2. The hostility-some call it hatred against America and Americans is greater today in Germany than it was last Spring. Germans believe that Americans are almost as much their snemles as the nations with whom they are at war, for without the supply of ammunition from the United States they believe the war would have ended you will make the people of the United States understand that I am no more pro-German than your Freeident," asid king Constantine to the Associated Freez correspondent ioday. "I am pro-Greek, just as your Freeident tries to be only pro-Américan.
"It is one of the anddest evidences of the billed hatreds and prejudices evoked by this war that people who should and, in their soher senses, do know better, insist upon imputing to other motives which they never could conneivably have entertained."

The King's statement was made in communicating to the correspondent an important dectaration of his policy which he had given to a representative of the Chall Anneiger, of Herifi. The soldiers are fully equipped. Just now they wear their Winter uniforms of gray, with ill-fitting but very comfortable and useful overcoats. They carry their full equipment, down to the drinking cup, lashed to the beit. Their helmets are covered with greenish-gray cotton cloth. They wear their thick marching boots, the trousers less cotton cloth. They wear their thick marching boots, the trousers legs tucked in the boot proper. Another authority said that Germany has between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 men who will be ready for service at the front in two or three months. Of that front in two or three months. Of that number only those of 20 years old will be called to service at the front. This applies to those who will be 20 years old in January or February of 1915. The Landsturm is used almost ex-clusively for guard duty, and of those clusively for guard duty, and of those only those between the ages of 37 and 45 have been called in. Up to 37 years of age soldiers are sent to the front.

If Germany should call to her colors men between 45 and 50, then 3,000,000 more would be added to the list of those available for service. In that event, it is pointed out, those between the ages of 45 and 59 would be assigned to guard duty, while they would send men to the front up to 45 years of age making between six and seven mil--making between six and seven mil-lion men to be added to the list. As far as the prisoners are concerned, it is stated Germany has about 2,000,000 and with Austria about 3,500,000. Ger-mans calculate that their enemies suf-fered a loss of about 6,500,000 in dead,
