

Society

Miss Dorothy Weiser,
Who Was Entertained
During The Week
GROVE PHOTO

A TRIO OF THE HOSTESSES

Miss
Frances
Reagan
GROVE PHOTO

Miss Martha
Leavitt
GROVE PHOTO

(Continued From Page 2.)

Games, after which luncheon was served. The table was attractively decorated with violets. The girls were attired in their graduating dresses. Among those present were: Eileen Hulit, Grace Evans, Rose Henderson, Ruth Emig, Muriel Alderson, Jennie Kling, Dorothy Miller, Gladys Gulverson, Signe Sandstrom, Anna Hartman, Rufus Benson, Carroll Burton, Albert Etchells, Fred Fesse, George Ritter, Melville Bush and LaVerne Severance. Miss Hartman expects to enter Jefferson High School.

Miss Florence Tatham was a charming hostess for a card party at her home on Portland Heights, Tuesday night, entertaining the Phi Pi Psi sorority and a few other guests. As a surprise and delightfully entertaining feature, Miss Dorothy Frazier, a talented violinist, favored with a few selections and Miss Mary McConnell with a solo, accompanied by violin and piano.

Supper was served, after which the guests enjoyed dancing. Among those present were: Misses Dorothy Frazier, Florence Jacobson, Mary Packwood, Helen Rose, Katherine Erdner, Mary McConnell, Marian Sporer, Helen Wilson, Selma Kropp, Hortense Ballin, Alice Billington, Marie Thatcher, Inez Radell, Olive Sullivan and Mrs. Frances Hayes Hoostrat.

Tuesday night Gordon Granger Post and Corps gave a surprise party to Mr. Covey, commander of the post. Cards and dancing were indulged in and refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarke Hall, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Bell, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Severance, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Zena, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Behrens, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Van Horn, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Covey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cramon, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Armstrong, Mesdames Hattie Erickson, M. A. Allen, Marie Gould, Verne Murrell, Mary E. Carson, Carrie Nash, Edith Owen, Thaxter Reed, Misses Grace Morris, Jessie Carson, Myrtle and Susan Nash.

Miss Melba Reagan

Messrs. T. B. McDewitt, J. J. Hughes and M. D. Green.

One of the pleasant events of the week was a luncheon and "500" party given by Mrs. P. F. Clodius at her beautiful home in Walnut Park.

Those present were: Mrs. Rosetta McKennitt, Mrs. Sadie Swan, Mrs. Carrie Brownell, Mrs. Zona Hershey, Mrs. Marion Graf, Mrs. Marie Langley, Mrs. Julia Stevens, Mrs. Julia Voss, Mrs. Ella Lombard, Mrs. Susie Lemison, Mrs. Helen Lamar, Mrs. Lena Moore, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Zimmer, Mrs. Helen Otto, Mrs. Louise Luther, Mrs. Ida Townsend, Mrs. Martha Howell, Mrs. Hattie Clairmore, Miss Elsie Clodius, Miss Clara Moore, Miss Julia Clodius. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Hattie Clairmore, Mrs. Carrie Brownell and Mrs. Helen Lamar.

Mrs. C. B. Handy and Mrs. Hugo Kerbie were hostesses for the regular Tuesday afternoon card party at the Laurelhurst Club last Tuesday. Prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. Dave Campbell and Mrs. H. N. Smith; in "500" by Mrs. Parcell and Mrs. F. D. Weber. The next party will be held Tuesday, February 8. Mrs. N. G. Pike and Mrs. P. K. Wober will be hostesses. The members of the orchestra and their wives enjoyed a jolly supper Monday night at the Laurelhurst Club. The orchestra is composed of club members who are giving their services to the club, and it is seldom that the

was the inspiration for an enjoyable party given by Mrs. Mabel C. Wortendyke of the Hawthorn Apartments, on Wednesday. A buffet supper was served. To the bride was presented a mahogany Colonial clock and hand-painted bridebook. Those who attended were: Mrs. Mabel C. Wortendyke, Mrs. Dan Craig and the Misses Gertrude Custer, Dorothy Fox, Catherine, Elizabeth Krieger, Ethel Mathieu, Vera Mendall, Violet Grayson and Miss Feltner.

