

REPUBLICANS OPEN CAMPAIGN IN POLK

Resolutions Advocating Doctrines of Grand Old Party Win Unanimous Vote.

PROGRESSIVES TAKE PART

Dallas Meeting Noted for Harmony and Careful Avoidance of Anything Indicating Slate or Combination—All Are Pleased.

DALLAS, Or., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—With nearly every one of the 40 precincts of the county represented, the Republican Central Committee of Polk County today opened the political campaign of 1916. The meeting was called to order by Chairman D. M. Hampton, of Monmouth, and besides the precinct committeemen there were nearly 100 other Republicans...

After briefly stating the object of the meeting, Chairman Hampton called upon Walter L. Toose, Jr., of Dallas, state committeeman from Polk County, for an address. Other who spoke were: T. T. Patterson, W. W. Percival, of Independence; J. C. Talbot, of Falls City, and George Hawkins, of Dallas.

The chair appointed Walter L. Toose, Jr., of Dallas; E. E. Padlock, of Independence; D. L. Koyl, of Perrydale, as a committee upon resolutions. The committee reported back with a resolution expressing faith in the Republican party and in the election of Woodrow Wilson as president...

Peace With Honor Advocated. We believe in the maintenance of peace consistent with National honor and dignity, but we do not believe in peace at any price. We believe that an American citizen is entitled to the protection of his Government wherever he may be provided he is engaged in lawful enterprise...

6 STOCK THIEVES TO SERVE William Riddings, Famous Buckaroo, Is One Sent to Penitentiary. ONTARIO, Or., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—William Riddings, a buckaroo, famous throughout Eastern Oregon as the cowboy Proctor used as a model for his statue, "Old Buck," left last night in custody of the Sheriff for the penitentiary for horse-stealing.

Living in an icebound steamer. The Tahoma, with the constant fear that she will be crushed like a peanut when the Columbia River breaks up, but hoping against hope that she may be saved and piloted again to the usually placid waters, Captain Charles Nelson and a loyal crew of three men since January 6 have been marooned in their craft a short distance above Cape Horn, Wash. The steamer is about 400 feet from the Washington shore, and the ice is solid around her and possibly 20 feet deep in places.

Food Needed for Bull. To add to their trouble, worry and work, a bull, consigned to Joseph McGoldrick, at Vancouver, Wash., was aboard, and he had to be fed. It would be impossible to get him ashore, and he could not climb the snow drifts on the bank if he did. So the crew had to carry hay across the ice on their backs. When Mr. McGoldrick was informed that the bull was being fed, he complained that he was accustomed to eating grain and that he had sent some for him to eat.

Prison May Make Twine. FACTORY AT PENITENTIARY IS PROPOSED BY MR. KAY. Plan in Vogue at Minnesota Institution Held as Example of Possible Profits. SALEM, Or., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Establishment of a plant to manufacture binder twine at the Oregon penitentiary is advocated by State Treasurer Kay as a result of his inspection of a twine plant operated at the Minnesota penitentiary.

Indian, Bitten by Coyote, Cured. KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—According to Dr. E. C. Bennett, the Indian Service physician at Talmage sub-agency, 50 miles northeast of here on the reservation, who was in the city today, Julia Jefferson, the Indian woman who was bitten some time ago by a rabid coyote, has been cured of the threatened attack of hydrophobia.

A Sure Way to End Dandruff. There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD. Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once. If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm...

Heavy Wind Obscures Boat. The wind was blowing so hard and the snow was falling so fast when these landings were made that the boat could not be seen after the party was 150 feet away from the shore.

Mills Will Resume. CENTRALIA, Wash., Jan. 22.—(Special.)—Following a shutdown caused by the deep snow and resulting lack of logs, the H. H. Martin Lumber Company's mill in this city resumed operations yesterday morning.

Indians Bitten by Coyote, Cured. The coyote was later killed. The Indian woman who was bitten some time ago by a rabid coyote, has been cured of the threatened attack of hydrophobia.

Prison May Make Twine. The plan is in vogue at the Minnesota institution. The establishment of a plant to manufacture binder twine at the Oregon penitentiary is advocated by State Treasurer Kay.
