

THE Apolio Club male chorus man-T agement has decided on Tuesday night, February 8, as the date for the club's next concert at the Hellig Theater, with Miss Myrtle Ashby, lyric

A. B., dean of the school of music, is, with his 12 assistants, doing a big work for the state. He is not only busy every day but in the evenings as well. He is director of the men's glee club, of the girls' glee club, of the Eugene Philharmonic Chorus of 125 mixed voices, of the choir which sings at vesper services Sundays, and is also the head of the vocal department, This heard to advantage in four gypy songs.

the head of the vocal department, This vesper choir recently gave a splendid performance of the 'St. Cecella Mass (Gounod). "At the head of the plano department is John J. Landsbury, Mus. B., Mus. Dr., who is also head of the classes in har-mony, etc. I had the pleasure of hav-ing Mr. Landsbury as my accompanist, in Eugene, at my request, having heard of his splendid musicianship from a fellow musician who knew him in the East. He is a finished artist and it was a pleasure to sing with him. Both Mirs. The Busches, at my request, having heard of his splendid musician who knew him in the Rast. He is a finished artist and it was a pleasure to sing with him. Both Mir, Chapman and myself were enthusiastic to the work of the university or chestra, which played for the Philhar transments for her recital to be given soon, when she will present her own on, when she will present her own on the work of the university or the philhar transments for her recital to be given soon, when she will present her own soon, when she will present her own of the work of the university or the heart of the work of the university or the heart of the violin department in the unit transments. Muss Bornes has certain as a company near the heart of the ordinate of the recital sease and the line transments of her ordination of the theory played two numbers at the sacrod context will be producted and recital seasemble of the faculty, and musician the binotic lagageant which is to be given by the university in June. The montes are a context will be produced under the direction of the school of music is greatly interested in the first of series of violin and piano recitals and ther of the example of the factures of the programme of ascred music will be programme of sudents in the first of series of work at the binomeske' of Dvorak played two and recalled. President of music is the dimone difference of the recitation. The montes is the dimone of the programme of sudents in the first of series of work at the bome of Mrs. Less the recitation of the school music is the example of Dvorak played two and breact at the of the programme of ascred music will be a short music programme of ascred music will be anounced later.
The Montes Musical Club will be programme of ascred music will be a short music programme of ascred music will be anounced later.
The Montes Musical Club will be from the season.
The Montes Musical Club will be from the season.
The Montes Musical Club will be from the season.
The M

Mrs. Ella Connell Jesse will present Joyle and Carl Dahl in plano recita Saturday. 2:30 P. M. at 505 Ellers building. Miss Bertha Serr, contralto, student of Hartridge Whipp, will as-Joyle and Carl Dahl in pinno restain Saturday. 2:30 P. M. at 505 Ellers building. Miss Bertha Serr, contraito student of Hartridge Whipp, will as-sist. Members of the Glee Club, the men's musical organization of the Oregon Agricultural College, and the Madrigal Club, the young women's singing club are preparing enthusiastically for the presentation of the Gibert-Sullivan opera, "Mikado," March 24 at the women's gymnasium has been fitted with a new stage and properties, mak-ing an audience-room capable of hold-ing 1400 people. This performance of "Mikado" will be the first musical play to be produced upon this stage and the production will be participated in by 69 people. Japanese "atmosphere" will be added to the occasion by real Japanese who are members of the chorus. The O. A. C. orchestra (20 pleces), under the general direction of William Frederic Gaskins, director of the school of music.

DE GOGORZA makes records only for the

EMILIO DE GOGORZA, the eminent baritone, who will sing at the Heilig Theater Sunday afternoon, February 6, makes records only for the Victor-you should have at least one of these fine DE GOGORZA records:

Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes (Ben Jonson) 74077

Lina-Chanson Napolitaine (in French)

..... (Symiane) 64101 O Sole Mio (My Sunshine!) (Neapolitan Folk Song) (di Capua) 64136

Paloma, La (The Dove) (in Spanish) ... (Yradier) 74379 Pipes of Pan (Adrian Ross-Edward Elgar) 74438

Tannhauser-O du mein holder Abendstern

Trovatore-Il balen (Tempest of the Heart)

Steinway Pianos Used at De Gogorza Concerts

SIXTH AND MORRISON, OPPOSITE POSTOFFICE.

completing a remarkable quartet in a performance at Covent Garden, London. Since that time she steadily has grown as an artist. There are five daughters in the family of Homer, the youngest less than a year old. The beautiful mother of the five has somehow man-aged to belong to her roles and her children, too. As a result, Madame Homer is held in a personal esteem that is all her own.

