SCHOOL NEWS FOR MOTHERS, FATHERS, TEACHERS AND PUPILS

New Term Gets Under Way Briskly, but Storm Gives Unexpected Vacation-Honor Roll Continues and New Names Appear.

Jefferson High Jinks Party to Be Remembered Long.

Technical Club Turns Laws of Physics to Good Account in Fun Programme—Scalar Prim Is Big Event, Too-Live Wires Prepare to Ellert.

quentity in refreshments.

The programme included such inter- and evening grosbeak, exting events as a ple-cating contest, thich Robert Curry won, although hard pressed by Paul Blanchard, Mr. Eastham, of the physics department, gave an exhibition of some of the laws of ated a great deal of entirement.

The senior prom, was one of the most successful of its kind ever given. The basketball boys were run out of the gravanium early, to give ample time for decreating and preparing the floor. Streamers of the class colors from the gravanium of the class colors will be to the class colors will be to the class of 80. The larger part of the class will enter college in the Fall, and some have stready entered Reed.

The back exchange conducted by the

The Pi Dulta Epsilon held a very interesting and successful party at the home of Lloyd Carter. In the neighborhood of $2 were present, and all emiered into the spirit and enthusiness with a gusto. Lloyd Curier, tonatrosater, had arranged an excellent programme, in which Wilbur Carl was the guilty victim of an amusing mock trial. The initiation of new members was next in order, and a series of original stunts was required of prospective megabers. The success of the party can easily be estimated by the grims and knowing winks of the members whenever the affair is mentioned. Refreshments were served, and the members adjourned. In a recent meeting the Pi assembly hall of Mount Tabor School Notes. ever the affair is mentioned. Refreshments were served, and the members adjourned. In a recent meeting the Pi assembly hall of Mount Tabor School Deltas elected new afficers for the Coming term: Lloyd Carter was elected president; Kenneth Lancefield, vice-president; Kenneth Lancefield, vice-president; Curtis McKinney, secretary, Malloyd Carter was elected by the pupils of the ninth B class. The playlet consisted of two as recordable for all track. Students fail and entertaining programms.

The play was directed by the teachstrowing line paper hither and you about the school. These bears, it is believed, will dispense with this habit and improve the neathers in appearance. However, the bears are not leaving the carebaumens. All the bears are designed in see that no paper is realised in see that no paper is realised in the students. The play was directed by the teachers, will dispense with this habit and improve the neathers in appearance. However, the bears are not leaving the carebaumens. All the bears are doubling in see that no paper is realised for the senior to force the faunce should to ever that no paper is realised for the senior to force the faunce should to ever hereous necessary.

However, little trundly is expected, as each box is very completed a fail and entertaining programms.

The play was directed by the teachers in order to see the pride of the sommunity, the new Franklin Hish Chool structure, heavy given in Mount Tabor School. Geneview Graham made an attractive our delightful Princillar Madalene Cappa, a beautiful gypay girl. Others who despends on the whole lower as being an about in each of the whole lower as being heavy girl. Others who despends to the whole lower as being heavy girl. Others who despends to our heavy given in Mount Tabor Barbin, and Marjon Hank, as heaviling programms.

Last Thursday afterneon, February 2, students braved the storm in order to see the juride of the sommunity, the new Franklin Hish Chool structure, heavy given in Mount Tabor Barbin, and margin the total case the pride of the sommunity, the new Franklin Hish Chool structure, and was the play of the local structure. In our delightful Princillar Madalene Cappa, a beautiful grappy girl. Others who despends to see the juride of the storm in order to our delightful Princillar Madalene Cappa, a beautiful grappy girl. Others who despends to the whole lower as the foot of the wall.

On account of the drifting snow in Hall the princ corners. Each bea is painted blue and patriots and two well-rendered songs, sold, with "J. H. H." on one side and "The Heautiful Blue Columbia" and "June '18" on the other. These 16 boxes are to be scattered about the campus full and entertaining programme.

creased diring the coming wash. To this reception the parents will be in-vited along with the papits and will be econtred through the healding by the cellent. The material is well written and well arranged The February class and the Jefferson printing department about short bound shore bonnes of material and workmanship. The class Spectrum is exceptional and in description of the black Planck. otional and is deserving of the ut-

Live wire election comes next week, and the majority of the students already are beginning to select room supplied with various kinds of food.

which has attracted large numbers of SENIORS OF BENSON POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL ENJOY SLEIGH RIDE. the feathered visitors, which have been most interesting to watch. Feeding places in the bone yards have brought other feathered friends under observation, while every tree clump passes un-der inspection for a dodging wood-pecker, a quick-flitting kinglet or some flash of color that will betray a "new bird." Up to date the birds included on the lists of the classes above men-BY MACLEOD MAURICE.

