WANCOUVER, H. C. Jan. 8 .- (Spe-tory of nockry on the Parific Coast there is this year developing some real apposition to the right of High Lahman, of the Vancouver Millionaires to the title of premier goal tender in the sport. Outside of Lehman himself, the 1515-16 crop of gualers is an antirely new one. Two of the young-sters imported, Tom Murray and Fred McCulloch, are making their first appearance in professional bockey "Happy" Harry Holmes has had some pearance. eventionerable experiences in the East and all three have already demonstrated that they have something on those who preceded them out here.

For three years Alan Parr held down the nots for Vancouver. Parr was a demon on the close-in stuff, but he was faially weak on the long-range is was faisily weak on the long-range bombardment. Bert Linday lasted with Victoria a rear longer than Parr did with Van-ouver. Linday was an in-and-out performer. Like the little girl of the story book, "when he was good, he was very, very good, but when he was bad, he was herrid." The last seen of Farr he was operat-ing a jinner along one of Vancouver's well-known lines of travel and the istars, he the way, is also Lindsay's sturre of incume in the off-susson. belleve he can make one more return trip. They belleve he will be a good bit better in 1916 than he was last year. Here's hoping they are right. For McLoughlin has done more for lawn tennis in America, in the way of popu-larising a great sport, than any other single entry.

Francis Ouimet attained the bulk of is popularity just as McLoughlin did via, by repulsing a British invasion where the rest of his mates fell in the Albinnic chert where the rest of his matter fell in the Albionic charge. But Ouimet, unlike McLoughlin, came back a year fater by winning the ama-teur golf championship. It was not until 1215 that the yrung Boston star slipped and fell from his star-crowned creat. 4 What has 1216 to offer Ouimet? A rood deal more than 1915 had to offer, unless we wreck one of the casiest guesses now extant.

In our opinion the two best amateur golfers in America are Jerome D. Trav-ers and Francis Ouimet-when match and medal play, variety of shots and temperament are all taken into considerstion. And we can back up our opinion by facts. Between them they have won two out of the hast three oper cham-plonships and three out of the last four amateur championships. They have