Miss Theodora Bushnell sang "Com Unio Me" (Pinsuti), at Clinton Kelly M. E. Church last Sunday Miss Bush-hell has a pleasing contralto voice.

Albert Creitz, violinist, played at the Fourth Congregational Church last Fri-day night at a benefit recital, and was cordially received.

Miss Hazel Hardle and Miss Maude Ragon were the soloists for the Mental Culture Club concert, held at the home of Mrs. Woodham, last Wednesday night. 4 4 4

The Mignon trio, composed of Mrs. Ella Hoberg Tripp, Elizabeth Johnson and Verne Flanders, sang with success recently for the Portland Ad Club at the Multhomah Hotel, and lant Tuesday night at the Sellwood Young Men's Christian Association.

Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed received a Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed received a perfect ovation on her appearance at the lecture given last Monday night by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher at the White Temple, Mrs. Reed responded to a rousing recall with Novello's "The Dainty Damozel." Oscar Laurence Woodfin was plano accompanist Mrs. Reed was in spland voice and same Reed was in splendid voice and sang with new spirit and sparkling vocal-ism.

Philip Bennyan, baritone, and one of the principals who same recently with the Lambardi Opera Company at the Baker Theater in this city, starring in the prologue of "Pagliacci," same re-cently at Acolian Hall, New York City, He was inuded on this occasion as a single who has "a noverful barrings singer who has "a powerful baritone voice of perfect quality."

The Impresario-Certain, madam, I can supply you with a second prima donna to sing your children to sleep. But you sing so perfectly yourself soprano, as the assisting soloist, Among the active members of the club the opinion seems to be that This ming concert will be fully up forthe to any previous concert, both in the quality of work to be done by the club and in the interesting variety of numbers to be offered. With the one ex-ception of Grieg's "Landsighting" (which the club sang several years igo), all the selections are new to Port-

Accord all the selections are new to Port-land audiences. Among other chorus compositions to appear upon the programme are: "Carpathian Folk Song" (Stair), which fairly burns with its Slavic fire and intensity: "Wake. Mias Lindy" (War-ner), an irresistible negro love song, which is even better than "Mammy's Lullaby" (so popular at the last con-cert); the well-known and beloved "Schubert's Serenade": a group of two short numbers, "Off in the Stilly Night' and "Harp of Tarin," in which the club will supply a beautiful humming ac-companiment to the barlione solo voice. Mass Myrtie Ashby, lyrie soprano, will make her initial appearance before a Portland audience with the Apolio Schubert's Serenade i a group of two short numbers. Off in the Stilly Night' and "Harp of Tara," in which the club will supply a beautiful humming ac-companiment to the barlione solo voice. Miss Myrtle Ashby, tyrie soprano, will make her initial appearance before a Portland audience with the Apolio Club as sponsor. Miss Ashby's voice and art are woll and favorably known to Chicago music-lovers. Following her recent concert appearance in Se-attle, it was conceded that she has a most remarkable voice, coupled with her ability to so beautifully and artistic-ribute two numbers to the Apolio pro-tribute two numbers to the Apolio pro-gramme, one aris and a group of charming folk songs. DE GOGORZA SINGS FEB. 4.

DE GOGORZA SINGS FEB. 4. The popularity of De Gogorza, the Spanish baritone, who comes to the Heilig for a Sunday afternoon concert February 5, direction of Steers & Comma is due to the The sum of the second state and the second state of the second state secon Gogorna is so fine an artist that one can submit his art to acid test. He is no "linished" singer; for one knows instinctively that he will be a student and a creator as long as he lives. I do not know when I enjoyed a recital as much as I enjoyed the one of yes terday afternoon, but I do know that this engaging artist has a niche in the temple of my affections alongside that best-beloved of all the singers whom it has ever been ug happiness to hear. Claude Gilibert." has ever been Claude Gillberi.

would have to be paid, a sum of about $75. Services of the ushers would be donated. The stage employes of the Heilig will meet the officials of their

Mise Anna Fitziu, soprano, a new prima donna, stars at the Metropolitan Grand Orepa House. New York City, in the Spanish opera "Goyescas." Mrs. Herman A. Politz soprano; will be presented in a students' recital by Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed, at the Heilig Theater, in Marki trade union February 8 to ask permis-

HOME OPERA PLANNED. The Portland Opera Company has been launched, and plans are now in process of consummation to place it on successful business and artistic basis. a successful business and artistic basis. Another meeting of the opera com-pany, composed entirely of Portland musicians, will be held at the Fortland Library Tuesday night. A wise choice has been made of Ralph W. Hoyt as president. Mr. Hoyt Raiph W. Hoyt as president. Mr. Hoyt is an educated musician and also an experienced business man. For several years he was the leading spirit in the Portland Rose Festival, and his name is well known throughout the United States. He is organist of the First Unitarian Church, and his friends are instead.

