

SOCIETY

Mrs. James H. Sturgis (Cecile Boyd) A Bride of Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal over the week end, returned to their home Monday.

Complimenting Mrs. Edward Morris, a bride of recent date, Miss Edith Prater was hostess Thursday for a bridge tea. Mrs. Ben C. Wing assisted the hostess and the guests were Mrs. Morris, Mrs. C. Elmore, Mrs. W. Wing, Mrs. Leslie Crocker, Mrs. Helen Gale, Miss Etna Calhoun, Miss Vera Redman, Miss Lillian Morgan, Miss Mabel Knudson, Miss Helen Saylor, Miss Grace Bingham, Miss Marguerite Paltzsch, Miss Grace Kerns, Miss Marie Bolyston and Miss Esther Ackerman, of Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris left Thursday night to make their home in Princeton, N. J., where the former has become affiliated with the Princeton Bank.

The wedding of Miss Ruth Cooper and Nathan P. Mears took place at high noon Wednesday, January 26, at the home of the bride in Underwood, Wash. The house was attractively decorated with flowers and pink and white carnations.

The bride was lovely in a tailor of midnight blue cloth, with an attractive hat of hellebore velvet. She carried a large bouquet of bride's roses, changing later for a corsage of orchids and Cecil Brunner roses.

Miss Mattie Wilson, of Hillsboro, Or., acted as maid of honor and was the bride's only attendant. She was charmingly crowned in a brown velvet suit and carried an armful of carnations and deep yellow roses.

Haddon Manners, of Underwood, acted as best man.

Solos were sung by Mr. Packard, Henry Love, both of Underwood, and Miss Wilson.

The wedding march was played by Miss Esther Zimmerman of Portland. Only the most intimate friends of the couple were present, both from Underwood and Hood River.

After the ceremony a buffet breakfast was served. Seated at the table, which was prettily decorated in yellow, were Mrs. Slade, of Hood River, and Mrs. Mann, of Underwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Mears left immediately afterward for Pasadena, where they will visit Mr. Mears' family for about six weeks. On their return they will be at home at Arrowhead, Orchard, White Salmon.

Interest now centers in the United Daughters of the Confederacy ball, which has been postponed from January 19 to Wednesday, February 2, at the Irvington Club. Tickets purchased for the original date will be accepted for Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sturgis (Cecile Boyd), the former of Pendleton and the latter of Walla Walla, were married here last week on Saturday noon and are passing part of their wedding trip in this city at Hotel Benson. They plan shortly to return to Walla Walla to make their home.

For the benefit of the Florence Crittenton Home, the officers have bought out the Heilig Theater for the opening performance February 21 of "It Pays to Advertise." Prominent matrons and maids will lend their support, and the event bids fair to be one of the season's most brilliant social functions.

St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral Junior Auxiliary will give a Japanese tea at the parish house on February 5. The hostesses will be the Guild members, who will appear in Japanese costume, and the Oriental atmosphere will prevail in every detail.

Rehearsals are now being held for the play, "Silver Threads," a Cornish folk story, which will be presented by the Drama League players on Saturday afternoon, February 5, at the Little Theater, under the auspices of the Drama League.

Miss Marion Spoeri, Who Celebrated Birthday With Dancing Party Last Week

Piper, Mrs. B. E. Tait, Mrs. H. L. Corbett, Mrs. H. R. Albee, Mrs. Bruce Stewart, Mrs. E. E. Jones, Mrs. W. S. Ott, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Julius Louissou, Mrs. David Honeyman, Mrs. John Logan, Mrs. F. E. Taylor, Mrs. Albert Schweitzer, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. F. L. Filler, Mrs. O. B. Caldwell and Mrs. A. L. Fish.

Nathan Strauss left Sunday for New York for his annual trip. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Clara Strauss, of New York, who has been making her home in this city for the past six months, at Hotel Portland.

Miss Strauss came here on account of ill-health, and she returned to New York fully recovered. During her sojourn in this city, she was frequently entertained and became quite a favorite.

