STUDENT ACTIVITIES IN PORTLAND PUBLIC SCHOOLS VARIED

Class Elections, Music Programmes, Athletics and Originality in Many Forms Contribute to Make New Term Interesting.

Lincoln Orchestra Prepares for Music Festival.

Societies at West Side School Are Active and Social and Academic Functions Fill Calendar—Commer-cial Students Drawn More Closely Into Student Life.

BY DOROTHY DUNIWAY. HE orchestra is now one of the most important organizations at Lincoln. February, '16, class, has entered O. A. C. Under the direction of Carl Denton, the orchestra has advanced wonderfully. Music is studied as a regular highschool subject and at the end of the term an examination is given. The orchestra meets twice a week, Monday and Theodor. and Thursday afternoons, the sixth pe riod, and after school until 3 o'clock. One credit a year is given for satisfac-tory work in the orchestra. New mem-tory work in the orchestra. New members who prove themselves capable of doing good work are always welcome. The orchestra will take a prominent part in the big community sing to be given at Lincoln High School in May. The members of the orchestra are: Alice Green, Edith Mozoroski, Harmon Chapman, Constance Edghill, Jane O'Reilly, Edna Rice, Newton Langerman, Alfred Whiteside, Edna Nelson, Charles Williamson, Gladys Ward, Samuel Sobie, Agnes Schuliz, Mark Shernan, Saul Robinson, Lillian Israel, Valma Goully, William Tilge, violins: Ralph Hoeber, celle; Alice Laughton and Stanley Mansfield, cornets; William Ingram, clarinet; Lucie Murton, piano; Meinholt Fox, bass viola, Newton Crostleld, trombone. The orchestra lost three valued members by graduation, Martha Loretz, Carl Caesar and Albert Martha Loretz, Carl Caesar and Albert

The Philolexians, the girls' literary society, is planning a busy year. In addition to the regular programmes and debates, the society will make a thorough study of parliamentary law. Belle Countryman, newly elected president.

James John High Notes. has appointed the following commit-tees: Programme, Elsie Isensee (chair-man), Bessie Robinson, Jessie Huggins, initiation, Henrietta Bettinger (chair-man), Frances Kenney, Luzelle Kear-ney: resolution, Margaret Duniway (chairman), Josephine Felts, Elien An-derson, entertainment, Mary Nicol man), Marjorle Kellog, Edna Stone.

A special assembly was called Wednesday morning in the Lincoln High auditorium for the commercial students registered in the old Shattuck School building. The purpose of the assembly was to arouse enthusiasm in the Cardinal Principal Davis welcomed the students and said he wished them to feel that this was as much their home as it was for the regular stuitor, presided. He announced that a special department in the Cardinal will be given over to commercial department in the Cardinal will be given over to commercial department mays. Frank Bartholomew has been appointed the assistant editor from the commercial students to have charge of this branch of this section of the Cardinal. Editor Fordyce explained the manager of this branch of this section of the Cardinal. Editor Fordyce explained the managerial system to be used this term and said that Fordyce explained the managerial system to be used this term and said that there would be a literature box at the Shattuck building. Ralph Hoeber, associate editor, told of the new systems used for improving the Cardinal and impressed upon the students that they Cardinal is their paper and that they can improve it by contributing. He announced that two prizes, a Lincoln pillow and a Lincoln pennant, will be given to the two students writing the two best short stories for the Aprilification of the paper. Abe Rosenberg, business manager, explained that the five bet short stories for the April same of the paper. Abe Rosenberg, business manager, explained that the organize this term. The efficers of the Cass are: President, Cliffon of the Cass are: President, Cliffon advertisers. Robert Cosgriff, assistant divertisers. Robert Cosgriff, assistant from the paper and the paper an ruary, '16, class, has had one of her charming poems accepted by the Spectator. It will be published in an early issue. Miss Carr was class poet of the February class and a writer of verse for the Cardinal, the school paper, for the past two years.

