preside at the conference of "Efficiency of Women in the Home," and to lecture to the high school on "Social Life."

The Kennedy Parent-Teacher Association will hold its monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. "Care of the Teeth" will be discussed.

Harry Yankwich addressed the meeting of the Woman's Political Science Club last Tuesday on "Contracts."

On Friday afternoon Portland chapters of the P. E. O. held their regular monthly luncheon at 1 o'clock, in the tearoom of Old Wortman & King's. A large number of members attended.

The Friends Circle of the Eastern Star will hold its installation of officers tomorrow night at Vincent's Hall.

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of water stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy. Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 quarts Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a bottle and fill the bottle with sugar. It gives you at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made. It is a clear, agreeable, and gives you in directions with Pinex. It keeps perfect and tastes good. It takes hold of the usual cough chest cold at once and conquers it in hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs. It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membrane in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus drying the persistent loose cough. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract combined with quaiaccol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
