Misses Ruth and Emily Griffin, of Seattle, House Guests of Miss Irene Hunt.

Miss Helen Farrington, of Burns, Popular Kappa Kappa Gamma Girl, Who Has Been Visiting Here

Ehrman being hosts for one, the other being presided over by Miss Mary Louise Feinchenheimer. The latter planned the dinner as a compliment to Mrs. S. Hayman, of New York, and Miss Irma Wolfe, of San Francisco.

Patronesses for the dance were Mrs. Henry W. Metzger, Mrs. Albert Schweitzer, Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mrs. William H. Ehrman, Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mrs. Henry Ottenheimer and Mrs. Lloyd Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford P. Lowengart are passing a few weeks in San Francisco, whither they went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Lowengart's brother, Samuel Dinkelstein. They are planning to go to New York and Washington, D. C.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank, Mrs. Isam White will be a dinner hostess Wednesday evening in the rose room of Hotel Benson. Dancing will follow.

Among those who have been actively working for the interests of the Young Women's Christian Association this past week have been Miss Carrie A. Holbrook, Mrs. Charles Busey, Mrs. Robert W. Lewis, Mrs. W. D. Wheelwright, Mrs. F. M. Warren, Mrs. John A. Bell, Mrs. Charles T. Kamm, Mrs. C. A. Gordon, Mrs. E. P. Northrup, Mrs. James F. Felling, Miss Kate Felling, Mrs. George W. Simons, Mrs. J. Andre Foulhoux and Mrs. Joseph T. Andrus.

Each day upon the close of the work reports were made and the matrons enjoyed a social chat and tea, which was served by Miss Kate Felling.

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, of Salem, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal for a few days. They were entertained informally at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Teal last night.

Mrs. James F. McIndoe left last week for a short visit in Seattle with friends, en route to the new post of the Colonel's in Kansas City. Mrs. McIndoe is planning to return to Portland about March for a longer visit than she enjoyed recently. She will be delightfully entertained.

city was host Friday night. The funds raised at the affair will be used for the Catholic Orphanage of the diocese. There were several dinner parties preceding the ball, and the gowns were an artistic array of the latest fabrics, modish and colorings. Particularly noticeable was the prevalence of silver, either lace, or cloth of silver on many of the gowns, irrespective of the coloring or material. It was a charming effect. Patronesses for the occasion were: Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. John E.

Cronan, Mrs. James Leidlav, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. Edward Boyce, Mrs. William Burke, Mrs. H. A. Cushing, Mrs. David M. Dunne, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. J. Halinan, Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. William E. Prudhomme, Mrs. M. O'Donnell, Mrs. Andrew C. Smith, Mrs. James P. Cooke, Mrs. Frank E. Deely, Mrs. A. D. McDougall and Miss Kate Gile.

A group of the popular and well-known men of the parish acted as ushers, including Walter A. Greutler, Joe A. McKenna, William Healy, J. D. Leonard, Frederick A. Martin, Joseph Campbell, Joseph P. Cronin and Walter M. Daly.

Officers of the Aid Society who planned and managed the ball are: Mrs. P. J. Cronin, president; Mrs. J. R. Wiley, vice-president; Mrs. Joseph McCusker, second vice-president; Mrs. M. Baldwin, secretary; and Miss Mary McKay, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jacobson returned last week from an extended visit in San Francisco. They again are domiciled in their apartments at the Hotel Benson.

Mrs. Joseph P. Cronin (Helen U. Gorman), who has been visiting her parents in Seattle, returned to town last week, and is entertaining as houseguest her sister, Mrs. Frances Gorman, and Miss Camille Mahoney, of Seattle.

Mrs. Isam White will be a dinner hostess Wednesday night at the Hotel Benson. Mrs. White's dinner parties always are unusual and delightful in every detail.

Mrs. Frances G. Batcheller, who has resided in the East for the past five years, is visiting in Portland with her sister, Mrs. George N. Davis, and is accompanied by her son, Jack W. Batcheller.

Miss Anna Marie Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Taylor, was married Thursday to Ormond Rankin, son of Mrs. C. N. Rankin, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. John H. Boyd officiating. It was a simple affair, the young couple being unattended. Only the families of the bride and bridegroom were present.

The bride was charming in a gown of pale-blue messaline trimmed with tulle, and her bouquet was a shower of violets and lilies of the valley. A wedding supper was served immediately after the ceremony, and the young people left for a short wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin will be at home after February 1 at 595 Lovejoy street.

The bride is a popular sorority girl, a member of Gamma Phi Beta, and she attended the University of Oregon. The bridegroom also is a graduate of the University of Oregon, class of 1910, and is a Phi Delta Gamma man.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the informal tea for which Mrs. Weirase Kaser and Miss Ada Otten were hostesses honoring Mrs. Clifton Foss (Edna Patterson), a recent bride. Spring blossoms adorned the rooms, and the guests included: Mrs. Walter A. Greutler, Mrs. Foss, Miss Norma Rodman, Miss Doris Skeel, Miss Laura Korell, Miss Mabel Korell, Miss Frances Lackoff, Mrs. Uruhardt, Mrs. Stanley Clemmens, Mrs. F. A. Bennett, Mrs. Arthur Senders, Mrs. Mark Hawes and Miss Leonide Fleury.