D'URING the closing week of school the most important occurrences were the Technical Club high jinks and the senior prom. The high jinks and the senior prom. The high jinks and the senior prom. The high jinks without exception the most entertaining event of the term. For this party the adminishing fee is 5 cents such, which entitles the individual to a rousing programms and quality and quantity in refreshments.

Winter wan, Vigors ween, fileker, barrier woodpecker, Cairdner's woodpecker, Stellar's bluefay, guidencrowned linglet, raby-crowned kinglet and evening groebeak.

Washington High Notes

MY MILDRED WEEKS.

physics, which began to pall on one's credulity. The Kenin brothers, Herman and Harry, rendered several selections so the visitin and plane.

The faculty give club entertained with some songs. Mr. Scott, of the chemistry department, gave a chemical demonstration of the action of acids and bases on a litture indicator, turning it to blue and to red repeatedly. The boys' symmasium classes gave exhibitions of turnbling and several well-granized pyramides. Two wrestling events closed the programme and created a great deal of customent.

The senior prum, was one of the laboratories and the symmasium were and symmastics, thus not requiring the laboratories and the symmasium were the greenatium early, to give ample time for decorating and preparing the floor. Etreamers of the class colors crossed and recrossed in a perfect network were the prevailing features in decoration.

The dance itself was a success, and an excellent eliman is the careers of the members of the class of the Shington, has been of the members of the Privacy of the success of the precision and orderliness of the precision and orderliness of the precision and endering occasioned praise were the prevailed and management of the committee in charge.

The Pi Delta Epsilon held a very in-evening. A pleasant evening passed and acquaintances renewed.

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy for the entire term: Lats Cunningham, Mabel Bald-The Fubruary "14 class Spectrum in the first many fine of the most creditable annuals produced. The pictures and cits were an overed. The pictures and cits were an overed. The pictures and cits were an overed.

Milwaukie High School.

BY ROLFE W. SKULASON. in the future Milwaukie athletic teams will have some real coaching to select reem representatives as delegates to this organization. The formal hallot will dome Tousday.

James John High School

James John High School

By Farris Swisher.

January and a select reem hard the university have some treation of the University of Oregon, will teach had nuch practical experience with Eastern business firms. Miss Lenors Hansen and Miss Lucio Davis, both of the University of Oregon, will teach mathematics, and Latin and history, respectively. Miss Sallie Burns, of the University of Mississippi, will assist in the instruction of English.

James Johns High and Portland Academy.

The enruliment reached 211, Theaday, the enruliment reached 212, Theaday, the enruliment reached 213, Theaday, the enruliment reached 214 the university of the University of Oregon, will teach the University of Mississippi, will assist in the instruction of English.

Mr. Boyer, school supervisor of the University of Mississippi, will assist in the instruction of English. teams will have some real coaching.

beth Knight, Marshall Yeager, Hean Strot mer, Alica Hurns, Jason McCune, Eth Ellaworth, Harry Sue, Margaret Dillan Jack Ancety, Bertha Brownell, Violet Prit Fred Nichtl, Shirley Haron, Ellanbeth Ke ley, Ernest Markwitz, Millard Samuell, Cla

The Roll of Honor

HOLMAN. L. D. Roberts, Principal.

