MR. MOORES' ENTRY INTO RACE PLEASES

Several Republican Papers Are Enthusiastic in Support of Candidacy.

PARTY LOYALTY IS LAUDED

Mr. Olcott's Connection With Last Administration and Attitude to Present One Criticised and Demand Is for Real Partisan.

Several Republican papers of Oregon have announced their support of Charles B. Moores for Secretary of State. The Pendleton Tribune voices Eastern Oregon sentiment as follows:

"Charles B. Moores has been known for years for his loyalty to the party, his high standing among his fellowmen and unquestioned fitness to fill the high office to which he aspires. He is a Republican, not only in name, but in fact. He should receive the united support of his party and in this event will be elected by a big majority.

"The present Secretary of State, Ben W. Olcott, is not in fact a Republican. He voted for Os West and contributed financial aid to his election as Governor, later rewarded by being appointed by his friend West to the position he now occupies. Olcott soon joined the 'non-partisan' combination, which was designed to disrupt the Republican party, in the hope of perpetuating in power the mollycoddle Republicans and the sissy Democrats, selected by the combination because of their fealty to their lord, West.

Mr. Olcott Declared Democrat.

"Olcott parades as a Republican biennially, but depends largely on Democratic votes for his success in politics and through his ability to fool Republicans by posing as a member of their party. It has become so generally known among Republicans at this time where he stands and the use to which he employs his high office to belittle the present Governor of this state that it is very doubtful if this last of the notorious tribe of Os West now in public office will be able to much longer succeed in his deception. He will be one of the alleged Republicans seeking office at the hands of Republicans this year that is sure to receive the hearty support of those Democratic papers parading as 'independents,' for mercenary purposes."

This from the Lebanon Criterion is a sample of the sentiment in the Willamette Valley:

Mr. Moores is particularly well fitted for this office by years of successful business and professional life. He is a native son of Oregon and comes from one of the old pioneer families whose name is linked with Oregon achievements since the territorial days. Best of all, he is a Republican who has stood by his party first, last and all the time, working constantly for its success and maintaining his faith in its principles. Mr. Moores is a man worthy of the support of every Republican at the coming primary election, as well as at the general election in November, and his election will be a means of strength to the Republican party in both the state and National campaigns.

"Salem Claims Him."

The Salem Statesman says:

Charley Moores, who has entered the race for Secretary of State, has a lot of friends in Salem. He was a Salem boy and man up to a few years ago. And Salem claims him yet.

The Oregon Messenger, circulating largely in Polk and Marion counties, reprints the Pendleton Tribune editorial with this comment:

Old residents of Salem do not hesitate to affirm—very emphatically—that Olcott always voted the Democratic ticket until he was appointed Secretary of State by Oswald West in 1911.

If the theory of party government had been entirely eliminated by law there might have been no objection to Mr. Olcott's continued incumbency of the office that he now holds, but since parties are recognized and sanctioned by law, and we have a government of and by party, we fail to understand why the Republican party should continue to give its support to a man who is a Democrat at heart and who not only has done nothing for the Republican party, but actually has used his influence to the utmost to destroy it.

The Newberg Graphic says:

The announcement of C. B. Moores as a candidate for Secretary of State sounds good to one who believes that the man nominated by the Republican party at the primary should be a Republican.

Italian Paper For Mr. Moores.

In Portland, La Tribuna Italiana gives this indorsement a prominent position:

Charles B. Meores, chairman del comitato centrale Repubblicano dello stato ha annunziato la sua candidatura per la nomina di Segretario dello Stato dell' Oregon.

Il Signor Moores e stato chairman del comitato centrale Repubblicano dello stato durante le time due campagne elettorali e fu presidente della Camera dei Deputati (House of Representatives) nel 1895.

Egli si e presentato come candidato in esecuito all'insistenze richieste dei Repubblicani di tutto lo state. Il suo avversario Ben Olcott, l'attuale Segretario di State viene acramitamente attaccato da molti eminent Repubblicani per il fatto che egli si e registrato come Repubblicano ma ha strenuamente aiutato i Democratici nell'ottenimento di cariche statali e non ha perciò il diritto all'appoggio del Repubblicani.

This from the Corvallis Gazette-Times, the editor of which is a newcomer, points out the "nigger in the woodpile."

And while we aren't acquainted yet with the ins and outs of Oregon politics, we would like to bet somebody our last year's tile that there is something wrong with this Mr. Olcott, Republican Secretary of State.

Any Republican official who can get the indorsement of a paper like the Portland Journal is open to suspicion. And the Journal not only approves of Mr. Olcott, but it slobbers over him.

We may be entirely wrong about it. We hope we are. The Journal's approbation may be merely Mr. Olcott's misfortune, but until it is satisfactorily explained a Republican is entitled to watch out for a Senegambian in the fireplace fuel.

ELK HERD IS INCREASING

Portland Lodge Initiates Class at Every Meeting.

