Mrs. Claude V. Bowman (Edna Church) whose wedding was an event of recent date.

tended of the Spring season, over 100 merry-makers entering into the festivities.

One of the big May celebrations is the annual tea for the benefit of the Day Nursery, which will be held this year, on May 18, at the Nursery. The tea will be from 4 to 6 o'clock, and those who will assist in serving will be Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Charles F. Adams, Miss Failing, Miss Maud Ainsworth, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman.

Attractant with Scotch broom and other Spring blossoms, and 200 guests called during the afternoon. BROWNSVILLE, Or., May 2.—(Special.)—The Brownsville High School Girls' Glee Club presented an operetta, "The Wild Rose," successfully under the direction of Miss Eva Gentry, supervisor of music, recently. The cast of characters were: A popular young society belle, Miss Gertrude Tyer, her secretary and friend, Mabel Leonard; her housekeeper, Clara Wade; an eccentric playwright, Nita Sperry; reporters, Margaret Coslow and Hazel Leonard; debutantes, Eva Love, Genevieve Wolfe, Florence Howe, Blah Dinwiddie; a suffragette, Sadie Crume; a charity worker, Genie Howe; a dressmaker, Faye Overtun; a milliner, Ruth Skillman; a perfumer, Blanche Dillingham; The Buttons, Francis Fugh, Emma Leonard, May Sheldon, Gertrude Taylor, Bernice Coslow, Bertha Lee, Ruth Gubert, Edith Walker, Alda Cochran, Crystal Tompleton, Imogene Lamb, Ruth Bailey and Eva Probstel, Miss Mabel Cochran piano accompanist. The operetta was well received. Miss Gertrude Tyer deserves special mention for her clever acting and singing and also Miss Frances Fugh who took the part of "The Buttons."

Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. Robert B. Brandson entertained with cards. There was a large attendance of club members. The chief social event of the week will be tomorrow's meeting of the Dramatic Study Club, when Miss Nina Greenhouse, assisted by the members and their friends, Friday night will be devoted to dancing and cards for members of the club. Of interest to patrons of the Portland Art Association is the new exhibition at the Art Museum, which consists of lithographs by the Seefeldler Club, of London, with a few etchings and engravings lent by Bill Tolson, of San Francisco. Among the artists contributing to the exhibition are Frank Brangwyn, Joseph Pennell, J. McEneaney, Hamilton D. Wehrschmidt, A. R. Hartwick, J. K. Lawson, F. E. Jackson, Ethel Gabain, Spencer Pryse, E. A. Hope, John Copley, A. Easton and others. There are two small etchings by Whistler, one of Seymour Hadon and one of Duror. Among the modern lithographs, Baerston's large "Barges under Snow, London," is remarkable for its beautiful effect of atmosphere and broad treatment. Pennell is well represented by his prints. Brangwyn has two. The work of Ethel Gabain is strong in treatment and modern in subject. Several interesting etchings are included and enjoy them, today these exhibits.

Mrs. Frederick Levy, of San Francisco, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Frank, for several weeks. Mrs. Levy is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Frank, is visiting Mrs. Sigmund Frank. Miss Ida Loewenberg left Tuesday for Indianapolis to attend the convention of the Charities and Corrections Society. Miss Loewenberg will return to Portland the end of this month. Honoring Mrs. Sigfrid M. Unander, who recently returned from New York to visit her sister, Mrs. Alice Benson Beach, the latter entertained with a luncheon at her home on Tuesday. About 100 guests called from 2 to 5 o'clock, many of the guests including the sorority sisters of the honor guest and hostess, members of the Gamma Phi Beta. The rooms were a bower of dogwood blossoms, Scotch broom and fruit blossoms, a color scheme of pink and white being developed throughout the affair. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Ray Matson, Mrs. Louis Starr and Miss Sherry and Mrs. Dunham. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Louis M. Starr was a luncheon hostess honoring Mrs. Unander, the guests being: Mrs. M. C. Banfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. Anand, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Leifer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. C. E. West. One of the merriest of the series of dancing and card parties for which the Knights Templar Club has been host clusters of dogwood blossoms, the members and their wives, sisters and friends attended. Tables were arranged for cards, both bridge and 500 being played. NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., May 6.—(Special.)—Owing to the absence of so many officers and their wives on the voyage and at San Diego, and the spring weather bringing out so many golf and tennis devotees, there has been a scarcity of social events the last few weeks. Colonel and Mrs. Francis French were clearing out a big rooming on Friday night for the officers and ladies of the garrison. Ten tables of bridge were played, the prizes being won by Mrs. W. H. Brooks and Major William Cruikshank. The attractive draw prize was awarded Mrs. George S. Tiffany. Mrs. Allan Parker passed several days with her Harold Young in Portland before leaving for Calexico, Cal., where she will join Captain Parker. Mrs. Harry Hekman has been confined to her quarters with a severe attack of tonsillitis. Mesdames William Brooke, Allan Parker and Miss Nancy Brooke were guests of Major and Mrs. William Cruikshank on Sunday. Mrs. Harold Young passed several days with Mrs. Charles Benedict, Mrs. Weber, N. G. Pike, F. L. Phillips, F. L. Olson, Edward J. Swindells, L. P. Huntington, J. C. Boyer, A. M. Wells, W. H. Miller and L. A. Macrum. Gay informality was the keynote of the Monday night dance at the Laurelhurst Club this week. More than 80 guests enjoyed the hospitality of the club, and the same number were guests at cards the following afternoon, when Mrs. E. G. Chandler and Mrs. W. C. Wilkes entertained. Prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. J. W. Mead and Mrs. Max Smith; in 504 by Miss Lila Sloan and Mrs. W. L. Dalton. The next party in this series will be given Tuesday afternoon, May 16. Mrs. Victor Brandt and Mrs. Conrad P. Olson will act as hostesses for the club. Miss Dorothea Wagner, of Portland, passed the week-end with Mrs. Charles Calvert Benedict. Mesdames William Cruikshank, Robert Offley, Louis Kunzig, Guy R. Rowe, John Page, Jr., Louis Irwin and Mrs. Charles Benedict were the guests of Mrs. Harold Young at a bridge tea on Wednesday afternoon. Mesdames Cruikshank, Page and Benedict assisted Mrs. Young. The apartments of Mrs. Young were most attractive with dogwood, other Spring flowers and foliage. The tea table was centered with pink tulips and white lilies. Major and Mrs. F. C. Field, Captain and Mrs. Robert S. Knox, Lieutenant and Mrs. Ralph R. Glass and Mrs. Torrey B. Maghee were the guests of Mrs. Harold Young on Friday night at the University Club dinner-dance. Mrs. Louis Kunzig and children leave on the first of June for Calexico to join Lieutenant Kunzig. Captains Murray Baldwin, Robert S. Offley and James F. Harbison will take their examination for their majority next week. Mrs. George Parker has been the guest of friends in Portland on several days. EVENTS OF THE WEEK. 25 YEARS AGO