L. A. Wiley, Principal,

W. M. Miller, Principal.

A. Wiley, Principal,
dervingt Boacco Lace
an Josephine Cuming ham
led Dereity Hampton Porvest Norten
acnes Ruth MacDonald
ugh Edward Bradenheck
Genevieve Cunningham
an Joyes Lace
or Derothy Zeebuyth
ge Eine Millivan
John Zimmerman
Sephia Singer
h Orlind Widestrom
cabeck Edin Hampton
Dorothy Le Fevre
Claria Jowell
Eliner Heacock
See McCord.

the Methord.
Kenneth Allen
Edith McManama
Marie Petricle
Ethel Seward

cr. Principal.
Claude Cunnington
Deight Zimmermae
Margaret Pletcher
Ella Bradies
Florence Yesman
Ethel Goodheari
Frederick McGee
Ilma Jurva
Frances Rung
thought Clark
Heri Goodheart
Joe Flum
Marietta Weilman
Marietta Weilman
Marietta Weilman
Marant Addia
Vernon Marshall
Barah Callan

Relea Boon Frita Bestel Charles Dick Lucie Friedman Margaret Johnson Theodora Olson Vera Davis Henry Ence Verna Jorden Gardner Bushnell Eric Erickson Irwin Boon

Sherwood, Principal.

KENNEDY. E. T. Falting, Principal.

fred Hugnet
Louise Shn
Mabel Haldeman
Elizabeth Jenkins
Inea Johnson
Thoodore Krebs
Clarence Lidder
Edgar Pengra
Mary Hasmusson
Latherine Tierney
Easther Finn
Lullan Greny
Leuise Hitun
Frances Butzer
Madeliena Coffey
Louise Bullen orth
Harnid Engles
Lullan Krebs

Elaborate Debating System Planned for Franklin, boys, so that they may debate sep-

Mr. Kilgore's room has been unable to lecale another with an attendance of the clubs will select teams which will be pitted against each other to decide who shall represent Frankin in the interscholastic debate. The purposes of the clubs is to prepare the students for interscholastic debates are quite two and to determine by the survival of the fitted and in the students for interscholastic debates. All offers to set forth the room's meritis and to determine by the survival of the fitted and in the students for interscholastic debates. The purposes of the clubs is to prepare the students for interscholastic debates are quite two is most capable to represent the school.

At present the school which have had a monopoly on all debating, this being confined only to club members.

According to the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan ach of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the new plan each of the five clubs will be under the supervision of the f

However, little trouble is expected as each box to very complement and suggestive of its purpose and will, no doubt, prove adequate as an incentive to neutrons.

In addition, the class is proposing to give a reception to the incoming freshmen. More than the incoming freshmen. More than the freshmen have been registered in the school, which will in all probability, be increased during the coming week. To this reception the parents will be invited along with the papils and will be evening. A pleasant evening was they will celebrate Burbank day in the course of the interaction of Mr. Dewey, of O. A. C. The course of the weight of tons of fee.

The classes in agriculture, under the instruction of Mr. Dewey, of O. A. C. are looking forward to March 7, when they will celebrate Burbank day in honor of the great plant where, Luther Burbank. This day has been set aside by Mr. Churchill, State Superintendent of Public instruction, to be observed by public schools throughout the state.

Mr. Churchill, in making the announce— Mr. Churchill, in making the announce-ment of Burbank day, said. 'When farm boys learn that soil chemistry, horticulture, stock breeding and sim-liar studies require as much brain activity as do electricity, law and med-icine, and that Burbank is classed with such men as Edison, and has an in-come greater than most lawyers, they will hesitate before going to the cities to become flunkies for corporations whose managers will consider them only as so much property."

James Johns High appeared ready for work. The servicinned received Gall and Portland Academy.

The enrollment received 211. Threaday, with its increasing sterm, dainted only a small number, for 253 repeared. On Wednesday, however, the brave few who fascod the storm (not having sen the announcement in the morning graph form the door locked.

Additional panabers in the part of the part of the profits were rather small. The grind in the staff, They can sing the note but, and the morning graph form the door locked.

Additional panabers in the part of the received profits were rather small. The grind of students read a note by its location in the staff. They can sing the note but, and the profits were rather small. The grind of students read a note by its location in the staff. They can sing the note but, and the first newing classes will present The Old Made of 1915, a farce on the 15th of this month.

Additional panabers in the part of the staff of the month.

Additional panabers in the part of the profits were rather small. The grand will deveate ber time to the charge and a fact may be present the constant of the profits were rather and the profits were rather and the profits were rather small. The grand will deveate ber time to the charge of the students the charges in the common and the profits were rather and the start the warry of the charges in the common and the profits were rather as the charge of the students and teachers. Those of the students and the profits were rather as the common profits of the profits were rather as the profits were rather as the common staff. They can sing the note but, and the staff of the month.