Complimenting Mrs. E. A. Dempsey, popular Spokane matron, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Katherine A. Daly, the latter was hostess for a delightful luncheon and bridge party Wednesday. Covers were placed for 12, three tables being arranged for the games. Card honors fell to Mrs. Lyndon Vessey.

Mrs. Dempsey passed a few days the latter part of last week in Astoria, visiting relatives, where she also was delightfully entertained.

Miss Agnes Beach entertained the Delta Gamma Sorority Saturday, with an informal tea in honor of Miss Helen Adams, a bride-to-be in February. The reception rooms were decorated artistically with baskets of Spring flowers and smilax. Mrs. J. C. Elliott King and Mrs. Ben Day aided in receiving.

Mrs. C. M. Blair and daughters, the Misses Alberta and Margaret Blair, who have been touring Southern California for several months, returned to Portland last week.

Lieutenant Kenneth P. Williams, United States Army, gave a dinner party in honor of Governor James Withycombe on Wednesday night at the University Club.

In addition to the guest of honor, the other members were Frederick Ames and Colonel Clendun McLaughlin. The party attended the military tournament at the Armory following the dinner.

A surprise of the week was the announcement last night of the engagement of Miss Germaine Baruh to Norwyn E. Wangenheim, of San Francisco. The news was made known last night at a dance for which Mr. and Mrs. Julius Durkheimer and their son, Sylvan Durkheimer, were hosts, honoring Miss Baruh and her house guest, Miss Flora Gabriel, of San Francisco.

Miss Baruh is considered one of the brightest and most vivacious girls in her set, in addition to being very attractive. She met her fiancé while attending Miss Durkheimer's School in San Francisco. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wangenheim, one of the old and well-known families of the Southern city, and he is engaged in a large manufacturing concern.

Miss Baruh is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Baruh, a prominent family of this city, and she is very popular with the younger contingent.

This afternoon and evening Mr. and Mrs. Baruh and the bride-elect will be at home to their friends, and on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Baruh will entertain with a reception at her residence, 859 Marshall street, in honor of her daughter.

Ice hockey is to be the big event of the early week. Portland and Victoria teams will play at the Ice Hippodrome on Tuesday evening. An imposing list of reservations to date promises a large and enthusiastic assemblage. As usual, the game will have its attendant festivities, dinner and supper parties, a favorite close for the hockey games being the dance at Hotel Multnomah, or at the homes of the hosts.

Among those who have made reservations are: J. D. Farrell, A. B. Williams, Dr. Gullett, F. L. Keith, F. Freeseburg, William Kearns, F. L. Dalley, Dr. Emmerson, Henry V. Metzger, Edgar Frank, Mrs. G. Behrens, C. Reynolds, Louis H. James, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Paul Froelich, W. D. Stokes, H. E. Crain, R. O. Burnett, G. Morris, C. W. Hansen, Mrs. Walter Cook, Mrs. W. D. Skinner, R. T. Mr. and Mrs. John Claire Monteth represent part of the week in Eugene, where Mr. Monteth was one of the soloists with the Eugene Philharmonic Society in its biannual concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Monteth passed one day in Salem en route to Portland.

The wedding of Paul A. Matchette, a popular young automobile man of this city, and Miss Abigail Clarke, of McPherson, Kan., was solemnized at Los Angeles on January 5. It was one of the notable events of the Southern city, as the bride was the first one to be issued since the New Year. The wedding service was read at the home of the bride's parents, who always have the winter in California. Rev. Dr. Fishburn, pastor of the West Adams Presbyterian Church, officiated.

Because they were the first couple to obtain a marriage license since the department permitted the couple to stamp their own license.

Mrs. Matchette took a special course at the University of Washington, after graduating from Wells College, in New York. Mr. Matchette is a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, and his bride is a popular Alpha Xi Delta.

They are now at home to their friends in this city at 550 East Forty-eighth street North, Rose City Park.

Announcement is made by the Blackstone Club that its "Special" January dancing party will be held Friday night in the ballroom of the Benson Hotel instead of Thursday night at the Multnomah Hotel, as previously announced.

The patrons and patronesses are: Judge and Mrs. John P. Kavanaugh, Judge and Mrs. Arthur Langruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Coan. Invitations are now being issued by the committee in charge, which consists of the following: T. B. Collins, E. W. Hammond, T. D. Harmon, E. J. Magius, Jr., K. Herbring, A. J. Shawcross and J. L. Boerth, assisted by the following young women: Edna M. Young, Evangeline F. McIntosh, Irene M. Harmon, Ruth A. Routledge, Constance H. Davis, Regina M. Shon, Hazel L. Linville, Winifred P. Ralston and Lydia M. Villeneuve. Music is to be furnished by Portland's Society Orchestra.

Of interest to many Portland folk as well as students at the University of California is the news of the election of Miss Marguerite Templeton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Templeton, to the Treble Clef Club as contralto. Miss Templeton is a member of the class of 1918, and has had two successful tryouts for the Treble Clef Club, of which Miss Geraldine Courteen is accompanist for this season.

Miss Templeton is a clever girl, a
