of the decorations. Red hearts and Cupid darts were a feature also of the elaborate refreshments which were served late in the evening.

"THE GIRLS OF YESTERDAY AND TODAY" TO BE PRODUCED AT LITTLE THEATER

Two Performances, Afternoon and Night of Tuesday, Washington's Birthday, Will Be Given-Mrs. William Bushnell Osborn, Jr., Is Organizer of Cast-Y. W. C. A. Is Sponsor for Beautiful Production.

MISS HENRIETTA B. HONEY, WHO WILL TAKE PART IN J. W. C. A. PAGEANT, WEARING HEIRLOOM GOWN

Clara Donaldson, of the department of domestic art, Y. W. C. A. Quaint indeed will be some of the worn. Miss Henrietta Honey, instance, who will be the girl of 1866, will appear in a gown that was worn at one of the first brilliant so-cial functions ever held in Portland. Mrs. W. D. Whiteomb will be Between the two girls will be a whole procession of maids representing every decade. There will be the workers, the students, and all types to whom the association appeals. It was founded to meet a great need, to answer the problems of new and strange the all-absorbing topic. The polls will be swer the type found after the young women's association of Scene I shows the first meeting in the New England home. A few women talk over the problems and found the organization that now is celebrating its 50th anniversary. Girls of all types again are seen and their costumes befit Association will helper the continuous control of the con by the Young Women's Christian Asso-ciation. The 44 lands in which there are associations will be represented by

To pay the expenses of girls in appropriate costumes.

Pantomime and tableaux are used in the scenes and only the two, Miss Honey and Mrs. Whitcomb, will have

The Portland Shakespeare Study Club will give "Tweifth Nnight" to-morrow night in the New Arcanum Hall. Thirteenth and Washington streets. After a thorough and analytical study the dramatic department is Mrs. A. L. Mrs. A. Mrs. A. L. Mrs. A. Mrs. A. L. Mrs. A. Mrs. A. Mrs. A. L. Mrs. A. Mrs. A. Mrs. A. Mrs. A. L. Mrs. A. M prepared to give a finished interpreta-tion of the lines, it is announced. The cast follows:

Ossino, Mrs. E. Strupelere; Sebastian, Mrs. T. F. Drake; Antonio, Mrs. R. E.

Jones; sea captain, Mrs. Albert M.
Brown; Valentine, Miss Alice Gram;
Curic, Miss Podmore; Sir Toby Belch,
Mrs. Allen Todd; Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Mrs. A. A. Eckern; Malvello,
Mrs. Roy Peterson; Feste, Miss Alieen
Mrs. Roy Peterson; Miss Alieen

BY EDITH KNIGHT BOLMES.
Forward' For us shall be no beaten track:
No more continuing: no turning back.
The past we leve not for its being past.
But for its hope and ardor forward cast.

O SAYS one of the characters in third in the party and "Forward" has ever been the watchword of the Young Women's Christian Association, the organization under whose auspices this pageant will be given.

The time set is Washington's birthday. There will be two performances, afternoon and night. Mrs. William Bushnell Osborn, Jr., is organizer of the cast, and Miss Frank Towslee has directed. The costumes have been as clearly and the cast and will be two performances of the cast, and Miss Frank Towslee has directed. The costumes have begin lamed with the assistance of Miss Clara Donaldson, of the department of downstic art y W. C. A. Pageant in st. W. C. A. Pageant, we law in most interesting talk was given: 1 lancheon the will meet any guessing contests, the following will meet any guessing contests, the following programme was given: Plano solo by street, for a cafeteria luncheon and by the whole club will meet, with Mrs. D. Shertist, and Helen Caples; vocal solo, Mrs. The Femster with Mrs. A. D. Shertist, as accompanist; plano solo, Miss R. F. Femster with Mrs. A. D. Shertist, as accompanist; plano solo, Miss R. F. Femster with Mrs. Charles V. Rose, president of the Portland Research Club, extended an invitation to the members to be present at Library members, have planned an all-fall transfer of the Portland Research Club, extended an invitation to the members to be present at Library with pictures by Mrs. A. J. Lilburn.

The time set is Washington's birthday. They will meet to provide the church House, 454 alder street to be present at Library with pictures by Mrs. A. J. Lilburn.