Chadar Gribbert.
 STATE MUSICIANS CONFER.
 At the last meeting of the Portiand Musicians Club preliminary action was taken looking to the formation of an Oregon state music teachers' associa-tion.
 Nearly all of the other Western states have similar associations, and it is felt music relationship among the teachers of all
 Madam Jeanne Jeanne Jomelli will donate her services to sing the part of Juliet
 Madam Jeanne Jeanne Jomelli will donate her services to sing the part of Juliet
 Madam Jeanne Jeanne Jeanne Jeanne Jomelli will donate her services to sing the part of Juliet trade union February 8 to ask permis-sion to donate their services. The mu-alcians in the orchestra will ask their trade union tomorrow night for permis-sion to donate their services. It is promised that no charge will be made for the use of stage costumes. The committee in charge of the de-table of this benefit merformmers will
 Madam Jeanne Je

. . .

 \bigcirc

The present month's programme for The present month's programme to the mon at Scadding House was given by Mrs. Elizabeth Stowers, Mrs. J. B. Adams, Mrs. Walter Bliss, Miss Dor-othy Bliss, Miss Jocelyn Foulkes and R. D. Searcy.

Master Colen Marks, a clever plano student, 8 years old, made his first re-cital appearance last Monday night un-der direction of Mrs. S. A. Chase, and he was heartily applauded. His solo was "In Deuo," and he was accom-panist in a violin solo by Homer Mil-ier.

At the home of George Moss, an elig-At the home of George Moss, an elis-ible young bachelor, near Tangent, Or., an interesting musicale was held re-cently, J. R. Crews assisted Mr. Moss in receiving and Mrs. Crews was hostess, assisted by Miss Edith Cooper and Miss Floga Simons, the latter being a member of the Chi Omega Sorority.

Miss Mary Schultz, violin soloist, will play the Mozart "Konserto." with or-chestra accompaniment, at the concert of the Portland Amateur Orchestra So-clety February 10 at the Masonic Tem-ple Auditorim, with William Wallace Orcheam as conductor Graham as conductor.

The Harmony Choral Club will give a concert tomorrow night at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Albina and Killings-worth avenues, under the auspices of Security Council, No. 236. Knights and Ladies of Security. In addition to ducts and soles, the programme will include the "Securit' from "Luci" and a can-tata with a chorus of 25 voices. The chorus will be directed by Mrs. Ella Hobere Triup, who is prominent is Gounod opera, "Romeo and Juliet," at the Heilig, amounts to about $500, Ac-counts of recepts and expenditures have not yct been balanced, so the ex-act amount of the deficit cannot be de-termined at this writing, but will be known in a day or two. Singers who took part in the operatic productions wish to give another per-formance in about three weeks' time at the Heilig to get enough money in the box office not only to pay the $100 deficit but to give the Baby Home a handsome contribution—if the pub-

Toward the end of February Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons will be presented in recital by Gio L. Tahileri. MUSIC NOTES. Miss Anna Fitzin, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York City, is described as a young woman with a glorious volce and more than her share of good looks. Miss Fitzin replaced Lucrezia Bori, the Spanish prima doma, at the Metro-politan, in the Spanish opera "Goyes-cas."

The Prima Donna Assoluta-But my singing is worth $5000 a night, and I couldn't think of squandering that amount on the children-Houston Chronicle.

CAROLINE SHINDLER RULAND VOICE AND PIANO. Pupil of Trabadelo Bourgeois, Carelli and Charles Leo Sparks. 614 Ellers Bldg.

Let Quality, Price and Service Guide in Your Piano Purchase

Neither Quality, Price nor Service alone should dictate the purchase of your piano. Separately they may mislead. Combined. Quality-Price-Service present a fortification which safeguards against unwise purchases and future disappointment.

QUALITY with us Stands for Good Pianos. The products of factories noted for the character of their goods, the sterling worth, the mechanical and musical excellence of every instrument on our floors.

PRICE, in our stores, combined with Quality, insures that the piano you select may be purchased at the lowest figure allowable in modern merchandising. The same figure that you would pay-save for the addition of Eastern freight-on the floors of its manufacturers.

SERVICE means the proper care and consideration of your piano or player piano in the years that follow its purchase. In Service, as in Quality and Price, our stores offer satisfaction far in excess of your expectation.

Your Money's Worth or Your Money Back

Other Stores-San' Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, San Jose, Los Angeles, San Diego, and other Coast cities.