From Sunday Oregonian, May 10, 1891. The Event of the Season at the Marquam Grand Tomorrow Evening. The charity entertainment to be given at the Marquam Grand tomorrow evening under the auspices of Portland's "409" promises to be the most fashionable event of the season, and that it will be witnessed by the finest audience ever assembled in the opera-house. There is no question. Nearly every seat in the house has been sold, and that the affair will be a delightfully interesting one may be seen from the charming programme. Luncheon Party. Mrs. Samuel Heitahu gave a pink luncheon at her home Thursday. Those present were: Mrs. Samuel Heitahu, Miss Heitahu, Miss Knowles, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Mrs. Henry Allen, Mrs. Dietrich, Miss Belcher, Miss Shaden, Miss Magee, Miss Fanny Page, Miss Maclean and Miss Cole. The Ushers Complimented. The ushers at the ladies' reception to the ladies of the Presidential party last Tuesday evening were highly complimented for the graceful manner in which they performed their duties. The following gentlemen acted as ushers: C. H. Dodd, W. F. Burrell, C. M. Idleman, Frank W. Sherman, O. P. Paxton, by Hayward Bell, F. M. Gilmore, F. H. Bartlett, J. Couch Flanders, Dr. Devan, Dr. Nichols, Dr. Macrum, L. R. Kauffman, Lieutenant Caban, Lieutenant Schofield, Lieutenant Hasbrouck, D. M. Clarkson and Mr. Bernstein. A pleasing feature of the reception tendered Mrs. President Harrison at the Hotel Portland was the presentation to her of an exquisite basket of flowers in the name of the department of Oregon by Mrs. Fannie E. Lounsbury, department president of the Woman's Relief Corps, Auxiliary to the Grand Army. The beautiful home of Mrs. H. D. Green, on Cedar Hill, was the scene of a pleasant reception given to Roland Reed, the comedist, and several of his company yesterday morning. Those present were: Roland Reed, Miss Isadora Rush and Mrs. Mary Myers, of the Roland Reed Company, and Manager F. H. Freidlander, of the Marquam Grand. Reed entertained her guests royally, as she usually does. Roland Reed forgot all about "Lend Me Your Wife" by looking down upon the enchanting panoramas spread out before him from this commanding point of view, while Miss Rush was abstracted in gazing upon those "lovely mountains." She Was Kissed by the President. Mrs. C. A. Wheeler and her daughter, Inez, will return this morning from Tacoma, where they have been visiting friends for the past month. Inez gained considerable glory for herself while in Tacoma, having been the first to greet President Harrison upon his arrival here. She was the accredited representative of the school children, and presented both Mr. and Mrs. Harrison with a beautiful bouquet. The President stooped down and kissed her, and she naturally feels very proud of the honor. Angling Party. Mrs. Henry Allen gave an informal angling party Friday night at the Hill House. The prizes were very handsome. Lieutenant Cabell returned from San Francisco on Monday and has resumed his duties at Vancouver Barracks.

Ralph Holzman and their coach, G. L. Koehn, who have just returned from a victorious tour in California, where they defeated the Hollywood, Santa Barbara, San Diego and Lincoln High School of Los Angeles, were entertained at a stag party given by Mrs. M. Levin. Those present included Alfred Shitt, Bill Spellman, Victor Hoeflich, Jerome Holzman, Kid Marg, Louis Herms, M. R. Levin, Abe Abrams, George Koehn, Ralph Hoerber, Ralph Holzman and Jack Levin.

PIERCE-ARROW MOTOR CARS

The present "SERIES FOUR" Six-Cylinder models will be continued without change throughout the balance of this year and the whole of Nineteen-seventeen. The present "PRICES" will be maintained in 1917, if we find it possible to do so, but the situation, both in regard to labor and materials, is such that a revision upward is indicated. After the most searching and exhaustive tests by our Engineering Department of motor experiments and tendencies, both in Europe and this country, we have come to the above conclusion as being the best manner in which we can live up to our conception of duty to our patrons.