The time set is Washington's birthday. They will meet to provide the provide the Woman's Club to Nominate Officers on Friday.

this jaunt into the hills.

Mrs. J. A. Pettit Likely to Be Named for President-No Great Conflict for Posts Expected.

conditions that were found after the open at 1:30 o'clock and will close at The pageant will open with a pro- 2 o'clock. There seems to be a genlogue which will disclose Mistress 1866 eral feeling that Mrs. J. A. Pettit will maturity is a climax, but in man only soliloquizing. As she speaks there will be nominated for president and that the gateway to finer and higher forms cross the sage women of various types the vote for her will be large. Some who would be benefited by having a of the other officers may have several ort. But how should that association aspirants, but, as Mrs. G. J. Frankel has during her presidency created an atmosphere of harmony, there will not be any great conflict, unless the un-

The University of Oregon Alumnae again are seen and their costumes befit the day they represent.

From %6 to '26 there are the college girls, the business girls and all who in many and various ways ar benefited East Seventeenth street North, from

To pay the expenses of the pageant for the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday, a small admission fee will be charged at Panama-Pacific Exposition will be among the most modern of the girls of today. Appropriate music will be given by the orchestra. The old-fashioned ballads of '56 will open the programme. Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman will sing the solos.

Club women. ed and who wish to do systematic work in English literature. The class meets each Wednesday in the Commu-Club women, society women, members of the association and social meets each Wednesday in the comment workers will be interested in this event.

The comment women, society women, members each Wednesday in the comment workers will be meets each Wednesday in the comment workers will be meets each Wednesday in the comment workers will be meets each Wednesday in the comment workers will be meets each Wednesday in the comment workers will be meets each Wednesday in the comment workers will be interested in this event. The benefit for the Florence Crittenton Home to be held in the Hellig John Bunyan, Mrs. E. P. Smail; "Contomorrow night will be another affair that will make a strong appeal. The Ad Club and other men's organizations are assisting in selling tickets.

Study Works: Oliver Goldsmith, Mrs. A. R.

> A class in sewing is to be conducted for the henefit of the members of the Vernon Parent-Teacher Association by Mrs. A. L. Schwabe at her home each Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A simi-iar class will be conducted at 4 o'clock for girls between the ages of 8 and 14. This service is free.

Dr. DeBusk is a graduate of Clark University, of which G. Stanley Hall Mrs. Allen Todd; Sir Andrew Ague cheek, Mrs. A. A. Eckern; Malvello, Mrs. Roy Peterson; Feste, Miss Alleen Brong; Fabian, Miss Helen Jeffers; Olivia, Mrs. Charles Fisher; Viola, Mrs. A. Glebisch; Maria, Mrs. M. C. Robins. the fare.

Brong: Fablan, Miss Helen Jeffers: Olivia, Mrs. Charles Pisher; Vicia, Mrs. Charles Pisher; Vicia, Mrs. Charles Pisher; Vicia, Mrs. M. C. Robins, The Aloha Psychology Club will meet Taesday night at 7:45 octock in room 12:56 Helmont Presbyterian Church Will speak on "Mind Power and Privileges".

The Wost Side Class of the Portland Shakespeare Study Club will meet for the west Side Class of the Portland Shakespeare Study Club will meet on Wennersday, last a Mrs. W. F. Marjil, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. George D. Young minimer. Dr. S. Hall Young, a well-state of the Mrs. Ge

At the parents' educational bureau a most interesting talk was given by Mrs. Harriet Hickox Heller of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, on Friday on "The Adolescent Girl."

Mrs. Heller likened the adolescent period to the blooming of a flower.

"All training to be of any use must be given in early childhood, as the adolescent period is the time when parents have the least influence," she said.

In order to be useful one must al-

"In the lower forms of life physical

At the weekly meeting of the Wom-irs. Eliza Frame. Answer to rollcall -"Great Political Leaders." The address at 3 o'clock will be given by B. F. Irvine. His topic will be "A Commis-sion Form of Government."

street, will entertain the chapter, Mrs

Dr. De Busk to Give Hygiene

Lecture Wednesday.

