Holders of First Three Places Are Entertained at Stag Dinner at Portland Hunt Club Clubhouse at Garden Home.

By far the most successful and larses of the 1916 2-6 5.9 20.24 24.27 season under the auspices of the Portland Hunt Club was held yesterday afternoon. It was the annual open paper chase for a stag dinner, the first three to finish to be the guests of the other riders at the Garden Home club-liouse.

William Walter on Mike Wisdom and and black wing George Stanley on Olai furnished one of the real thrills of the afternoon by coming down the home stretch neck and neck. Walter managed to nose his opponent out in the last 10 yards of the run.

Third honors went to James Nicol on Edgewood Girl, The ride was in charge of Sheldon A. Volkman and the trall was laid by Mrs. A. M. Cronin and Mrs. James Nicol over one of the most ploturesque parts of the country around Garden Home. Both the start and the Garden Home. Both the start and the finish was in front of the clubhouse, 28-19 and this affords the large gallery an 20-27 poportunity to witness the sensational spurts of the various riders.

A total of 41 men riders were on hand and 22 of them rode through. Immediately after the open chase, 34 women members of the Portland Hunt Club and their guests were entertained at tea by the men riders who marticle. at tea by the men riders who particlpated in the chase.

The stag dinner was largely at-
