

SHORTAGE IN WOOD NOTED LAST YEAR

Letter by E. A. Fearing to The Oregonian in August Suggests Discrepancy.

CITY'S FIGURES RIDICULED

Charge Made That Profits Went to Man That Sold Stumpage, Man Who Fed Cutters and to Contractors Who Did Hauling.

That the recently-discovered shortage of 1100 cords of the city's wood at unemployment camp No. 2, near Linnnton, was just as much a shortage last July as it is now, is the declaration of E. A. Fearing, of Portland, who reports that he had occasion to look over the wood in the timber last summer. At that time he wrote a letter to The Oregonian, which was published, calling attention to the shortage. He said the city claimed to have 10,000 cords on hand and paid for that amount, while as a matter of fact actual observation showed that there was less than 9000 cords.

NOTED PAINTER IS HERE

R. BRUCE HORSFALL TO ASSIST IN NATURAL HISTORY SURVEY.

Oregon Is Wonderful State for Birds and Game, Declares Man Famous for Studies of Nature.

Under date of August 1, 1915, I write a communication to The Oregonian, which was published, stating that there was less than 9000 cords in the timber, and that the city would realize less than one-half of the $38,000 which it declared was the value thereof. I wish to acknowledge my error as to the value, for I see by the Auditor's last report that the city has spent $66,415 in the enterprise, and has realized $15,054.

R. Bruce Horsfall, Who Has Come to Oregon for Bird Painting, and His Small Son.

Commissioner Bigelow is still on the hunt for the man who fed the men and the fellow who does the hauling all get a nice slice out of it. I am told that the man who fed these cutters got a nice profit of $2000. So, all in all, the city will hardly realize enough out of this enterprise to repay the $25,000 which was appropriated for hauling the wood.

$390 SAVED DURING MARCH

Mr. Coffey Turns Over Funds Formerly Pocketed by County Clerk.

The total of $390.87 turned over to County Treasurer Lewis by County Clerk John B. Coffey yesterday was money that under the old fee system would have gone into the pockets of the County Clerk during the month of March. Of the amount $114 was taken in for petitions and $26.50 on declarations of intention to become naturalized. The remainder of the money, $250.37, is interest on funds in Portland banks.

MILK SAVES BABY'S LIFE

Infant Rapidly Regains Lost Health on Coming to Portland.

Portland's milk has scored another health victory. It has saved the life of the infant daughter of Chief Sanitary Engineer Guerdum, of the Public Health Service, of the Philippine Islands. Mr. Guerdum came to Portland some time ago with his wife and baby on leave of absence. The leave was obtained because of the poor health of the baby in the Philippines. Having heard of the excellence of Portland's milk the youngster was brought here and has recovered entirely and grown fat. Mr. Guerdum will deliver an address tomorrow morning to the inspection force of the City Health Bureau at the City Hall.

Victory Over Seattle in Membership Contest Is Confidently Expected.

BOYS SHOW ENTHUSIASM

Campaign Closes Tomorrow Night. Result Will Be Announced at 9 P. M.—Count Will Be Made at Final Dinner.

SEATTLE-PORTLAND COMPARISON IN Y. M. C. A. CONTEST. Total to Date. Seattle—59,695 points. Portland—53,750 points. Yesterday's Results. Portland—Men, 79; boys, 81; $1621; 134,190 points. Seattle—Men, 75; boys, 87; $1175.25; 149,425 points.

When the workers in the membership campaign for the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday reported 130 applications for the day, it marked the highest number received any day during the week, and placed the total for Portland at 412.

Not to be caught napping a second time, the "Du Plux" team, under the leadership of Colonel O. M. Davidson, yesterday rallied their men for a noon-day luncheon and turned in almost double the number secured by Colonel Ed Werlein's "Wolmeas." The score was 34 applications for the Du Plux to 46 from the Wolmeas.

The campaign has been gradually warming up during the week, more enthusiasm being noticeable on Saturday than at any other time, and it is believed that with a good, strong push on the part of every citizen of Portland, the final count will place the figure ahead of last year, when 1100 members were secured.

Boys Secure Members. A feature of the membership campaign that is just beginning to attract attention is the work of the 300 boys under 15 years of age, who have volunteered to "rustle" for boy members. A number of prizes have been donated by Olds, Wortman & King, and the struggle for possession of the trophies is keen.

At the beginning of the campaign a "scout brigade" was organized among the boys of the First Presbyterian Church, for the purpose of locating men and boys who would make good timber for the Wolmeas to work on.

Gift Memberships Purchased. Two boys' memberships were purchased Saturday by Judge Magers, of this city, and will be given to needy boys.

ization of traveling salesmen which is of democratic religious tendencies. Instead of a noon luncheon, a 6:15 dinner on Monday evening will be served at the Y. M. C. A. for the working teams. At that time the final count will be made, and the winners determined between Portland teams, and soon after 9 P. M. it will be known whether Portland or Seattle has won the annual contest.

E. A. MUNCEY GOES SOUTH. Wells-Fargo Employee Leaves to Take Agency at Los Angeles.

E. A. Muncey, who has been general agent for Wells-Fargo & Company Express in Portland for the last three years, left last night for Los Angeles, where he will assume his new duties as general agent in that city.

OVERHEAD SEWER ADVISED. Proposal Made to Prevent Interference With Linnnton Road Traffic.

Wanted—An overhead sewer. As the laying of a sewer on the Linnnton road would seriously interfere with traffic, R. Willis Holton, signing presumably for 30 other residents of Linnnton, petitioned County Clerk John B. Coffey yesterday to see if plans for an underground sewer could be changed to provide for an overhead sewerage system.

MARCH FIRE RECORD LOW

Month's Calls Fewer Than in Any Like Period Since Feb., 1909. The lowest number of fire alarms for any month since February, 1909, and the lowest number for any March since 1905, were records made during March of this year, according to the official figures compiled yesterday by Fire Marshal Stevens.