Mrs. Walter Pfander entertained at a farewell luncheon Monday afternoon, January 24, at her home on East Everett street, for her sister, Mrs. James Thelander, of Aberdeen, Wash. The table was daintily appointed with yellow-shaded candles and a basket of daisies and violets. Two tables for "500" were arranged, honors falling to Mrs. J. M. Peters. The guests included Mrs. J. Clemens, Mrs. A. H. Hand, Mrs. C. D. Porter, Mrs. F. H. Holm, Mrs. J. M. Peters, Mrs. C. H. Gilbert, Mrs. James Thelander, Miss Leona Clemens and the hostess.

The committee members of the university hop and their friends were entertained with a stepping party Wednesday evening at Muriark ballroom. The affair was well attended. The party will announce their coming dance on February 4.

The graduating classes of the St. Johns Central School celebrated with a farewell party at the home of Idris Welner, 303 East Burlington street, Thursday evening. Thirty-two members of both classes attended the party and played games. Refreshments were served, closing the festivities.

An enjoyable party was given at the home of Julie McCarthy Saturday evening. The house was decorated artificially with palms and ferns. Dancing was the chief diversion after which a buffet supper was served. Those present were: Andrea Watkins, Louise Gallien, Elba Baker, Hazel Peters, Gladys Watkins, Eva Levin, Gladys Pearson, Stella Rimmer, Jeannette Frank, Frank Coulter, Andrew Demint, Glen Williams, Roy Slough, James Bell, Max Hewitt, Warren Kaley and Churchill Cook.

Officers and guards of Portland Review, No. 7, were entertained with a card party Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. Clarke, 847 East Fifty-first street.

The officers and guards of Portland Review, No. 7, will hold their regular drill Tuesday in Masonic Temple at 1 o'clock.

The Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers will hold a banquet at the Imperial Hotel February 14, 6:30 P. M., the anniversary of the admission of Oregon as a state, which passed the Senate February 12 and was consummated by President James Buchanan on February 14, 1859.

Mrs. James Elliott, of 7327 Fifty-sixth avenue Southeast, entertained with a dinner party Tuesday in honor of Mrs. N. Wagner. Covers were laid for nine.

COMING EVENTS.

Many young people are eagerly awaiting the second dance of the "university hop," which will be given Friday night at the Muriark ballroom. The committee is working hard to make it one of the best dances of the season. Composing the committee are Irving Miles, Stanton Lapham, Lucile Brown, Leonard Oliver, Louise Thomas, Hugh McKenna, Alice McGreevy, Eugene McEntee, Blanche Strong, Mike Block, Art Mahoney, Mary Stanton, Al Bennett, Florence Crawford, Hugh McKenna, Mrs. T. M. Brown and Mrs. Sydney Cryser.

The Muriark under the direction of residents of Rose City Park will give the ninth of a series of delightful dancing parties in Muriark ballroom Saturday evening. These parties are steadily growing in popularity among the older dancing set. Invitations and membership cards have been mailed in the past week to friends of the club members. A feature of each party is the favoring of the old as well as the new dances to the time of the latest dance music. The reception committee is: Messrs. and Mesdames B. M. Satterfield, H. Y. Carpenter, LeRoy J. Abbott, Jay W. Stevens and Wilmer J. Condit. Entertainment committee: Dr. B. E. Loomis, A. Mansfield Himes, Earl L. Jenks, Eva Nickerson, Margaret Glutich, Walter Christensen and George E. Love.

The G. N. C. B. committee consisting of new and enthusiastic workers has made preparations for many new and novel features for the annual ball, to be informal, Tuesday night at Cottillion hall. A serpentine battle will be a feature. An unusual display of decorations and a new programme will make the evening notable.

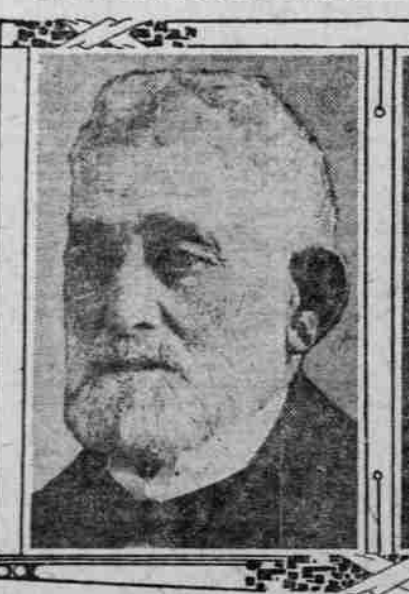

Members and committee are: Eva Cook Vinton, Gertrude Lucke, Pearl Ryman, Joe Gumbert, Cherry Cowie, Merle Young, Ruth Lind, Cora Walker, Elizabeth Ott, Grace Dorney, Blanche Granson, Florence Woods, Hazel Fasset, Sam Baker, Karl Fudger, Dick Mullen, Ralph Maris, Earl Cash, Harold Webster, William A. Rhodes, E. J. Vinton, A. A. Hall, Maxine McDonald, Pearl LaForge.

