Candidate Says No Pre-Election Pledges Will Be Made but Needs of Community Have Been Studied Constantly.

Spensored by prominent clubwomen of the city, the candidacy of Mrs. S. M. Blumauer for School Director to succeed Judge M. G. Munly, chairman of the Board of Education, who retires from service next June, was announced yesterday at a nuncheon given at the Imperial Hotel, Mrs. A. H. Breyman presided. The luncheon was called by presidents of different women's clubs of the city. Members of all the allied organizations attended.

Mrs. Blumauer will be backed strongly by women of the city, it is announced, and clubwomen will lead the battle for votes. It was decided yesterday to send out a letter to the various clubs of the city, and the hope was expressed that these organizations will indorse her candidacy and work setting in her hebalf. actively in her behalf.

Mrs. Sreyman introduced Mrs. Blu-mauer to the women at yesterday's luncheon, and the latter made her an-nouncement. She said people were asking what her platform was to be during the campaign leading up to the election, but she held to the belief that one should not be tied too closely to a platform, because the school system Is constantly expanding and develop-ing and is in fact so subject to change that a platform is rather more a hindrance than a help in carrying forward school affairs

Needs Are Studied.

"I prefer rather to be a growing director than one who binds himself to a fixed platform," said Mrs. Blumauer.

"My work as head of the educational committee of the Portland Woman's Club has put me in close touch with school work, and I am quite familiar with the needs of the city. I have visited many of the schools of late and hope before the election to have visited every one."

number of clubwomen rose to speak in favor of Mrs. Blumauer's election. Mrs. Grace Watt was one of the enthusiastic advocates of her candidacy. She said Mrs. Blumauer would not be a political candidate and would not enter the context with that idea in mind, but she felt certain that, if elect-ed, Mrs. Blumauer would be one of the most capable and effective workers along educational lines that the city has ever had. Others spoke along a similar line, urging support for Mrs.

work has always interested her.

A source of her inspiration along these lines, she says, was Miss Ella Sabin, who was her teacher and with whom she worked when Miss Sabin was city school superintendent. Mrs. Blumauer has served for six years as chairman of the educational committee of th. Portland Woman's Club, and she has the distinction of being a National director of the Council of Jewish Wom-en. She has made extended investigation into school systems and work it numerous other American cities, as well as abroad Before her marriage Mrs. Blumauer's name was Blanche Kahn, being the daughter of a pioneer family of Portland.

Clubwomen at yesterday's luncheon voted down a movement to form a federation of clubs in this city. The reso-lution was put that it was the sense of the meeting that a federation of clubs should be formed. Put as a motion, however, the negative vote was in the majority.

YEAR'S FAILURES HEAVY

Bradstreet Report, Just Issued, Lays Blame Largely to War.

"Fallures and Their Causes" is the title of a brochure just issued by the Bradstreet Company, which is a com-pliation of statistics as regards fail-ures and an analysis of their meaning. It is recorded that the year 1915 saw the greatest number of failures ever recorded in this country in a calendar year, with the liabilities heavier than in any but five years of the past. This unhappy situation is due, it is stated, largely to the disorganization of trade and industry resulting from the outbreak of the European war in the late Summer of 1914.

There were 19,035 failures reported to Bradstreet's Journal in 1915, with lia-bilities of $248,000,000. This number was double the failures of 1909 and -third larger than those of 1910 or becomes the second

Such was the telegram received by Steers & Coman announcing the result of Emmy Destinn's first appearance in San Francisco, on which occasion she gave the same programme that she will give at the Heilig in this city February 25. Walter Anthony, in the San Francisco Chronicle, comments upon her as follows:

"The former was exquisitely tender, the latter was torrentially passionate. But a greater art still was revealed in Butterfly's forlorn lament and Tosca's passionate utterance. These two arias were rich in color and so vivid and contrasting in hues as to bewilder ears accustomed to hear the 'spread' and 'white' tones of the average prima donna in Latin grand opera."

Destinn will have no fewer than three great arias on her Portland programme, markets are explained to the young

O. A. C. Extension Officials Report on Oregon Plan.

PIG-CLUB MOVE GROWS

To Instill Into Minds of Youth Love for Animals and Bring About More Interest in Farm Life Is Object of Plan.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvailis, Feb. 19.—(Special.) — Corn clubs have proved an entire success among the boys and girls of Oregon, according to extension officials at the Oregon Agricultural College, under whose direction the Industrial Club work is carried on, and now, to increase the value and scope of the club work, pig clubs are rapidly being organized among the boys and girls that further agricultural principles may be demonstrated by feeding the clubraised corn to the pigs raised under pig-club directions.

Interest in the pig-club movement is pig-club directibns.

Interest in the pig-club movement is rapidly increasing, says L. J. Allen, recently appointed State Pig Club agent by the United States Bureau of Animai Industry and the Oregon Agricultural College co-operating. The work was, before the appointment of Mr. Allen, a part of the general industrial club work, but now requires the entire time of pig-club agents. Letters of inquiry are arriving daily from all parts of Oregon and Washington showing a widespread interest in the work. Banks in various parts of the states have sigin various parts of the states have sig-nified an intention to make liberal numbers of small loans in their locali-ties for the advancement of the movement. County school superintendents, teachers and parents are co-operating in promoting the clubs.

All boys and girls in Oregon between the ages of 3 and 18 years are eligible to membership in the pig clubs upon the purchase of at least one pig and the agreement to care for the animals in person according to general directions given out by the pig-club agent. Ald is given in the obtaining of good foundation breeding stock or good stock pigs. tock pigs.

Arrangements have been made whereby every pig-club member receives free his choice of a standard swine journal and also all Government bulletins on the swine industry.

"The main object of the work," said
Mr. Allen, "is to instill in the boys and girls of Oregon while young a love of animals which will result in their tak-ing more interest in farm life and to furnish them at the same time some work which will, in a practical way, Grandma Used Sage Tea and Sulphur to Darken Her Hair and Nobody Knew.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

ple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.
But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's "Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.—Adv.