One of the largest and most admirable philanthropies that Portland is asked to help and support is the Valentine tea for the benefit of the Visiting Nurse Association. This year the tea will be held in the parlors of Hotel Portland and elaborate plans have been made for the entire afternoon.

The board of the organization will receive the guests, and the entertainment features are in charge of Mrs. James B. Kerr. Mrs. A. A. Morrison will take charge of the candy table and will be assisted by a galaxy of pretty debutantes.

Waldemar Lind has consented to participate in the musical programme, which will be a feature of the hour from 4 to 5 o'clock, and Otto Wedemeyer will contribute vocal solos.

A merry informal party was given Tuesday night by Miss Helen Harmon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harmon, on Lovejoy street, about 20 of the younger belles and chialty will be danced by Miss Axa Genevieve Paget.

The officers of the association are Mrs. Robert G. Dieck, president; Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, first vice-president; Mrs. S. S. Montague, second vice-president; Mrs. S. Frank, treasurer; Mrs. H. Thunhauser, assistant; Mrs. James D. Honeyman, secretary; Mrs. E. J. Marsh, assistant.

Although invitations can only be mailed to members of the organization, owing to the large list, every one in the city who is interested in the work of the association is invited to attend. The little silk bags accompanying the invitations are to hold the contributions of the guests, and in lieu of these envelopes may be used, or the coins will find a ready receptacle without a wrapping.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Harlow are domiciled at Hotel Nortonia. Their classes will continue, however, at Hotel Multnomah, where they have been making their home.

Mrs. Waldo Avery, Jr., and children arrived last week from their home in Detroit, Mich., and will occupy the W. O. Van Schuyver home for the winter.

A fancy dress masquerade ride is being planned for the children's classes at Portland Academy for the latter part of February, the little ones' ages ranging from 8 to 13 years. The costumes are sure to be unique and in many cases most original, and the 24 little ones will execute a drill, after which there will be hurdling, races and games. An orchestra will lend a festive atmosphere to the occasion.

Mrs. E. C. Taneyhill's Current Events class will meet Tuesday, at the Wheel-don Annex, at 2:45 o'clock. Mrs. Taneyhill also has inaugurated several Lenten courses among prominent society matrons and maids, who plan to hold these meetings at the homes of one or the other of the members, serving tea and sewing during the talks. The talks will be on China, Korea, Japan and India. A class among the debutante set is also being formed for the Lenten period.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Pomeroy, 1206 Thurman street, are being felicitated upon the arrival of a daughter, born Sunday. She has been named Elizabeth. Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy have been away for some time, and have returned to make their home in Portland again.

Miss Rae Zimmerman has chosen March 1 for her wedding to Paul B. Wilson, of Madera, Cal. It will be a simple home wedding. Dr. John H. Boyd to officiate. Miss Zimmerman is being entertained with a number of small informal affairs, and next week will be especially gay with prenuptial functions for the popular bride-elect.

The lecture by Professor J. B. Horner, of the Oregon Agricultural College, before the Rose City Park Club Tuesday evening was well attended in spite of the driving snow storm. His subject was "On the Road From Jerusalem Down to Jericho" and was illustrated by more than 100 pictures taken by himself of plains, valleys, mountains and villages.

As an introduction to the evening's programme, ex-Governor T. T. Geer read several sketches from his book, "Fifty Years in Oregon," and Dean Collins' recent poem, "Snowbound," together with two by James Barton Adams, "The Willamette Climate" and "Christmas in Devil Canyon"—all Oregon productions.

This illustrated lecture by Professor Horner was delivered in Portland at the Taylor-Street Church in May, 1914, as well as in several other points in Oregon since, and is full of interest and instruction. On Tuesday evening there were many visitors from different sections of the city.

Miss Flora Jessop and Robert Owen Gentry were married Monday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jessop. The wedding was simple and attended only by members of the family. Miss Emma Wackrow was maid of honor and William Jessop attended the bridegroom. Music was provided by Mrs. J. J. McDonald on the violin, accompanied by Miss Flavia McDonnell at the piano.