University of Oregon Professor Will Tell of Care of Mouth, Nose and Throat.

R. D. W. DEBUSK, of the Univeron "Hygiene of the Mouth, Nose and Throat" at the Couch School, Twenty-night at 8:15.

night at 8:15.

This is the second of a series of six similar lectures which Dr. DeBusk is giving under the auspices of the Council of Portland Parent-Teacher Associ-is president, and is an expert authority matters pertaining to child wel-

The first lecture on "Malnutrition and Food for School Children" was highly instructive and interesting, and the second lecture should be heard by sity of Oregon, will give a lecture

Glisan streets, Wednesday

M. Gray will assist. Members will an's Political Science Club on Tuesday the parliamentary class will be led by somebody.

be in love with something or

Florence Clarke played the violin and Mrs. Guy Childers sang the "Jewel Song," from "Faust," The home of Mrs. R. W. Stearns was the meeting place for the "College Women's Club. of Medford, February 12. Mesdames Harrison, Maimgren and Carlow discussed "The Early, Middle and Third Period Paintings in America." Another feature of value was a talk by Miss Dorland Robinson, of Jacksonville, on "The Essentials of a Good Picture." Miss Carkin and Mrs. Torney were joint hostesses.

Miss Dorcas Surth. of New York; Miss katalerine Gerber, of Pritsburg, and their entrance to the sound immense Japanese booth, and here cherry blossons were sold. Practically of a Japanese gong Each carried a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted parameter of value were dressed in Japanese kimonos, and they and their surroundings breathed of the very atmosphere of Japan. The of the were joint hostesses.

Miss Dorcas Surth. of New York; Miss katalerine Gerber, of Pritsburg, and immense Japanese booth, and here cherry blossons were sold. Practically of a Japanese gong Each carried a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of a Japanese door, and the grand opega singer arrived in a "jin ricksha" and sang an aria from Madame Butterfly."

Madame Butterfly."

In a corner of the bailroom was an ever given at the hotel.

Usonalities in our schoolrooms, representing that here school the other a lighter vair. Two readings, one in a serious strain, two vocal numbers which were entrance to the sound immense Japanese booth, and here cherry blossons were sold. Practically of a Japanese gong Each carried a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted corried a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of the great part of a papanese booth, and here carried a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of a Japanese gong Each carried a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of a Japanese booth, and here carried a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of a Japanese contract a small parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of a Japanese kimonos, and huge parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of a Japanese kimonos, and huge parasol and a tiny tray. A noted of a Japanese kimonos

Taming of the Shrew," Mrs. O. H. Porter, and the Sixty-fourth Sonnet, with pictures by Ars. W. A. Smick and Woodlawn Parent-Teacher Associa-on will have a Winter picnic on Wednesday at noon. Those not noti-fied will take sandwiches. After the luncheon there will be a stereopticon lecture by Principal Stafford.

Theftara Athleterian Club met on Monday with Mrs. M. R. Parellus. Invited guests were Mrs. D. H. Coppock, Mrs. J. C. Otte and Mrs. A. W. Lam-

Parent-Teacher Circle Is in Favor of Spanking.

Ample Portion of Discipline for Stephens School Pupils Indicated at Recent Meeting.

THE Stephens Parent-Teacher Cir-Mrs. Heller urged older people to be more sympathetic, saying "If you have never laughed or gigsled without a cause or cried about nothing you have mill, which occurred at the same hour mill, which occurred at the same hour and which caused a number of mothers already present to leave as soon as they heard of the fire, fearing for the safety of husbands or sons em-ployed in the mill or danger of their homes, located near the mill.

of existence. Powers awakened at this period should be transformed, not killed; transformed into diamonds of talk on "The Purpose of Parent-Teachpurity, pearls of joy and gold of service which only womanhood can give as daughter, sister, wife, mother and friend."

given, after which Mrs. Meyers gave a talk on "The Purpose of Parent-Teachpurity, pearls of joy and gold of service which only womanhood can give as judicious use of spanking, requesting an expression of the sentiment of the mothers in regard to their feelings on the subject. A pleasing musical programme was

The general upraising of hands would indicate that the boys and girls attend Stephens School are not relected in the performance of this fective if often pronounced "barbar-ous" custom, A short business meeting followed the pleasing address. Reports from the various committees were heard, es-pecial interest being shown in the social service report by Mrs. Wheeler. She told of relief given to many needy families, particularly during the recent storms.