The Tolgeion Debating Society elected officers Thursday afternoon. The officers for the next 10 weeks are: George Cowne, president; Raymond Jeffcott, vice-president; Ralph Spearon, secretary, Cecil Smith, assistant secre-tary: Sterling Smith, treasurer; Jack Laidlaw, editor; Ralph Strong, sergeant-at-arms.

Anna Hart entertained the member of the February, '16, class with a re-union party at her home, 769 Third street, Thursday evening, February 17, Dancing and games were enjoyed, after which a dainty supper was served. Daffedils, the class flower, formed the decorations. The guests were: Eva Anderson, George Altstadt, Stella Arnold, Stark Akers, Adelph Bloch, Helen Brigham, Elsie Burgoyne, Frederick Betz, Leo Baruh, Elmer Bankus, Harold Baker, Carl Caesar, Ray Condit, D. J. Conway, Mary Jane Carr, Helen Dahl, Philip Dahl, Nelson Desendorf, Osear Driskell, Albert Ding, Clinton Endicott, Elnora Edmon, Horace Foulkes, Eva Glasscock, Margaret Gray, Abe Gold-stone, Esther Hettinger, Harry Het-tinger, Louis Herns, Lotta Hollopefer, Alvera Harry, Olga Klekar, Nathan Levy, Josephine Newell, Maxine Miller, Marcellus Mills, Grace Roberts, Ida Robinson, Mignon Schow, Annie Townd. Alice Van Schoonhoven and Harold Wolverton.

R. C. Dolbin, representing the Vista House Association, spoke at Lincoln Tuesday morning urging the students to give their loyal support in contrib-uting to the Vista House fund.

The Adelphians, at their meeting Thursday afternoon in room 114, revised the constitution of the society. The give a delightful reception for the girls of the freshman class in the school library Wednesday afternoon. The library was decorated with green crepe paper, the frue freshman color. A short pregramme was given. Mildred Hawes, president, welcomed the girls. Ellnor Pillsbury read "The Introduction," by Annie Hamilton Donnell. Mr. Davis gave an interesting talk full of good advice to the freshmen. Tea, wafers and "all-day suckers" were served. The committee in charge of the reception was: Jessie McDonlad, Ellnor Pillsbury, Elsa Armstrong, Edith Pitts, Myrite Smith, Ella Dixon and Marie Canel. Miss Burton, Miss Amos, Miss Marsh, Miss Moore, Miss Larrabee, Miss Downs, Miss Moore, Miss Larrabee, Miss Downs, Miss McIntosh and Miss Mills, of the faculty, were present.

Friday afternoon the Hakanakies went on a bike out Columbia Bonievard, Alice Biolem, a prominent Haka-went on a like out Columbia Boulevard. Alice Blokm, a prominent Hakahaki, is now attending Franklin High, and has joined the Campfire Girls there.

Seventeen of the graduating class of 23 are enrolled in James John High School and four in Benson Polytechnic School.

School.

Members of the English classes will write compositions to compete for the School and four in Benson Polytechnic School.

ig will be held Monday afternoon at Washington. The Lincoln committee includes Marjorie Kelly, chalrman, Robert Cospriff, Margaret Mansfield, E. R. Holt and Wallace McTarnahan. The June class has begun plans for the class play. A committee committee.

the class play. A committee compris-ing Imogene Seton, chairman; Alan Slade, Melba Peterson, William For-dyce, Sterling Smith, Clara Zaik and Harry Jamleson is working now on the selection of a play. The committee will submit their selection to the class soon.

The vaudeville given at Lincoln by the June class Friday, February 11, netted $130 for the scholarship fund. The fund is now close to $200, which would be a full scholarship.

Donald Montgomery, manager of the vaudeville, will entertain the cast Fri-day evening February 18, with a dance day evening, February 18, with a dance I at the Wheeldon Annex. The German Study Club held its first meeting of the term Wednesday after-neon. Mary Bullock was re-elected president; Anna Bohlman, vice-presi-dent; Sylvia Holzman, secretary; Ruth Wolfe, sergeant-at-arms. The club will study German history this term. The members of the club will take an ac-tive part in the annual German entertainment which will be given probably

Thursday morning a formal assem-bly was held to interest the students in the Cardinal. The Cardinal staff was seated on the stage. William Fordyce editor, presided and introduced the following speakers: Ralph Hoeber, as-sociate editor; Abe Rosenberg, business manager; Robert Cosgriff, assist-ant business manager; Alan Slade, business staff; Harold Ball, prose; Eli-

James John High Notes.