The bride wore a white satin gown adorned with lace and pearls. Her full-length veil was fastened by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a silver lace-trimmed pink satin gown and carried pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Latz will leave for San Francisco shortly to attend the wedding of their son, S. M. Latz, to Miss Irene Lazarus, of Cincinnati, which takes place on February 6 at the Fairmont Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ewing, of Illinois, are at the Benson for a few days. Mrs. Ewing will remain for a visit with Mrs. C. W. Huggins, 1901 Franklin street, who will entertain in her honor Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. C. B. Baker also will entertain in her honor Saturday afternoon with several tables of bridge.

In celebration of the anniversary of Miss Marion Spoeri's birthday her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spoeri, were hosts for a delightful dance at the Wheel-don Annex ballroom.

The ballroom and all appointments were of a yellow decorative scheme and the honor guest was attired in a gown of yellow tulle and carried a bouquet of jonquils and violets.

A feature of the evening was the "leap year" dance, several other specialties also making the evening most specially merry. About 50 young folk enjoyed the delightful affair.

One of the interesting activities of the Portland Heights Club this winter has been the community dancing classes, which have been conducted by the club management under the direction of Miss Jean Wold. The adult class, which meets on Wednesday evenings, is just entering on their second course of lessons in modern ballroom dancing. Following the lesson there is an hour of informal dancing, which is greatly enjoyed by those who attend.

This class, which has been largely attended, is composed of residents from various parts of the Heights. The advanced class for children will begin a new course on Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. The children, in addition to the regular dances of the winter, are taking up the study of the old English country dances.

The beginners' class also meets Wednesday afternoon at 3:15. The children are learning to dance to the old rhymes of "Mother Goose."

Ludwig Pokorney has taken apartment at Hotel Benson for the balance of the winter. He has been living in Hotel Multnomah.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Russell entertained at dinner Thursday at the Nortonia Hotel.

John Ker entertained at dinner at the Nortonia Wednesday.

The Loyal Legion and the alumnae of St. Mary's Academy and College are planning an informal party of cards and dancing for Friday, February 18, at Cathedral Hall.

something that will long be remembered.

Edward Sammons, Charles McDonald and Frederick Newell have been appointed to assist the regular members of the entertainment committee for the coming affair. Decorations featuring the club's colors, red and white, will be prominent, and four or five maids will be in attendance for the women.

The unwritten law of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, whereby flowers are prohibited at the formal affairs, will be strictly enforced at Thursday's dance. Dancing will be at 8:30 P. M. The present entertainment committee completes its year of service a week from tomorrow night, when the annual meeting of the club will be held in the clubrooms. New committees and chairmen will be appointed.

Miss Verna Weaver entertained the Phi Beta Phi Fraternity Thursday at the regular monthly meeting at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. H. DeGolyer, in Irvington. At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. George B. Guthrie, a sister Phi Phi, who has moved to Portland, gave an informal talk on her social service work in Chicago. Miss

POPULAR MATRON VISITING HERE RECENTLY.

Mrs. C. J. Wellman, of San Francisco.

Mrs. C. J. Wellman visited here as the guest of Mrs. J. N. Dezen, 4017 DuPont street, where she was informally entertained. She left last week for her home.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST

Captain Robert S. Knox and Mrs. Knox Friday evening informally entertained at dinner Lieutenant Torrey B. Maghee and Mrs. Maghee, Lieutenant Guy I. Rowe and Lieutenant Clyde R. Elsenhardt.

Captain John H. Page, Jr., and Mrs. Page informally entertained several dinner guests Friday evening in honor of Miss Dorothy Davenport, of San Francisco, who is visiting with a sister in Portland for a few weeks. Major James T. Dean and Captain Edmund S. Sayer, Jr., were guests.

The Post bridge tournament was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Irwin, wife of Dr. Louis Irwin.

Captain Harry A. Hegeman and Mrs. Hegeman entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of Colonel Francis H. French and Mrs. French. Their other guests were Captain Carroll E. Armistead and Mrs. Armistead, Lieutenant James B. Woolnough and Mrs. Woolnough, Lieutenant Charles C. Bennett and Mrs. Bennett, and Captain Arthur Waring. After the dinner all went to the formal hop.

