Miss Marie McBride who has returned from a visit in the South

Mrs. A. Shene Moody, Chi Omega Member Fete Committee

Woman and spends her recreation hours riding. She has become a familiar figure in both of these cities. On account of their stay in Portland being so short, and Miss Lyle singing on Saturday night, she will not be able to enter into social activities, much to the regret of their many friends here. Miss Lyle made numerous friends in California.

An informal tea given last week by Mrs. William Evans announced the engagement of Miss Edith Bredlove to Herbert Cooke. A green St. Patrick's day decorative scheme was attractive and about 80 maids and matrons attended. Miss Bredlove who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bredlove is a popular member of the Phi Delta Sigma Sorority. Mr. Cooke is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Delta Theta Phi law fraternity. Their marriage will be in May.

Spring blossoms, roses, sweet music and the presence of many attractive young girls and matrons made the reception given yesterday by Miss Agnes McBride one of the loveliest of the year.

Miss Marie McBride, who has recently returned from California, was the guest of honor. The hostess was attired in a smart gown of lavender taffeta and her sister, Miss Marie McBride, wore green net partly veiled in fine silvery lace. Mrs. D. B. McBride was handsome in yellow brocade satin.

The drawing room was banked in pink roses and ferns and in the parlor, pink roses prevailed. The library was gay with rich red roses and in the dining-room were green carnations and bows of green tulle. Mrs. F. L. Loneragan and Miss Bertha Masters poured the tea. Miss Marie McBride is a member of Phi Omega Sigma. She is gifted in a musical way and has studied extensively in San Francisco.

The annual banquet of Delta Gamma Sorority was held yesterday in the home of Mrs. Harry Kimball. The rooms were decorated with Spring blossoms. Lavender tulips adorned the table and were placed as favors marking each place. Covers were laid for Mrs. W. T. Belcher, Mrs. James B. Kerr, Mrs. George Bright, Mrs. Donald Pague, Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, Mrs. Francis Curtis, Mrs.

The Pan-Hellenic association was entertained Saturday in the home of Mrs. John Claire Monteth. Phi Beta Phi received. Among those who assisted Mrs. Monteth were Mrs. Burton Beck, Mrs. George Guthrie and Miss Gertrude Blackman. A short business session was conducted by Miss Maurice McAdam, president of the Pan-Hellenic. Miss Dagmar Ines Kelly sang a group of beautiful solos. The home was artistically decorated with Spring blossoms. In the dining-room rose-colored hyacinths centered the table, and the girls who presided

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, of Irvington. The Smiths recently came from The Dalles, where they have a wide circle of friends. Since taking up their residence here they have made many new friends. The bride is well known in the college set. She is Kappa Alpha Theta of the University of Oregon, a graduate of St. Helen's Hall and of the Washington preparatory school. Mr. Holden is a Sigma Chi man of Oregon, and was active in athletic events. The ceremony was quietly solemnized last evening. E. Beck in the presence of relatives. Rev. Oswald Taylor, of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church, read the service. The bride wore a smart, tailor of blue taffeta, with hat to correspond. Her corsage was of orchids. There were no attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Holden left later for a wedding trip, and on their return, after April 1, will be in their new home at 195 East Eighteenth street. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram W. Holden, of Portland.

To celebrate the 57th birthday anniversary of Max Lang, an elaborate birthday dinner was given on Friday night. To add to the pleasure of the affair, the distinguished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isador Lang, arrived from St. Paul for a short visit.

Of interest to many of Portland's younger set was the Kappa Kappa Gamma formal dance given last night in the Hotel Eugene. Beta Omega chapter served as hostesses to a merry throng of guests. The hotel was decorated artistically with pink carnations and pussy-willows. The feature dance was an elaborate affair with intricate marches and dainty figures making a picturesque attraction. The hall was marked by the number of pretty girls present. The patrons and patronesses included Mr. and Mrs. George T. Geringer, of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. DeCon, Eugene; Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rover, of Eugene.

After the dance dainty refreshments were served in the Japanese tearoom. The charming evening gowns worn by the girls and the pretty decorations gave the dance a distinctive note of beauty. The guests included:

FREE
 Instruction in Rope Basket Weaving

Here is an opportunity for every woman to learn what can be done with Dennison's Newest Crepe Paper. Unless you have at some time seen a demonstration, you have no conception of the wonderful things you can learn to make. Commencing Wednesday, Mrs. Wilson, who has come to us direct from the Dennison factory, will give free lessons in making dainty and novel place cards, ice cups, favors, lamp shades, rope baskets, etc., etc. This is a most interesting and profitable pastime, and in a half hour Mrs. Wilson can teach you the fundamentals of the art.

Picture Framing
 Mrs. Wilson will also give lessons in picture framing with Dennison's new paper-framing material, a news description of which appeared in the November, 1915, number of the Ladies' Home Journal. Dainty and attractive frames can be made by the method Mrs. Wilson will teach, and their cost will be but a trifle. Bring in the pictures to be framed that are in the April 1 number of the Ladies' Home Journal. Mrs. Wilson will show how simple and practical the work is. You can do it yourself after the first lesson.

Paper Flower Making
 Instructions and demonstrations in making paper flowers from Dennison's Crepe Paper will also be given. Come, you will spend an interesting and instructive afternoon, or morning, as you choose. (Take Elevator to Second Floor.)