Chapter C. P. E. O. Sisterhood, met on Friday with Mes. G. Christmas. Mrs. Charles Billington gave a paper. Sev-eral interesting features made up the programme and social hour. On March 3 Mrs. W. H. Seitz, 460 East Stark The Women's Political Science Club The Women's Political Science Clun meeting was a successful one on Tuesday, attendance of members being good, with the presence of a number of visitors and several new applicants enrolling for membership. Many topics of interest were discussed in answer to rollcall, which was "Current Events." During the session a messenger delivered a letter from Senator Chamberlain in answer to a telegram sent him last in answer to a telegram sent him last week, assuring them of his intention to vote for Louis Brandeis unless the in-vestigation now proceeding should disclose something seriously affecting his integrity.

J. H. Stevenson's talk on "The White Slave Traffic" expressed himself as believing the young people should be looked after more carefully and more time and thought given to them, rather than to those who siready have "fallen." He said woman's proper sphere is in the home. Young girls who are allowed to attend skating rinks and dancehalls unchaperoned "elect themselves as canuchaperoned "elect themselves

F. C. Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dun-"AFTERNOON IN JAPAN" IS NOTABLE The evening was spent in playing cards, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bailey winning the first prize and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jackson the second prize.

Red and white carnations and dainty valentine tokens were notable features of the decorations. Red hearts and AFFAIR AT HOTEL DEL CORONADO Costumes, Decorations, Setting and Music Breathe Atmosphere of Nippon-Sounding of Gong Is Signal for Entrance of Kimono-Clad Girls-Cherry Blossoms Are Sold.

Left to Right-Mrs. H. Cleiand de Neale, of Baltimore; Miss Dories Shaw, of Chicago; Miss Marian Baille, of Scattle; Miss Dorcas Surth, of New York; Miss Entherine Gerber, of Pittsburg, and Miss Dorothy Stonehill, of Chicago.

were also enjoyed.

Mrs. O. H. Porter was in charge of the sons of the sering february II. The programme included: Current events, Mrs. Hinckless on S. N. H. Porter was in charge of the Snew, Mrs. Hinckless on S. N. H. Porter was a find that is, learn to know the boy must be appealed to in order to get best presults. Sons, "I know a Place Where the Will him. The real character of the Snew, Mrs. Hinckless on S. N. H. Porter was a find and the will prove a first of the work of the standard of the Snew, Mrs. Hinckless on S. N. H. Porter was a conditional matter of the sons of the school. "The greatest trait be appealed to in order to get best presults. The programme included: Current events, Mrs. Hinckless on S. N. H. Porter than a faster of the school. "The programme included: Current events, Mrs. Hinckless on S. N. H. Porter the man of the Snew, Mrs. Hinckless on S. N. H. Porter the standard of the sum of the su a hard-working, painstaking child in school."

Miss Porter said the Failing School has a district of 12 blocks square, with the school in the center. An "alarm clock" system is carried on, for the purpose of punctuality among the foreign element, because many of the homes of these children have no clocks. The system is for two pupils from 2 to 5 Thursday afternoon in the homes of these children have no clocks. The system is for two pupils from each room to go to certain homes every morning and see that the children are awake in time. Often the parents must be awakened. "These parents must be taught punctuality," she said, holding that when the parent once learns American principles, he is a good follower. Miss Porter said the morals of these people is good, adding that they respect authority and adding that they respect authority and adding that they respect authority and the following will pour: Mrs. J. C.

The class work on the study district, were present also. The class work on the study of ancient Greece was conducted by the president, Mrs. A. R. Clark. Under entertainment. Miss Wing and the foreign element, because many of the homes of these children have no clocks. The system is for two pupils to 5 Thursday afternoon in the Witching Hour." After that Dr. B. Clark Club work as an educational factor. Mrs. Glimore cub district, were present also. The class work on the study of ancient Greece was conducted by the present also. The class work on the study of ancient Greece was conducted by the present also. The class work on the study of ancient Greece was conducted by the present also. The class work on the study of ancient Greece was conducted by the present also. The class work on the class read of the Present also. The class work on the class work on discount, etc.