Captain Lucius C. Bennett and Mrs. Bennett have returned from a three months' trip in the East.

The Post Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Peter C. Field Tuesday afternoon. The prize winners were Mrs. Murray Baldwin, Mrs. George C. Rockwell, Mrs. Carroll F. Armistead and Mrs. Margaret DuBois Waring. The club will be entertained Tuesday, February 8, by Mrs. William M. Cruikshank.

Captain Robert S. Knox and Mrs.

The Biggest Sacrifice of the Season

$15 For Suits Up to $42.50!

This is one of those Suit Sales that starts the crowd early in the morning. They are choice suits, every one—many late styles received from New York within the last few weeks. Some are fur-trimmed—others braid-trimmed and plain.

—Garment Salon, 2d Floor

Women's New Silk Umbrellas $3.95

Extra fine quality—your choice of green, National blue, purple and cardinal.

—Umbrella Dept., 1st Floor

IT'S an unusually well made, perfect fitting waist, of an extra fine quality of crepe de chine—hemstitched point yoke with shirring—set-in sleeves and new chin-chin collar and cuffs. Colors white, flesh, maize, rose and peach. Four models to choose from—one just as illustrated.

$3.95

—Waist Shop, 1st Floor

First in Style

EMPORIUM

PORTLAND'S

124-128 Sixth St., Just off Washington

First in Value

Knox entertained at dinner Saturday evening, Colonel Francis H. French and Mrs. French being honor guests. Other guests having the pleasure to be present were: Lieutenant-Colonel David J. Baker, Jr., and Mrs. Baker; Major Peter C. Field and Mrs. Field, and Captain Harry A. Hegeman and Mrs. Hegeman.

Captain Richard C. Moore and Mrs. Moore informally entertained at dinner Friday evening before the hop in honor of Miss Teal, their niece, who is visiting them. Their guests were: Miss Lillian Conaway, of Vancouver; Miss Charlotte Laidlaw and Miss Pamela Chamberlain, of Portland; Lieutenant Kimball, Lieutenant Elliott, Lieutenant Paul J. Mueller and Lieutenant Joseph T. McFarney.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A dinner party was given last week by Miss Selma Flodine at the Y. W. C. A. in honor of the Misses Mary, Virginia and Lucile Johnson, of Hood River. The evening was spent in music and singing. Those present were: Mrs. C. P. Pfleger, Miss Emmert Crossley, Miss Jessie E. Elliott, Miss Edith Brock, Miss Ann Nickel, Miss Teresa Benson and Mrs. Edward Peterson, Arthur Peterson, Edward Wise, Guy Thatcher, Pearl Payton, William Evans and Conrad J. Siebert.

Miss Ann Nickel was hostess for a party Tuesday night in honor of the Misses Mary, Virginia and Lucile Johnson, of Hood River. The evening was spent playing cards. Those present were: Miss Selma Flodine, Edith Brock, Selma Reese, Edith Moore and Guy Thatcher, Mr. Merton, Pearl Payton, William Evans and Conrad J. Siebert.

A delightful surprise party was given to Anna Hartman Thursday night by the members of her graduating class. The evening was passed in music and dancing.

(Continued on Page 4)

At the Sign of the Bear

"The Furs That She Prefers"

Most Unusual Savings

Fur Sale

Reductions Now

One-Quarter to One-Half

A woman who had purchased furs in all parts of the United States visited our sale last week and was thunderstruck at the phenomenal reductions and enthusiastic in her praise of the styles and high quality of the workmanship, which she declared "superior to the best and highest grade fur garments sold in the most exclusive New York shops."

Liebes' furs have achieved a reputation that is flattering, indeed, and, at the regular prices, are declared by experts to be the best values anywhere in the country. Come to this sale and see the Fur Suits, Fur Coats, Muffs, Neckpieces, Fur Gloves, Mitts and Children's Furs that are now selling for prices from a quarter to a half off the regular figures.

Alterations and Remodeling Now at Special Price Reductions

H. Liebes & Co.

288 Morrison St., Near Fifth, Corbett Bldg.

J. P. Plagemann, Mgr.