Although achieve Graham Mr. Boyer will continue the special past of the students and the common creation of the staff. They can sing the staff, they can sing the staff, they can sing the staff, they can start the staff. They can sing the staff, they can start the staff they can start

Lincoln Vaudeville to Be Staged February 11. Varied Array of Talent Lined Up and Rehearsals Give Promise. June Class Gets Started With Vim. Class Cardinal Plans Are Under Way.

Glenhaven School Notes.

Mr. Kilgore's room has been unable locate another with an attendance of 56,5 per cent the past month. On day were more than two absent.

esting terms. Lloyd Carter was capeabled: Remark Lancetheld, view-president: Curtis McKinney, secretary; Maurice Howard, treasurer, Wallace Town, serguant-al-arms.

The June 16 class is preparing to step in the country. The stage was beautifully decorated to represent a force with the set of prominence and deminance left vacant he the graduating The 18-18-rs.

The president Loyn Kennedy and his staff, of Verm Barker, View-president Product Verman Rain (recently and his staff, of Verm Barker, View-president Remarks). Freedall Verman (treasurer) and Kennedy and his staff, of Verm Barker, View-president Remarks and Fire recently and the staff of Verman Rain (recently and his staff, of Verm Barker, View-president Remarks). Freedall Verman (treasurer) and Kennedy and his staff, of Verman Barker, view-president Remarks and Fire recently and the fire class and Fire recently and particular of the school course. The issue upon which the segment-al-arms, are planning a series of near things for the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning a series of near things for the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning the first tableau. The Coming of the White Man, replanning the Sewell and Alice Greene in a musical travesty: Howard Hutchinson and Geravere Fleming in "Bits of Nonsense": "Obstinacy," a short play, with Lena Nemorosky, imogene Seton, Jack Stubbs, Hilma Fox, Lyman Patton and Arthur Johnson in the cast: Wallace McTarnahan and Herman Lind, in "A Breath From the Sunny South." The class party was chaperoned by the class party was chaperoned by the Lost Chord double quartette, composed of Faye Bailey, Gene Geisler, Hilma Breath Frem the Sunny South. In Lost Chord double quartette, composed of Faye Bailey, Gene Geisler, Hilma Fox, Vernie Flanders and Howard Hutchinson, Earnest Stanley, John Langley and Donald Montgomery, will sing several numbers. A special orchestra of six of the regular high school orchestra will furnish the music school orchestra will furnish the school orchest will furnish the school orchestra will furnish the school or throughout the show. A committee of the faculty, appointed by Principal Davis, has been working with the com-mittee appointed by the class in per-fecting plans for the performance.

Without Prejudice—Arthur
Harry Jamieson, Alice Feika, Ramona
Milligan, Chester Jones.
Class Horoscope—Rose Johnson, Lois
Burch and Rita Resing.
Class History—Newton Drew.
Class Photographer—Emil Schütz.
One of the features of the class issue will be pages devoted to the news of the freshman, sophomore and junior classes. The paper will be published iate in May or early in June.

Herbert Cleaver, re-elected president of the Adelphians, has appointed the following committees: Programme—
Paye Bailey (chairman), Arthur JohnPaye Bailey (chairman), Arthur JohnPaye Bailey (chairman), Arthur JohnPaye Bailey (chairman), Inex Anderson,
David McCord, Initiation—Elinor Pills
David McCord, Initiation—Elinor Pills
David McCord, Initiation—Elinor Pills
David McCord, Initiation—Elinor Pills
That the junior high school regrates to the final claim on poportunity from school and furnishes an opportunity no justine.

Oregon University
Workmen's Association.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene,
Workmen's Association.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene,
The junior high school subjects and methods of teaching has greatly improved results, it is claimed.

The junior high school has furthermore greatly decreased elimination of a mutual building and loan association is under the consideration of sevterproaches to our educational system.

And plan that promises jto retain children in school begins provide to be son that a much larger per cent of students enter high school where junior high schools exist than before they have or early in June.

The statistics given by Dr. Briggs
The school of cammere, who is in charge of the pian.

The statistics given by Dr

Baruh and Albert Ding. Evadna Gove, June. 15, is also taking post-graduate work. Martha Loretz is at Monmouth.

This term Mr. Boyer has determined to make the Girls' Glee Club a more important organization of the school. Music will be made a study, and Mr. Boyer insists that every member must be able to get something more out of the club than fun. Those desiring to be members of the club must be able to read music and know something of the udiments of singing. Tryouts held at the beginning of the term, and the club will give serious study to its musical work throughout the term.

be held soon.