The Jewish children were particu per cent are Italian. Mrs. Hattle Wilson, president of Central W. C. T. U., who is going to Corvallis to live, will tender her resignation to the union as president at the meeting next Wednesday and her successor will be chosen. A social hamily follow the business meeting.

The Fulton Parent-Teacher Association held its regular business meeting in the Nature study room on Tuesday, Reports of committees and the coun-cil meeting were read. Civic interests ing and give selections on the Vic-troia, explaining their musical values A social hour foland composition. lowed the regular meeting.

Chapter A. P. E. O. Sisterhood, will be entertained on Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. C. B. Hurtt, 1067 East Burnside street, Laurelhurst. The husbands of the members will be guests.

The following is a college women may be the selection of the members will be guests.

Rose City Park Parent-Teacher Association met on Wednesday. Mrs. J. C. Elliott King and Mrs. Alice Weister gave addresses. The association has about $100 in the treasury to be used The association has for the purchase of pictures. Mrs. Ag-nes Duck's and Miss Carruthers' rooms won prizes for selling tickets,

The Alberta Woman's Club met on The Alberta Woman's Club met on Tuesday night. Miss Bernice Master, of the Kennedy School, gave a recita-tion. Mrs. Katherine Maguire spoke on "The Delinquent Child."

The Woodstock Women's Christian Temperance Union will celebrate the sixth anniversary of its organization a special programme at the integrity.

J. H. Stevenson's talk on "The White Slave Traffic" was interesting. He expressed himself as believing the expressed himself as believing the rooms people should be looked after from the Parent-Teacher Association.

The scholarship loan fund of the Orestate should be an equal moral standard for men and women; men should suffer equal condemnation with women.

The Women's New Thought Club, which met on Wednesday last at Mrs. H. K. Senour's home, elected Mrs. Flora Peterson, president; Mrs. W. F. Sherman Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. F. Sherman Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. M. M. Beede, secretary, and Mrs. H. K. Senour's home, elected Mrs. Flora Peterson, president; Mrs. W. F. Sherman Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. W. G. A. was well described. Mrs. George man Hoyt, vice-president; Mrs. George man tionalities in our schoolrooms, representing all parts of the globe, began Miss Porter, saying that her school was the "melting pot." In speaking of the foreign children, she said the "newsboy element predominates," adding that the newsboy is no freak, no menagerie specimen, but simply a human being.

"These foreign children," continued Miss Porter, "have an emotional nature, are humpy for a taste of love, rather than a taste for the stomach," Miss Porter said that she and four other teachers work together in managing the entire foreign element of the school. "The greatest trait required to manage these foreign children," Mrs. Joseph Macqueen gave two vocal numbers which were enjoyed. She was accompanied by Mrs. Truth Terry, accompanied by Mrs. Truth Terry, accompanied by Mrs. Pred Kribs sang two numbers in a delightful manner. The Coterie is planning a card party March 3 with Mrs. Fred Kribs and Mrs. Gus C. Moser as chairmen.

"The programme given on Wednesday in the Library by Central W. C. T. U. was interesting in many ways. Mrs. J. H. Barbour, who sang the "Lullaby." Those taking part were: Miss Nona Becker, Miss Dorothy Dver, Miss Alea Jacobsen, Miss October a Alva Lee Miss Victoria Atchison and Miss Leona Mourton.

some one to look up to.

There is esablished in the school an "endless store," teaching these children how to buy and sell, weigh and measure, make out bills, write letters, figure the 5 and 10 per cent discount, etc.

The Glenhaven Parent-Teacher As-The Jewish children were particu-larly mentioned as being very bright programme for Thursday evening, Febin school and easily taught to obey. ruary 24, at the school building. Ad-Miss Porter said that about 80 per cent dresses will be given by two noted of her pupils are Jewish and about 15 speakers, and there will be other interesting efatures. Everybody is in-vited. Refreshments will be served a s small fee.

A new W. C. T. U. union was formed Wednesday when 16 women organized the Broadway Union. Mrs. Mattle Sleeth presided, and officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Mary B. Russel; secretary, Mrs. James Skidmore; terasurer, Mrs. Martha the collection after an investigation of Hays.