The first St. Valentine's stepping party of the 1916 season will be given under the auspices of the Cadalens at Christensen's Hall Friday night. Attractive invitations, suggestive of the Saint, have been issued. Dancing will be at 8:45 o'clock.

Following are the patronesses and committee in charge: Mrs. G. B. Jones, Mrs. T. J. Brandt, Mrs. H. J. Taylor and Mrs. Walter Williams; M. E. Pitman, Eugene W. Belland, William Gregory, Jack Leary, Charles L. Kelsay, R. J.

LaForge.

CORVALLIS COUPLE PASS SIXTIETH MILESTONE TOGETHER.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yates

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Since Monday Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yates, of this city, have been receiving the felicitations of many friends who called to congratulate them on having passed the sixtieth milestone of married life. Joseph Yates and Martha Robinson were married in Lincoln County January 24, 1856. Mrs. Yates has been a resident of the state since 1847, when, at the age of 10 years, and barefooted, she drove an ox team the entire distance from Missouri to Oregon. Mr. Yates came to Oregon from Arkansas five years later.

Belland, James Downey, Walter Christensen, Stanton Lapham, Heke Campbell, Norman Jones, Dottie Probst, Pearl Dalton, Olive Rolund, Melba Regan, Lillian W. Ensor, Hazel C. Saylor, Trene Heerd, Hazel Martin and Helen Cornwell.

The choir of St. Mary's Church will give a card party and dance in Columbus Club, Williams avenue and Morris street, Thursday evening, February 19, the proceeds to be applied in paying debts incurred by purchasing necessary church music. The members of the choir are as follows: Mrs. Catherine Covach-Fredrich, director; the Misses Zita Manning, Catherine Frailey, Mae Barr, Ethel Mahony, Edna Haystead, Marie Marpet, Irene Bloch, Addie Thayer, Christie Desista, Julie Blane, Gertrude Kuna, Gertrude Hogan, Esther Hogan, Julia Burke and Messrs. Scott Kent, Ed Darby, F. Tomlinson, Wilfrid Darby, E. Louis Fredrich, F. Ponto, Tot Manning, Cyril Manning.

The Maxilians next party will be given in Muriark ballroom Tuesday evening, February 8. Plans are under way to make this party a notable one for clubbom. Invitations will soon be issued by the following committee: Ray Toomy, Claude Kemp, Albert Harvie, George E. Love, Leon Bullier, Stanley Haslett, Arthur Sholin, Clarence Whitlock, Billie Easer, George Maimstedt, Edith Miller, Hazel Durkin, Florence O'Brien, Billie Garretson, Margaret Harvey, Edith Krause, Rose Spieser, Ethel Hawkins, Zeta Ausman and Buelah Rhodes.

The members of the Woman's Benefit Association of the Macabees, forming the Ladies of the Macabees of the World, of this city will unite in a grand social evening and reception to the new department state commander, Mrs. Margaret Herren, Thursday evening, in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Herren took charge of all the work of the association in the past year. She will still be in charge of the city work. Every member of the association residing in the city is urged to be present.

The Oregon Agricultural College Club, of this city, has completed arrangements for a big time college dance to take place at Muriark ballroom Wednesday evening, February 9. Invitations will be issued soon to members of the various schools and colleges and plans are on hand to make this party the most enjoyable event of the season among Portland's college people. The committee will be announced later.

The universal hop will be given Friday evening in Muriark ballroom. Following is the committee: Irving Miles, Marian Sporer, Ray Malar, Madeline Brown, Stanton Lapham, Lucile Brown, Leonard Oliver, Louise Thomas, Hugh McKenna, Alice McGreevy, Eugene McEntee, Blanche Strong, Mike Block, Art Mahoney, Mary Stanton, Al Bennett, Florence Crawford, Hugh McKenna, Mrs. T. M. Brown and Mrs. Sydney Cryser.