Another big gain has been made by the Portland lodge of Elks in its quest for members. Each meeting in the last month has brought forth a class of a dozen or more candidates for initiation. Additional applications have been received at every meeting also. Following is a list of those initiated in the last few weeks:

E. R. Peebles, W. A. Erwin, David E. Goldstrom, Sam D. Penney, A. L. Maeder, Frank M. Ring, W. H. Royle, John Unger, Frederick J. Ziegler, F. D. Robbins, C. Ashworth, John W. Baker, C. E. Baty, T. W. Brown, S. T. Comer, I. H. Cramer, Walter H. Evans, C. F. Harbaugh, Nels J. Pearson, H. W. Pierong, A. R. McConnaughey, F. J. Richards, E. O. Secord, Nathan Solomon, Raymond A. Volheim, Almon V. Wells, Roy C. Markee, Charles P. Berg, William Bilsthausen, Michael P. Brennan, L. Hoyt Brown, C. E. Butler, Ernest P. Converse, Joseph Damain, B. F. David, Edwin A. Jacob, Daniel A. McClure, C. A. Peterson, E. A. Taft, Lloyd L. Crocker, P. H. Hoberg and A. W. Muller.

STANDINGS ARE JUMBLED

Miss Rose Uptegrove Makes Biggest Jump in Count, While Good Gain Is Made by Mrs. M. Gilman, Grand Army Candidate.

STANDING OF CANDIDATES IN THE CONTEST FOR FESTIVAL QUEEN.

Rose Uptegrove, Oregon City	61,247
Jewell Carroll, Knights and Ladies of Security	58,582
Waive Jacobs, Klamath Falls	56,476
Louise Taylor, Western Union Telegraph Co.	52,325
Edel Fraasch, Eugene	52,311
Maud Gilman, G. A. R. and Relief Corps	50,497
Georgie White, Corvallis	48,358
Lillian Hendrickson, Foresters of America	39,707
Marian Anderson, Albany	28,776
Muriel Salinz, Pendleton	28,771
Eleanor Jackson, Modern Foresters, McMinnville	19,600
Anna Allen, Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.	17,019
Myrtle McClarkin, Rose City Park	309
Beuhla Vanderpool, McMinnville	165
Mildred Pegg, Vancouver	132
Christine Haek, Forest Grove	14

The relative standing of the candidates for queen of the Rose Festival was turned topsy-turvy in the count yesterday and some of those who had been apparently hopelessly low in the race jumped well up toward the lead.

The volume of votes was so heavy that the office force at the contest headquarters could not count them Friday and, in spite of the efforts to complete a count last night, there still remained thousands of votes uncounted when the office closed, and the standing, as far as the count had gone, was announced.

The purchase of ballots has become so strong that the voting by coupons will be abandoned, owing to the delay it makes in counting.

Miss Uptegrove Gains Most.

Miss Rose Uptegrove, of Oregon City, made the greatest jump yesterday, rising from tenth place in the list to first, which she held throughout the day's count. Jewell Carroll, the Knights and Ladies of Security candidate, rose from fourth to second place, crowding Waive Jacobs, of Klamath Falls, who had held first place for several days, down to third.

Louise Taylor, the Western Union candidate, dropped from second to fourth, and Georgie White, of Corvallis, from third to seventh.

Edel Fraasch, of Eugene, made a notable gain, rising from ninth place to fifth.

Mrs. Maud Gilman Advances.

Mrs. Maud Gilman, of the Grand Army of the Republic, was another candidate who showed a remarkable gain, when she climbed from 12th place on the list to sixth.

Voting has hardly begun for Beulah Vanderpool, of McMinnville; Christine Haek, of Forest Grove, or Mildred Pegg, of Vancouver, but their supporters are buying heavily of votes and the count Monday is expected to bring them well up in the field.

There will be a meeting of the Grand Army Association at Grand Army headquarters, room 575, Courthouse, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. All patriotic orders and anyone interested in electing the Grand Army candidate, Maud C. Gilman, as Rose Festival queen are invited.

ELKS' BAND GIVES CONCERT

Impressive Programme Rendered for Lodgemen and Friends.

The Portland Elks' band gave its first concert of the season Wednesday night and the lodgeroom was filled to capacity with Elks and friends. Joseph Tigano is the conductor.

The opening number, a march, "Walla Walla County Fair," composed by Tigano, had snap and dash to it. The overture, "Orpheus," was well rendered. The waltz, "Les Sirendes," seemed to charm all who heard it. "Babalonia," recollections of grand opera, was a masterpiece, the band being in action from start to finish. "Manana," Chilean dance, brought forth the sweet notes of the clarinets, flutes, cornets and contra-melody of the baritone. The "Grand Fantasie," euphonium solo, "Auld Lang Syne," arranged by Joseph Tigano and played by Eugene Cioffi, was the hit of the evening. Cioffi is a master of this instrument and the finish of his solo brought forth a burst of applause. He responded, and for an encore played "Annie Laurie." "Humoresque" and "The Star of India" were well executed. Selections from the opera, "Poliuto," received an introduction on the Coast when played by the Elks' band. As a musical piece it is grand, being powerful, heavy and the harmony beautiful.

