VALLEY EDITORS AGREE ON RATES

Five Cents a Line Regarded as Proper Charge for Lega! Advertising.

Failure of Publishers to Join Various Associations Given as Cause for Hurtful Competition. Job Work to Be Up Next.

FOREST GROVE, Or., Jan. 15 .- (Spe-Valley Editorial Association, which held its semiannual meeting in Forest Grove today, was that 5 cents a line was a proper rate for legal advertising in Oregon. In this description were included not only the more familiar legal accompany to particle. action not only the more familiar egal notices commonly inserted by awyers, but road and school district otices and municipal business also of il kinds. Several editors in urging a tatutory rate gave instances of comtition injurious to country papers be-use of lack of uniformity in legal rtising charges.

How country editors may belp their foreign advertisers by seeing that local dealers co-operate with the manufacturers in making local campaigns go, was told by A. H. Deute, manager of a Portland advertising agencies were methods of advertising agencies were discussed by C. C. Comment of Portland discussed by C. C. Chapman, of Port-land; Elbert Bede, of Cottage Grove, and Mr. Deute.

Lack of Co-operation Deplored. An almost total lack of co-operation among country publishers was alleged and deplored by several editors. The remedy advanced most conspicuously was formation of county associations everywhere in the state. The failure of editors to join in greater numbers in the work of the state and district editorial associations was criticised, and the county unit was suggested as a better working basis.

A discussion that originated between E. E. Brodie, of Oregon City, and G. E. Brookle, of Carby, over-scompetitive bidding on job work eventually drew bid work in the clection. Thus the cost to those who are nominated is intereased. The work or be