A delightful dance was given by the Frolickers at the Social Turnverein Thursday night. Arrangements are being made to hold another affair at the same place some time late next month. The patronesses and committee in charge of the last dance were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Riech, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hochuli, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. Pfander, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Sturdevant, Emma Roy, Pauline Heinz, Lottie Nichol, Marie Winn, Margaret Glutich, Louise Glutich, Angeline Abbott, Ethel O'Brien, Alice Schmale, Ethel Hale, Louise Royer, Alma Gumbert, Riech, Rosa Klein and Lena Schmidt.

All is in readiness for the first of a series of dances to be given by the Columbia Park football team at Kenton clubhouse, Tuesday night. Carl Munson is chairman of the entertainment committee, and the ballroom will be artistically decorated with green and white, the team's colors. The entertainment committee is composed of Carl Munson, chairman; Ted Murphy, Ray Duley, Robert Walcott, Leo Crowe, George Yost, "Red" Watts, Gordon Parker, "Peg" Poff, "Beanie" Brownell, Paul Naugle, Clyde J. Rupert, Harley Hall and Harold Trumbull.

The "La Hea" Club is making preliminary arrangements for its leap year Valentine party to be given Monday evening, February 14, in Hibernia Hall, 340 Russell street. The committee is sparing no efforts to make this one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.

The musical that was to have been given at the Rose City Park Club on next Tuesday night has been postponed for a few weeks and in its stead will be a "get together" of all club members and friends on that night which will be devoted to cards, dancing and other amusements. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christensen will have charge of the programme.

The Portland Rowing Club will give its next informal dancing party Tuesday night, February 1, instead of Thursday, the regular scheduled date for these parties. The committee is composed of David Cooper, Edward Humphrey, William Gregory, Robert Yettick, Stanley Boquist and Joseph Rlesch.

The Cottillion Hall assemblies Wednesday and Saturday evenings under the direction of Montrose M. Ringler are proving popular and delightful parties. During the evening a number of "sandy dances" are featured and a programme of the old dances as well as the new make these affairs enjoyable.

Officers and guard of Queen Elizabeth Hive will meet Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Martha Smith, 252 Cooke avenue.

A midwinter carnival will be given by Martha Washington Social Club in

THE LAST WEEK OF Atiyeh Bros. OFFICIAL ORIENTAL RUG EXHIBIT

as shown at the Turkish Pavilion and Palace of Varied Industries, opens tomorrow, Monday morning, at 9 o'clock.

Everything, without reservation, is being offered at 1/3 TO 1/2 OFF!

All classes—collectors, dealers, admirers of real Oriental beauty, art lovers of modest means—are demonstrating by attendance that they fully appreciate the unusual character and importance of this exhibit and sale of Oriental Rugs which won the Grand Prize and Gold Medal, and which is valued at $250,000.00, including an imperial Ispahan prayer rug priced at $18,000.00.

All are cordially welcome. If you failed to see this exhibit at the Exposition you should make an extraordinary effort to visit it. It is an opportunity that may never again present itself.

Come early and often—buy or not, just as you like. The "Atiyeh Guarantee" removes the element of doubt that often accompanies the purchase of Oriental Rugs.

Tenth Street at Alder
Atiyeh Bros.
Largest Oriental Rug Dealers in the Northwest

the East Side Masonic Temple, East day night, January 31. A wild animal Eighth and Burnside streets, on Mon- show, the great Mexican bat, flower

What the Laurelhurst Club Has to Offer Residents:

- Comfortable and cozy clubrooms.
- Free use of billiard tables all the time.
- Free use of tennis courts in season.
- Free use of shower baths all the time.
- Monday afternoon study class for ladies.
- Tuesday night free dancing classes.
- Occasional University Extension Lecture Courses.
- Free use of over forty (40) different periodicals and reading-room.
- Proper social environment for members and their children.
- Weekly party alternating cards and dances on Friday nights.
- Eighteen-piece orchestra on dance nights.
- Checkers, chess and cards, without gambling, all the time.
- A place to spend your evenings without spending your money for accessories.
- An opportunity to entertain your friends at the club house, except Friday nights. No charge, except when you desire exclusive use of clubhouse. Free use of club kitchen and dishes for members and their guests.

Why not make this YOUR Club home?
PAUL C. MURPHY, Sales Agent for

Laurelhurst
"The Addition of Beautiful Homes"
Main Office 270 1/2 Stark St. Main 1503. A 1515