The regular meeting of the Clintonwere discussed. An evening devoted to Kelly Parent-Teacher Circle will be the ninth grades, and a considerable music was planned for February 25, held at the school Thursday at 2:45. Professor W. H. Boyer, supervisor of After the business meeting a short music, will lead the community sing-programme will be given.

workers of the Neighborhood House will be held February 28 at 12:30 o'clock. Addresses will be made by several prominent men and women

The following is given that club and college women may know what consti-tutes eligibility to Collegiate Alumnae; tutes eligibility to Collegiate Alumnae;

National—Any woman residing in Portaind or its suburbs, or in any part of Oregon where there is no branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, who is eligible to membership in the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, shall be sligible to National membership in the Oregon branch.

Local—Any woman not registered as an undergradute, who has taken only years full academic work in any college or university having a four years course and belonging to the association and who has received event therefor or in any college or university having a four years' course and granting the degree of A. B., may be invited to local membership in the Oregon branch. Academic work should be interpreted to mean any non-professional work such as would be credited for one full years work leading to the A. B. degree although not necessarily taken in candidacy for the A. B. degree.

Dues for National members are $5, for local members $2. For further information, picuse communicate with the servetary Mrs.

The Delphian Matrons' Club met at the home of Mrs. Edgar W. Phillips, 802 East Yamidil street, on Tuesday afternoon, February 15, with all members present. Miss Ethelwyn Wing, secretary of the Delphian Club Council, of San Francisco, and Mrs. L. K. Gilmore, club director of the Portland district, were present also.

The class work on the study of ancient Greece was conducted by the president, Mrs. A. B. Clark.

Under entertainment, Miss Wingave an instructive address on the Delphian Club work as an educations.

The next meeting of the thought of the home of Mrs. F. E. Young, 784 East Yambill street, at which time the class study of "Athenian Supremacy" will be under the direction of Mrs. E. W.

Pupils of Holladay School Show They Can Spell.

Many in Fourth and Fifth Grades Make Perfect Score With Dr. Jones' "One Hundred Spelling Demons."

DUPILS at Holladay school recently had a tussel with the "One hundred spelling demons of the English lan-guage," as Dr. W. Franklin Jones, send of the department of education in the University of South Dakota, calls a selected list of words. He made the material of English spoiling.

This list was given to the pupils of Holladay school, from the Lourth to number of the pupils spelled the entire list correctly. Students in the fourth and fifth grades, the less advanced of The annual luncheon and meeting for all included in the test who made a all included in the test who made a perfect record, were as follows:

Gladys Bail, Helen Martin, Virginia Edwards, Virginia Troutman, Cyril Gioyn, Harold Osborns, Paul Thresher, Walter Banz, Howard Cox, Margarett Clinget, Clotiids Curry, Wilford Hunter, Harry Coffin, Juanita McLoughlin, Herbert Beil, Madeline Goodall, Beatrice Shanks, Gerald Jacobson, Rosa Rathke, Helen Parrish, Lucy Maggregor, Ruth Tathill, Lillian Marketrom, Barbara Hubbard, Carrol Hangen, Prederick Bankin, Norman Estes, Madge Cunnane, Margaret Fraincy, Madge Cunnane, Margaret Frainey, Wivian Anderson and Helen Doughty.

The following table shows the results of the test at Holladay, the first table showing the percentage of words correctly spelled by the various classes without any previous study and the second table shows the percentage the spellers made after they had the regular time for study:

Before After 97.2 98.6 65 97.2 98.6 65 98.4 98.4 98.4 98.4 98.4 98.5 97.8 53 97.8 53 98.3 97.5 4A

The list of words, called by Dr. Jones he "One Hundred demons," follows: Which, their, there, separate, don't, meant, business, many, friend, been, since, used, always, where, heen, since, used, always, where, we men, done, hear, here, writte, writing, heard, does, once, would, can't sure, loose, lose, Wednesday, country. February, know, could, seems, Tuesday, wear, answer, two, too, readr. forty, hour, trouble, among, busy, built, color, making dear guess, sixys having just.