Ford Tarpley had charge of the evening, which was quite a smart affair, with a distinguished audience in attendance.

Miss Cornelia Cook and Miss Rhoda Rumlain were hostesses on Tuesday at two delightful and informal little parties.

Miss Cook entertained at tea for a few of the younger girls and matrons. Miss Rumlain gave a bridge party for a dozen intimate friends who enjoyed an hour or so at the fascinating game.

Society is anticipating the annual silver tea of the Old People's Home, to be held on Easter Monday.

For Miss Lillian Tingle, who will leave on Thursday for a visit in Japan, Miss Edna Groves and Miss Winifred Kerr will give an informal tea today in the Madison Park apartments.

General and Mrs. Marion Maus left yesterday for California. After several months in the South, General and Mrs. Maus will go East for the summer.

Mrs. Harold Huggins is visiting here from Japan, where her husband is connected with the Consular service. She is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Huggins.

Mrs. Manton C. Mitchell and son, of Honolulu, are visiting Mrs. Mitchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Carroll. She will remain here two months and will then go to Providence, R. I., to be the guest of her husband's relatives.

Lieutenant Mitchell has been stationed in the islands three years, but is now on the Mexican border with his regiment.

One of the attractive parties of the week was that of the Portland Heights Club. Cards and dancing were enjoyed Friday night by a large number of members and guests. The patronesses were Mrs. D. J. Malarky, Mrs. A. F. Matthews, Mrs. H. C. Carpenter and Mrs. Omar C. Spencer. The social

CHARMING IRVINGTON GIRL'S MARRIAGE TO WELL-KNOWN BAKER PLAYER WILL BE SOLEMNIZED TOMORROW.

Miss Gladys Morgan
BUSWELL PHOTO

Miss Gladys Morgan, talented as an actress, socially popular in her set and an attractive Irvington girl, will be married tomorrow to William Lloyd, a member of the Baker Stock Company. The bride has frequently appeared at the Baker Theater, where she has been greatly admired. Mr. Lloyd is an actor of ability. Their marriage is the outcome of a romance having its beginning at the theater.

Miss Morgan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert C. Morgan. The ceremony will be celebrated tomorrow at 3 o'clock at the family home, 484 East Twenty-seventh street, by the Rev. Oswald Taylor, of Grace Memorial Church, officiating. Miss Ethel Chase will be bridesmaid, and Walter B. Gilbert, director of the Baker Stock Company, will be best man.

At the conclusion of Mr. Lloyd's engagement here, the couple will go to Chicago for a visit and later will go to Michigan for Mr. Lloyd's summer engagement in a stock company. Thirty guests will attend the marriage tomorrow.

Those enjoying the evening were the Misses Hilma Fox, Alta Inman, Helen McMillan, Helen Wegmann, Edna Cobb, Genevieve Keller, Esther Zimmerman, Rita Lind, Constance Davis, Jeannette West, Annabelle Crawford, Gladys Morgan, Esther Rudeen and Mrs. Arthur Torgler. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stone, 71 Trinity Place, Monday afternoon, April 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baker were entertained Wednesday night on the occasion of their thirtieth wedding anniversary at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stone. Mr. Baker has been an association secretary for nearly seven years. Other guests were the Y. M. C. A. secretaries and their wives. An informal musical programme was given after the dinner.

Richard J. Butler, of New York, who visited Portland last Summer, is here again on a business trip. Mr. Butler planned to arrive about March 1, but was taken ill in San Francisco and remained in the south to recuperate. His friends in Portland society are welcoming him and are rejoicing at his recovery. Mr. Butler was entertained by friends last night at an informal dinner at the Hotel Portland.

A chain of card parties is being given in Irvington for the benefit of the Irvington children's playground. With a junior "stepping party," a meeting of the Dramatic Study Club and the usual club dance the Laurelhurst Club has spent a busy week. Of next week's festivities perhaps the most important will be the dance tomorrow night for members and friends. Tuesday afternoon Miss Ethel Hardy and Mrs. J. B. Kettnerhoff will be hostesses for the women's card party at the clubhouse, and Friday evening Mr.

The Irvington Club will give a formal dancing party at the clubhouse next Friday. This party will be for the older members of the club and their invited guests, for whom invitations can be secured from the committee. The formal dancing parties of the Irvington Club are always a social event during the season and the committee in charge of this affair is W. M. Kapus, Judge W. N. Gasten, Dr. E. T. Hedlund, R. G. E. Cornish and A. H. Cousins.

Miss Ethel Chase entertained last night at a stocking shower for Miss Gladys Morgan, whose wedding will be an event of Monday. Thirty-five guests assembled to pay honor to the bride-elect.

Mrs. Frank T. Bourgeois, of 313 East Third Street, is planning several dinner parties for Miss Margaret.

PORTLAND COUPLE HONORED WITH PARTY ON 25TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

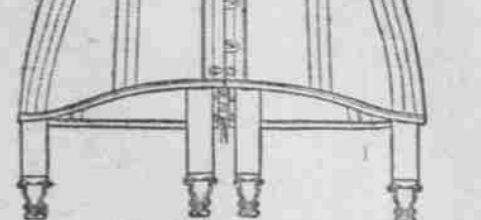

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney, of 497 Clay street, were the recipients of a delightful surprise party on Thursday night in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Cheney were married in Oregon City in 1891. Mr. Cheney was a publisher there for 15 years, but is now interested in business here. They have many friends who showered them with congratulations and presents.

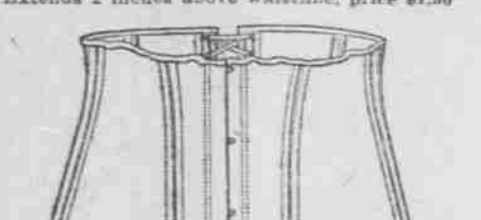

A handsome silver dish was presented, the address being made by Dr. A. Thayer. Flowers and gifts arrived during the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Cheney was Carrie Doollittle before her marriage.

Mary T. Goldman's Gray Hair Color Restorer is the original preparation for safely and quickly restoring the natural color to gray, faded and bleached hair in a few days. Leaves the hair clean, fluffy and natural.

Free Trial Package and special comb. Test it on a lock of hair. This test will prove more than anything we could say in an advertisement. Write now and de suse to tell the original color before it turned gray. Was it black, dark brown, medium brown or light brown? Regular $1.00 size at your drug store, or I will fill your order direct. Cheaper imitations, not being able to imitate the preparation itself, have copied our labels almost word for word. To be safe and sure, remember the name—Mary T. Goldman.

This Actually Devitalizes Coarse Hairy Growths

Stubborn growths of coarse hair which have been caused by the unwise use of pastes, rub-on preparations and worthless imitations of De Miraculo, which merely remove hair from the surface of the skin, can only be devitalized with De Miraculo, the original liquid hair remover, because it attacks hair under the skin as well as on the skin. Well groomed women always use De Miraculo for removing hair from limbs and under the arms. De Miraculo never disappoints. Buy by name and you will get the only depilatory that has a binding antiseptic in each package which entitles you to your money if it falls. In 50c, $1.00 and $2.00 bottles, at your dealer's, or direct, postpaid, in plain wrapper, De Miraculo Chemical Co., Dept. A-4, Park Ave. and 129th St., New York.
