It was held with a wreath of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was a shower of bride roses. She also wore a beautiful pearl sunburst, the gift of the bridegroom.

HELLO! HELLO!

Is That You, Gertrude?

Say, I have some interesting news for you. I was in CHERY'S beautiful store yesterday afternoon, and while looking at other things the manager called my attention to a lot of about 100, I guess, in all, of beautiful silk poplin, gabardine and serge dresses, which they are going to put on sale Monday. They range in value from $22.50 to $47.50, and they are going to sell them from $9.95 to $12.75. O, say, but they are SOME VALUE. Now, listen—You had better go down there tomorrow and look them over and pick up two or three of them. You haven't the money? O, well you don't have to pay all when you get them. You can just pay a part of it and the balance you can arrange to pay in Easy Payments, either by the week or month. Yes, I'll go with you if you want me. Meet me at Tenth and Wash, about 10 A. M. tomorrow. Sure—right there close in the Pittcock block, 383-21 Washington street. All right. Good-by.
