Housewives-- LINENS!

Our Preparedness Sale Offers
Unexampled Savings--COME

We anticipated this great linen shortage many months ago; in fact, we placed large orders for tablecloths and napkins, and linens by the yard—and more fortunate than many other stores, we have received a large per cent of our orders. That is why we are now ready with full stocks of the finest quality linens—marked at prices of a year ago.

J. Le Page, mother of the songstress, is the grand regent of the Daughters of Isabella for the state of Washington. Miss Le Page's voice is of exceptional range, her tones reaching from B below middle C to G above. Her notes, say critics, are as true and sweet as those of a violin. In her Orpheum programme she sings an aria from "Madame Butterfly," "Sunshine of Your Soul," a ballad, "Amarella," a Spanish waltz song and "Annie Laurie." Miss Le Page is the Orpheum tour at Calgary two weeks ago. Reviewers there extolled her act highly and she was equally successful in Seattle last week.

Percy Bronson and Winnie Baldwin will entertain with "A 1916 Songology," a melange of singing, dancing and patter enlivened by several rapid changes of costume.

An act of especial interest in Portland is "The Lollars," a comedy sketched and presented by Harriet Marlotte and Company, of which Miss Marguerite McNulty, a Portland girl, is a member. "The Lollars" was written by Edgar Allen Wolf and is a farce that moves with lightning rapidity.

OPERA AT HEILIG APRIL 17

"Robin Hood" Will Be Presented by De Koven Company.

The attraction at the Heilig Theater, six nights, beginning Monday, April 17, with special matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, will be the De Koven Opera Company, in a production of "Robin Hood." This is the company organized by Reginald de Koven, the composer, to restore the glories of English light opera.

The principals were recruited from the grand opera-houses of Europe and America, and a revival of "Robin Hood" was made at the New Amsterdam Theater in New York two seasons ago, where it ran for six months to capacity houses, was then transferred to the Knickerbocker Theater for another run, and subsequently toured the country to enthusiastic welcome.

It was Mr. De Koven's intention to make it a permanent organization, consequently most members of the original company have been retained and are making their third tour of the country, taking in only the large cities.

The chorus and orchestra of the mother company remain intact and are those that will be seen here. Heading the present company are Ivy Scott, dramatic soprano from the Metropolitan Grand Opera, New York, who sang Maid Marian all last season, and James Stevens, of the Chicago Grand Opera, who sang Little John last season. Another valuable member this season is William Schuster, whose excellent work with the Century Opera Company will be remembered, and who will be seen in the role of Friar Tuck. Others in the company from last season are Phil Branson and Tillie Salinger. The rest of the cast includes Cora Tracy as Alianor-Dale, Ralph Earl as Robin Hood, Carolyn Andrews as Anabel, Sol Solomon as Sir Guy and Herbert Waterhouse as Will Scarlet.

GOLFING GIRLS AT EMPRESS