EXECUTIVES FOR GRAND COUNCIL OF OREGON, ROYAL ARCANUM, HOLD ITS ELECTION.

The largest and the third annual session of the grand lodge of Oregon Royal Arcanum was held Tuesday at the Masonic Temple. A business meeting at 10 o'clock began the day. Reports for the year and the election followed. The meeting was closed with an entertainment and vaudeville.

Among the measures adopted was a rule providing substantial aid for the small lodges, by the grand lodge. The next annual session will be held in Portland.

Election of officers resulted as follows: E. R. Reed, grand regent; A. F. Flegel, grand vice-regent; Carl B. Wintler, grand secretary; C. A. Nelson, grand orator; J. R. Wood, past grand regent; C. B. Sewall, grand treasurer; Judge E. C. Bronaugh, grand chaplain; Paul A. Cowgill, grand guide; R. E. L. Duvall, grand warden; J. W. Deifel, of Eugene, grand sentry; W. M. Kapus, grand trustee; George W. Hazen, representative to supreme council; Frank Wilmot, alternate representative to supreme council.

Charles H. Peters, of Denver, Colo., deputy supreme regent, was present to install the officers and also addressed the assembly. Joseph R. Lorett and H. A. Withrow, members of the grand council of Colorado, accompanied Mr. Peters and were visitors at the session.

HUNGER KILLS HEROISM

YOUTHFUL ADVENTURERS BEAT WAY AS FAR AS THE DALLES.

Albert Etchells and Earl Estes, 13 Years Old, Returned to Portland Home by Police.

The youthful hero of a motion picture drama left home at an early age. Life was rough with him, but the intrepid spirit and winning ways of the brave lad overcame all obstacles. Eventually he paid the mortgage on the old home.

Albert Etchells and Earl Estes left their homes in Portland, deserted the certainties of dinner and bed—very comfortable beds and most satisfactory dinners—because one of the boys saw a motion picture play of the Horatio Alger type.

They "bummed" their way to The Dalles, where the police took two cold and hungry boys in charge. Arrangements were at once made for their return to the anxious parents in Portland.

Earl Estes is 13 years old, and his home is at 36 East Emerson street. His father is Robert Estes, Albert Etchells, son of William G. Etchells, lives at 1073 Montana avenue. Both disillusioned boys are glad to get home again.

MRS. JACOB A. HAAK DIES

Woman of 80 Survived by Husband and Five Children.

Although in good health last Thursday when she went for an automobile trip, Mrs. Jacob A. Haak, of 1513 East Morrison street, began to grow weak that night and gradually sank until she died, yesterday morning. She was nearly 80 years of age.

Mrs. Haak is survived by her husband and five children—John H., Charles E., Harry K., Mrs. R. B. Luten, of Portland, and Luther K., of Eagle Point, Or.

The funeral will be held from the residence of John H. Haak, 126 East Fifty-eighth street, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Rev. William G. Moore officiating.

Seaside Volunteer Firemen Busy.

SEASIDE, Or., April 22.—(Special.)—The report of the Volunteer Fire Department for the year ending April 15 shows that the department responded to 14 calls, which resulted in a total estimated loss of $6710. An effort is being made to induce the city to install an automatic fire alarm system, which, it is expected, will reduce future fire losses to a negligible quantity.

LEBANON TO HOLD SHOW

Annual Rose and Strawberry Fair to Open June 1.

LEBANON, Or., April 22.—(Special.)—Lebanon has decided again to hold its annual Strawberry Fair and Rose Show. At a mass meeting held last night it was unanimously voted to give the show on June 1, 2 and 3.

A general committee, consisting of Councilman Reeves, J. C. Mayer and Dr. J. G. Gill, was appointed to make all the necessary arrangements and to act as executive board for the fair.

They will call to their assistance other committees for special features of the festival.

Fifth Man Enters Race for Sheriff.

ABERDEEN, Wash., April 22.—(Special.)—George Stalding, Aberdeen Councilman from 1908-12, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Sheriff, thus making the fifth entry for that job. The other contestants are Deputy Sheriff Joe Searles and Constable C. Y. Fenwick, of Aberdeen; H. W. Hay, of Montesano, and Rube Quinn, former Hoquiam Chief of Police. Giles Quimby, of Montesano and slayer of the outlaw, Tornow, also is expected to enter the race soon.

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous

"Acid" stomachs are dangerous because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the source of the trouble, the acid in the stomach, as dangerous as ever. The acid must be neutralized, and its formation prevented, and the best thing for this purpose is a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, a simple antacid, taken in a little warm or cold water after eating, which not only neutralizes the acid, but also prevents the fermentation from which acid is developed. Foods which ordinarily cause distress may be eaten with impunity if the meal is followed with a little bisurated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist, and should always be kept handy.—Adv.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That's what thousand of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.