BY DOTT LARSEN

S SCHOOL life and study have bee interspersed with increased activities the past week. The main events, (chairman), Josephine Felts, Ellen Anderson; entertainment. Mary Nicol (chairman). Myrtie Jacobsen, Alice Hester; refreshments, Helen Moreland (chairman), Jessie De Carie, Mildred Conn; Joint programme, Helen Lamar (chairman), Lucille Murton, Ethel Langley; placard, Evelyn Capell (chairman), Marjorle Kellog, Edna Stone. neetings will be concluded by the end of next week.

The Hiak Klatawa, the girls' hiking club, elected officers last Wednesday, The results were: President, Ruth Mc-Gregor, re-elected; vice-president, Susio Lindley; secretary-treasurer, Olive Zimmerman; sergeant-at-arms, Bernice Bromley, James John basketball team lost to Columbia University, 41 to 21, in a clean game last Thursday in the Jefchaperone.

As a new feature in the school life of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; of the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman, of president, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President, Olive Zimmerman; when the students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President and the wening, February 22.

The bensident, Olive Zimmerman; of social centering of the Euthermon and Interesting to Menson that the wening, February 22.

The bensident Quertical and Selection and Ashiand Hills Schools. This students at Benson Polytechnic cers: President and Ashiand Hills Schools. This students at Benson Polytechnic cers: Preside orchestra more useful and necessary finish his course.

for all important affairs. The orchestra is playing the same music as the other

Assemblies are out of office for the rest of the term; Prest

Peninsula School Notes

The Parent-Teachers of Peninsula aper, the frue freshman color. A short School recently gave a reception to regramme was given. Mildred Hawes. the February graduating class. A president, welcomed the girls. Elinor programme, consisting of vocal and in-

Plans are under way for an interhigh school party to be given in Washlington High gymnasium the first week in March. The committees from Washington and Jefferson met the Lincoln committee in the senior room at Lincoin Tuesday afternoon. Another meetof 36.

Dr. J. D. Corby delivered the address on Lincoln Friday, February 11.

Room 15 won the pennant again last month for the best attendance in the grammar grades, with a percentage of 36.

NEWLY-ELECTED OFFICERS OF LINCOLN HIGH PHILOLEXIAN LITERARY SOCIETY.

Left to Right, Elsa Armstrong, Sergeant-at-Arms; Esther Bodman, Vice-President; Mary Bullock, Editor; Belle Contryman, President; Susie Stevenson, Secretary; Helen Stewart, Trensurer; Lorraine Hinson, Boys at Polytechnic Work on "Merit" System.

Attention to Tasks and Study at Hand Wins Time Off—"Tech" Masquerade Is Success — Class of social entertainments during the other students in the shops, or by interm. It is not definitely decided attention when the instructor is explaining a subject, he is fined an hour.

Mr. Kritz is planning to make the from the number of required hours to Assemblies are out of the question at large schools and is now practicing twice a week to become more efficient.

Mr. Campbell, physical director, has placed the symmasium classes under the following leaders: Donald Rose. Class activities are holding a liberal placed the symmasium classes under the following leaders: Donald Rose. Class activities are holding a liberal period; Ray Hawkins, second period; Drott Larsen, third period, and period; Drott Larsen, third period. This is evidenced by the rapid carried for a carried for the classes organize and the period; Lawrence Layton, sixth period; Wesley Wrinkle, seventh period. Providing distribution of number be equal, interperiod tournaments will be held.

The Latin Club is preparing for a Latin glay, "The Roman Wedding," to be given in the near future. The cast will be composed of advanced Latin is necessary for the difficult play.