Mildred Hawes, newly elected president of the Tri-ls, has announced the following committees: Programme—Jessle McDonald (chairman), Elsa Armstrong, Edith Pitts, Elinor Pillsbury, Social—Myrtle Smith (chairman), Ella Dixon, Marie Canel. Membership—Ruth Richards (chairman), Margaret Findley, Sonis Wilderman, Placards—Ellen Anderson. There are at present assembly hall as the recitation room. 30 members in the society, and several nore will join at the next meeting of the society.

BY DOROTHY DUNIWAY.

THE Spring term opened Monday but springlike, but it evidently takes more than bad weather to keep pupils away

Couch School Notes. The graduating class of Couch school entered with great spirit into the ever-increasing necessity of being ty of seeing part of the Fair. thoroughly prepared for one's life work. He told the pupils that the final work. He told the pupils that the than test of their success would be the measure of their service to their fellowmen. Miss Ortschild, in a brief farewell talk, emphasized the need of honor, thoroughness, sincerity and kindness as elements of happy and successful lives. The class presented

The Junior High School Plan.

Reorganization of education under the elementary and the high school should be so sharp permits no justification. To bridge this gap by earlier introduction to high school substitution high s Leavens (chairman). Inex Anderson, David McCord, Initiation—Elinor Pillsbury (chairman). Scott Brown, George Chambers. Social—Rose Johnson (chairman), Shannon Pettinger, Lois Burch. Parliamentary Law—Hubert Scott (chairman), Naomi Pheips, Harry Jamieson.

Last term the members of the society numbered 50, which is the limit of chology, sociology, and economics, save their wages systematically and to loan money to others for the building of homes. Tentative plans provide for the modeling of an association after the Pennsylvania type, which encourages and stimulates the building and owning of homes among the factory employes.

Creswell to Have Hygiene Meetings.

75 New Students Enter for Benson Tech Classes.

Students Seeking Trade Knowledge Come From South and East, as Well as City-Architectural Boys Join Local Club-Storm Delays

BY RAYMOND HILL,

rITH the new term came 75 new technical students, who are to enter into the mysteries of Benmented this term by as many new members as prove themselves able to play in the orchestra. Thirty applications for membership in the orchestra other technical schools in the Southern son Polytechnic school life. The majorhave been turned in, and tryouts will states. One or two have attended technical schools in the East. The new students are seemingly well satisfied Anna Hart had issued invitations for a party for Thursday evening, February 3, at her home, 769 Third street, but on account of the weather the affair has been postponed. This will be the first of several February 16 class parties. Since the members are nearly all planning to stay in Portland this term, many class affairs will be given.

Mildred Hawes newly elected presi-Anna Hart had issued invitations for with the prescribed course of study and Mildred Hawes, newly elected presi- department, the other departments are Wednesday, January 26, the "Husky" quintet defeated the Hill Academy in Several girls of the third term drawing class went with their teacher, Miss Farnum, to see the exhibit of tiles and Japanese prints at the Art Museum on Thursday afternoon, January 27. The class has been making tiles and so was particularly interested in the fine exhibit.

quintet deteated the Hill Academy in a basketball contest that resulted in a score of 42 to 5. Possibly the reason for the big defeat was the fact that the Hill boys were very inadequate in making field throws, due to the want of practice this term. The Benson boys are anxiously awaiting the time for them to go in to the state of Washington, from whence they anticipate bringing home a fine belt of scalps. ing home a fine belt of scalps.

The Armory, which is used as a tem-perary gymnasium for the school, is again available for practice for the basketball team.

An invitation has been extended the architectural students to become mem-bers of the local Architectural Club, which has its clubrooms in the Wor-cester building. The purpose of this club is to have rooms where the young architectural students and draughtsmen may have a place to study the beaux-art problems and do life sketch-ing, which is taken at the Art Museum

Coach Goldman and the "Huskys' ventured up to Camas, Wash, last Friday, where they met defeat, the score being 32 to 26.

The exhibit at the Meier & Frank were surprised at the vast and varied amount of work that is being taught in advice concerning life and the cle-ments of success. The importance of high schools. Of the manual training good health was especially empha-sized.