Assemblies are out of the question at heast wack for the Abraham Lincoln. A general sacembly was held under the auspices of the Abraham Lincoln, Class activities are holding a liberal society. The programme Priday, Pebruary 25. The Phrenodiken Debating Society was held under the auspices of the Abraham Lincoln, Clark Schoboe; plane of the National authem. W. E. Mofile and Washington was period; Class activities are holding a liberal society of the National authem. W. E. Mofile and Washington was opened with the singing of the National authem. W. E. Mofile the first open programme Priday, the subject being Eincoln and Washington. The first number was an impromptu dent. Abraham Lincoln, Clark Schobec; plane by the light that the following programme. Priday, the subject being Lincoln and Washington. The first number was a many programme. Priday, the subject being Lincoln and Washington. The first number was a many programme. Priday, the subject being Lincoln and Washington. The first number w for a good command of Latin is necessary for the difficult play.

The Athletic Association at a meeting Wednesday placed the following in the latin form of the latin which the main events were athletic feats. As a beverage the live wires served coffee.

the constitution of the society. The committee which had charge of revising the constitution comprised Ralph Hoeber, Herbert Cleaver and Rex Levens. The Adelphians will give an informal party Saturday, February 25.

Home the constitution comprised Ralph Gregor; treasurer, Curtis Phillips; football manager for 1916 team, Curtis Phillips; track manager, Carlyle Cunhish the ninth-grade students of these schools, has pleased the blind men more than anything clae, as it seems to make them feel that their presence is being appreciated by the students. preciating the readings given by the we students of the Couch. Shuttuck and Ladd schools. This feature, given by the ninth-grade students of these irer, Wanda Starr; entertainment com mittee Mildred Concannon, Florence Olsen, Alena Jacobson and Harry Sny-der; refreshment committee, Freda Wilder; refreshment committee, Freda Wisson, Lola Lank, Elmer Peterson and Earl Marks; decorating committee, Minnie Biblehausen, Agnes Bryan, Foster Cook and J. C. Garman.

The Benson Polytechnic Alumni held their masquerade dance last Wednes-day evening. This was the second dance the Alumni has given this school year.

The junior class officers are; President, Dena Jones; vice-president, Hilda Jacobson; secretary, Bertle Fuller; treasurer, Rhoda Lind.

The Spring millinery classes are turning out some pretty early Spring hats. The small satin hats with touches of flowers and jet find most favor. The alumni entertained the February, '16, class at a masquerade dance Wednesday night. Wednesday night.

The advanced dramatic science classes are having some interesting lessons in lousecrafts. They have taken up the are of brass, silver, copper, aluminum and other metals used in the home.

Herson, Marie Tonseth; Society, Abby Lyman; Scheol notes, Dorothy Neill, Lyman; Scheol notes, Dorothy Neill, Gwendolyn Stevens; photos, Kenneth Ritchie, Glenard Smith; cartoons, Charles Wells, Wallace Hofer; essays, Marie Tonseth; Society, Abby Lyman; Scheol notes, Dorothy Neill, Gwendolyn Stevens; photos, Kenneth Ritchie, Glenard Smith; cartoons, Charles Wells, Wallace Hofer; essays, Marie Tonseth; Society, Abby Lyman; Scheol, Dorothy Neill, Lyman; scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Gwendolyn Stevens; photos, Kenneth Ritchie, Glenard Smith; cartoons, Charles Wells, Wallace Hofer; essays, Marie Tonseth; Society, Abby Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Gwendolyn Stevens; photos, Kenneth Ritchie, Glenard Smith; cartoons, Charles Wells, Wallace Hofer; essays, Marie Tonseth; Society, Abby Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Charles Wells, Wallace Hofer; essays, Marie Tonseth; Society, Abby Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Charles Wells, Wallace Hofer; essays, Marie Tonseth; Society, Abby Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Charles Wells, Wallace Hofer; essays, Marie Tonseth; Neill, Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Lyman; Dorothy Neill, Lyman; Scheol, notes, Dorothy Neill, Lyman; Dorothy Ne are luwing some interesting lessons in lousecrafts. They have taken up the care of brass, silver, copper, aluminum and other metals used in the home.

Milks. Mr. Mclendy spoke concerning the new debating clubs and Mr. Strong emphasized the value and importance

Assemblies are out of the question at Benson Polytechnic School from now Parent-Teacher Circle will meet at Beaument School Tuesday, February 22, at 2 o'clock. It is expected that every one interested in the schools will try to be present.

Thesenson and Bernice Miller.
Theseday, during the fith and part of the sixth periods, an assembly was called, and H. D. Lee, of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, and J. D. Garvin, of Oregon Agricultural College, talked to the school.

Mr. Lee represented the committee of organizers of the Vista House, to be built upon Crawn Point Columbia. Those perfect in attendance last term ere Milton Buck, Ellis Cummins, icholas Neilson and Dudley B. Starr.

The Roll of Honor SELLWOOD.

I. H. Morgan, Principal.

Manny Glade Cason
Siegrist Violet Knudson
Garel Lockwood
Melvin Nelson Herbert Siegrist Joe Dahlgren Arios Kyle David Manny
Harold Page
Vera Curey
Almeda Cowles
Rhes Falls
Evelyn Lawrence Melyin Neison Margaret Wahlstrom Lois Beale Elaine Colt Helen Kruger Ereling Bakke George O'Connell George O'Connell Genneth Shipley Frances Butler Dorfthy Sellwood Isrold Sinclair Villiam Johnson Frank Dolp Blate Milier Misie Milier
Rena Scott
Gladys Wright
Frances Meyer
Marie Wills
Lucile Foster
Jyle Rasmussen
Paul Miller
Larells Meind!
Lynn McCann
George Tichenor
Hazel Deardorff
Dwight Thorsen
Leita Mills
Helen Sinolair
Neille Brrant
Irene Jennen

> lelen Stuben ladys Boslee Henrietta Markentin built upon Crown Point, Columbia Highway, in honor of the early plo-neers of Oregon. J. D. Garvin spoke about debating and public speaking. Mr. Garvin is president of the debating club at Ore-gon Agricultural College, and is trying to interest the school in this line of Gertrude Cowgill, president of Neakahni, has appointed committees for the term. They were announced Wednesday. The board committee is Wednesday. The board committee is Dorotty Morrill (chairman). Dolly Lychywek and Emma Garbade; pro-gramme committee, Marion Butter-worth (chairman). Esther Peterson work.

February 4. Officers were elected as follows: Janet Daniels, unanimously elected president; Ethel Talt, vice-president; Lucille Ewing, secretary; Elizabeth Singleton, assistant secretary; Hulda Faust, treasurer; Mildred Weeks, editor; Mary Gardner, critic and Dolly Lychywek, sergeant-at-

The Eukrineon Debating Society held election of officers Friday after school.

Those elected were: Edwin Noreen, president; John Dentler, vice-president; Allen Couer, freasurer: Hubert Barzee, secretary; McCoy Blackburn, recorder; George Coffee, editor, and Albert Lane, sergeant-at-arms. Albert Lane, sergeant-at-arms.

Eunice Cowgill and Ruth Diehl entertained on Saturday evening. February 5, with a dancing party given at Vincent Hall, East Forty-second street and Sandy boulevard. In spite of the storm and the absence of electric lights, nearly everyone was there, and lighted candles placed about the hall gave a decidedly novel effect. Those invited were Dorothy Donlon, Eva Lange, Virginin Giles, Lenore Blaesing, Lucia Watson, Beatrice Cathers, Out of respect and boner for Mr. Lucia Watson, Beatrice Cathers, Audray Collins, Marcella Whiltaker,
Frances Grand, Jeanette Snedaker,
Alma Scharpf, Dorothy Feenaughty,
Mary Olinger, Mary Rawlins, Dorothy
Phillips, Laura Shay, Lois Macy, Vera
Boyer, Helen Sandish, Edwina Clough,
Edith Piric, Mildred Lauderdale, Mil-Edith Pirie, Mildred Landerdale, Mildred Weeks. Merle Carter, Clarence Gray, George Ross, Floyd Bowies, Allen Malleroy, Olin Lewis, Junior Palet, Donald Cook, Wendell Hurlburt, Clifford Whittaker, Robert Bown, Ransom Cook, Maleolm Ransmesen, Edward Miller, George Miller, Lanthrop Dougail, Douglas Farrell Robert Duniway, Donald McLellan, Rush Mendenhall, Donald Feanuaghty, George Pirie, Melvin Raamussen, Paul Wiggins, Charles Moreland, Dean Hyskelt, Harold Mann, Nelson Clark, Clarke White, William Gray, Kenneth Coloman, Patronesses were Mrs. P. A. Cowgill, Mrs. James H. McMenamin and Mrs. William Schmitt.