Thirty-eight graduates, the first class to leave the new Couch, received ington carried away honors. This class to leave the new Couch, received ington carried away honors. This their diplomas from Principal Cannon on Thursday, January 27.

Mr. Cannon spoke to the class on viewing the exhibits had the opportunity

The interscholastic basketball game with Columbia University, which was scheduled to be played last Wednesday, had to be postponed on account of the inability to get transportation to the Washington High gym. The game will be staged as soon as the climatic connted ditions improve.

their teacher with a string of gold beads as a parting gift.

The class chronicles, written by Marguerite Burkhardt and read by ness and advertising managers the necessary funds to send it to press this week. But as soon as the condi-tions permit the entire staff will exert Architectural students are taking advantage of the splendid opportunity of visiting the Art Museum and art department of the Library and they are also enjoying trips to the architectural mills of the city.

One feature of school life at Benson during the past few weeks is the boys glee club that is being formed. About 20 students are earnestly endeavoring to "make" the club and it is hoped to have three separate quartets, so that they will be able to work out some fea-ture "stunts" when the Benson band gives its annual concert in the Spring.

The Junior High School Plan.

The June 'Is class has made an early start in making preparations for the class Cardinal. Harold Ball was elected editor: Mildred Hawes, associate editor: Raymond Jeffcott, business manager, The editors have chosen the following staff:

Literature—Prose, Donald Montgomer, Faye Baller, Imseen Seton, Robert Macy, Jesse McDonald, verse, Ellin, and John Dickson.

Class Prophecy—Melba Peterson, Herman Lind, Ellise Feldman.

Class Prophecy—Melba Peterson, Alek Ballot—Howard Hutchinson, Jack Stubbs.

Dramatics—Bobert Cosgrieff and Margaret Cundy.

Athletics—Lesile Carter, Preston Holt and George Busch.

Art—Jack Cundy.

Athletics—Lesile Carter, Preston Holt and George Busch.

Art—Jack Chester Jones.

Without Prejudice—Arthur Johnson, Margaret Davidson, Lois of the sub-lock among Milligan, Chester Jones.

Class Horoscope—Rose Johnson, Lois of the class in the school are son, Kenneth Davidson.

Without Prejudice—Arthur Johnson, Margaret Mansfeld and Margaret Cundy.

Without Prejudice—Arthur Johnson, Harry Jamieson, Alce Felka, Ramonn Milligan, Chester Jones.

Class Horoscope—Rose Johnson, Lois of the work of the possibilities in the sub-lock subscinction, To bridge this gap by earlier incomplete the purior bigh school are subjects seldom taught in the school and the class of the work of the work of the possibilities in the sub-ject and in the pupil himself.

The Junior high school has been defined "as or gardes may be introduced, the club and it is hoped to have there way will he able to work out some thing similar is definitely under way, with school has been definitely under to him the pupil himself.

The Junior high school has been defined "as or gardes and organization of grades and organization of grades and organization of grades and organization of grades in the school and the students.

The Cash five clab have the subject as an organization of grades and organization of grades

Burch Parliamental, Scott (chairman). Naomi Pheips, Harry Jamieson.

Last term the members of the society has lost by graduation Helen Dahl, Nellie Palmer and Ray Condit. The toric of study for this term has not yet been decided.

Esther Bodman was awarded the pennant offered by the February class for the Lincoln student outside the February class reling the greatest number of tickets for the class play, "The Rivais." The pennant, which is a 48-inch Lincoln pennant, was presented inch Lincoln pennant, was presented by Nelson Dezendorf, manager of the by Nelson Dezendorf, manager of the School alumni will School alumni will School alumni will School, and C. H. Sedgwick, Mayor, have issued a call for the meet-present state of the meets and committee consisting of B. S. Wake-field. Superintendent of Creswell Schools; "Log Angeles alumni will School alumni will School, and C. H. Sedgwick, Mayor, have issued a call for the meets-present states and committee consisting of B. S. Wake-field. Superintendent of Creswell Schools; "Log Angeles alumni will Schools, "Log Angeles having far out-stripped all other cities in developing them."

Richmond Alumni to Meet.

Richmond Alumni to Meet.

Richmond Ric Several February classes are taking a post-graduate course this term. They are: Margaret Gray, Eva Anderson, Horace Foulkes, Marcellus Mills, Leo