Miss Ada Alice Tuttle, of the Mc-

Miss Ada Alice Tuttle, of the Mc-Donnel Club, gave a musical recital for the benefit of the Washington students.

Room five was the first room in Washington to establish the honor system which is now inaugurated in nearly overy room in the building. Room five has recently elected the officers of the term and chosen the managing committee. The officers are: President, Helen Duck; henorable past president, Amagorite Rood; vice-president Alma Scharpf; secretary, Will Gregory, The managing committees to Work.

Marjorie Rood; vice-president Alma Scharpf; secretary, Will Gregory, The managing committee is made up of Alice Taylor, Beryl Vinson, Venta Tegart, Thelma Hammersly, Mildred Lauder-duck, Committees to Work.

Marcella Catto, editor of the Lens, has announced her staff for the term. It includes Tom Felts, associate editor, Marioric Rood, associate Misses Marguerite Cook, Marion

Misses Marguerite Cook, Marion

editor; Gerald Stevens, business man-ager; Don Bates, assistant business manager; fiction, Bessic Ford, Mildred Weeks, Howard Dark, Miriam Hilton; verse, Irene Reynolds, Genevieve Gor-reil Josephine Felts, Frank Forrester; athletics, George Black, Russell Pat-terson, Marie Tonseth; society, Abby

The Stevens pupils are to have a representative for the Lens and the student body, who are going to keep the interest as high in the annex as in Washington. They are also going to send a representative from the freshman class for the executive committee.

mittee is composed of "Spud" Normadin, Charles Wells, Bernadine of the Granning and Don Orput, attempted to put the puppy back into the office, but the youth and pugnetty of the Hill, Abby Lyman, Gertrude Cowgil, Stanton Lapham, Edwin Strowbridge, Vesta Tegart, Sarde Wiest and Ted Peterson. Albert Combs is acting severetary of the student body.

Mr. Holloway, with the assistance of Mr. Granning and Don Orput, attempted to put the puppy back into the office, but the youth and pugnetity of the years for the science department to conduct a trip up the Columbia where he frisked about until his appetite got the science students, this Spring, Carretary of the student body. At a meeting of the June, 1916, class

At a meeting of the June, 1916, class repast.

Monday plans were discussed for the Leap Year basket social, to be given vert." for so his name implies, he the Lens the splendid paper that it is

Couch School Notes.

On Friday, February 11, Couch Schooleld exercises in honor of Lincoln. Mil ton W. Smith addressed the assembled children on the life of Lincoln, calling to their attention the lesson of Lincoin's unselfishness and devotion to duty. The pledge to the flag was taken, and patriotic songs were sung by the pupils under the leadership of Miss Elizabeth Singleton gave a recitation and pat with her usual ability; several anecdotes of Lincoln and Washington were Batelle.

Miss Harriet Wood, of the school de- editor. mire Harriet Wood, of the school department of the library, spent Thursday morning with the eighth and ninth grades. Miss Wood gave interesting talks on the value of reading aloud, on correct posture, on the use of the voice, and on the choice of books. The pupils showed great interest.

by the pupils.

Two 8-year-old Couch pupils, Dorothy Ottenheimer and Harold Lee, demonstrated rapid work in arithmetic before the Progressive Business Men's Club on Thursday, They made a credttable shewing. itable showing.

Glencoe School Notes.

Glencoe School Notes.

The prospective graduating class of Glencoe School is deeply interested in its share of the production of "The Deestrict Skule"—the selling of the Jefferson first team by the score of the Jefferson first team by the score of the Jefferson first team by the score of the Selling assembly Paul Campbell spoke in behalf of the student body, explaining for the benefit of the freshmen what that organization was, its purpose, and asked that everyone join. The tax is 25 cents a term, and 56 cents entitles one to admission to all interscholastic baseball games.

The Phrenodiken Debating Society held its first business meeting Friday.

Glencoe School Notes.

The prospective graduating class of Glencoe School is deeply interested in its share of the production of "The Deestrict Skule"—the selling of the team by the score of the Jefferson first team by the Jefferson first team by the Score of the Jefferson first team by the held its first business meeting Friday, Handler and Maria Brinea,

"Live Wires" at Jefferson Elect and Plan Work.

ganized-Principal Jenkins Talks to Boys on Smoking, Revealing Fact That Sophomores and Juniors Are Worst Offenders.

BY JOHN W. KENNEDY. Tillis June, '16, class is mourning the I loss of one of its most distinguished members, Jonas Felen became unexpectedly ill on the evening cently. As customary, two students were elected from each registration room to represent their room in all atvocal numbers.

In place of the regular Friday programme three of the Eukrineous gave short talks in the meeting of the society. Albert Lane, Leon Tamiesic and Frank Sullivan spoke on debating and interest in the club work.

Room fire

dale, Anna Roberts, Kathryn Walker, Marion Forte. Mathew Linnehan is teacher in room five.

Misses Marguerite Cook, Marion Bennett and Marjorie Rood sang at the Progressive Business Men's tuncheon at the Oregon Grill Thursday, Miss Cook, Miss Bennett and Miss Rood were members of the Washington double oungfet.

Probably one of the most practical studies which has been inaugurated for the first time this semester, is the study of drawing by girls who intend to make all of their own gowns. A special art class has been organized by the instructors of the domestic art department, which will lend to teach only the designing of gowns to those girls who have never had drawing.

girls who have never had drawing.

The large boxes for waste materials and paper were recently placed around the building and campus by the June. 16. claus.

Extensive plans are being developed by the Juno. '16, class, which will fur-ther the movements of the class toward the better of him and ac headquarters to partake of his midday pany, and the party enjoys all the company.

The better of him and ac pany, and the party enjoys all the company.

The better of him and ac pany pany, and the party enjoys all the company.

The better of him and ac pany pany, and the party enjoys all the company.

Under the direction of Mr. Easthan and Mr. Ritchie, the science departme will recite two periods on one day, while on the next, they will spend two periods in the laboratory.

The "Jay-Hi," a new literary produ tion, made its first appearance on St. Valentine's day. It is a next little booklet, which is filled with wit and cartoons. The principal object of the Jay-Hi is to promote enthusiasm for the "Spectrum," and Robert Mount is morning with the eighth and ninth grades. Miss Wood gave interesting talks on the value of reading aloud, on correct posture, on the use of the voice, and on the choice of books. The papils showed great interest.

The eighth A pupils have organised a "Wide-Awake" grammar club. The officers are: President, Susan Tucker-vice-president, George McKinley; secretary, Mildred Arland: treasurer, Charles Bragg.

The boys' ninth A baseball team began practice Thunday. Paul Harris is captain, and Ray Dodge is manager.

The stereopticon views presented to the geography students thin week by Principal Cannon were pictures of seenery and industries of the Northwest. This is part of the visual educational work of Couch. It is greatly enjoyed by the pupils.

Two 8-year-old Couch pupils, Dorothy Ottenheimer and Harold Lee, demon-

George H. Himes, of the Oregon His-torical Society, entertained the student body with an interesting speech during a special assembly last Tuesday. M Himes spoke for the benefit of the pre-posed Visin House, which is to be all unted at Crown Point.