Mrs. McKinley's funeral is held.—Funeral services of Mrs. Jane McKinley, who died as the result of injuries sustained by being burned by gasoline on Thursday at her home, 234 East Twentieth street, were conducted yesterday from the Grand Memorial Episcopal Church, East Seventeenth and Welder streets. Interment was made in Riverview cemetery. Mrs. McKinley was 62 years of age. She is survived by six children, Mrs. Rose Field, Mrs. Alice Van Horn, Mrs. Grace Harkins, Fred, Clarence and Herbert McKinley. Mrs. McKinley was cleaning white gloves with gasoline over a burning stove when the oil caught fire, burning her so badly that she died soon afterwards.

RETURNED MISSIONARY TO SPEAK.—Miss S. Dauernfeld has just returned from Tokyo, Japan, where she devoted 15 years to missionary work. She will speak tomorrow night in the First English Evangelical church, East Sixth and East Market streets. Tuesday night in the Milwaukee Evangelical church, and Wednesday night in the German Evangelical church, Tenth and Clay streets. Miss Dauernfeld is at the head of the Women's Bible Training School, which is the largest and most important school of the sort in Japan. She will tell about this school and the missionary work in Japan and incidentally tell about the Japanese people as she found them.

HYGIENE MEETING TO BE HELD.—Lents and Mount Scott women are to have an opportunity to hear speakers of the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, Dr. Calvin S. White and Rev. John H. Boyd are to talk at a mass meeting for women only on Friday, May 14, at 3:30 P. M., at the Yeager Theater. The Parent-Teacher Associations of the Lents, Woodmere and Gilbert schools, acting in conjunction with the Oregon Social Hygiene Society, are sponsoring the meeting. The organizations interested are planning to make it the largest attended meeting for women ever held in that part of the city. No admission will be charged.

LITHOGRAPHY ON EXHIBIT HERE.—For ten days only there will be an exhibit at the Art Museum a considerable collection of original lithographs by members of the Seefeldler Club, of London. There are also a number of engravings by well-known artists. The lithographs are large and striking prints and in effect are heightened with color. The regular hours of the museum are: Weekdays, 9 to 5 o'clock; Sundays, 2 to 5; free the afternoons of Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY HEARING POSTPONED.—As Attorney John F. Logan had left for San Francisco and could not appear to argue the motion, decision on the demurrer filed Friday in the case of C. A. Warriner, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon "toward an automobile," as the result of an auto accident on Columbia River Highway three weeks ago, was postponed yesterday. Circuit Judge Morrow will hear the argument the latter part of this week, when Mr. Logan is expected to be back.

INDICTMENT DISMISSED.—As W. E. Benton had been breaking rock at Kelly Butte since April 18, when he was convicted in the Municipal Court for a violation of the dry law, he was considered sufficiently punished by Circuit Judge Morrow, who dismissed the indictment against him in the Municipal Court yesterday. Deputy District Attorney Ryan recommended the dismissal as the man had been jailed for a technical violation of the law.

Mrs. Bicknell's funeral held.—Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza J. Bicknell, who died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Hellwell, 13 East Thirty-second street, were held yesterday afternoon from the residence. Interment will be in the family plot at Minneapolis, Minn. She was 75 years of age. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Hellwell, and was the grandmother of Mrs. Ethel and Genevieve Hellwell.

SELLWOOD BOY SCOUTS DRILL.—The Boy Scouts of Sellwood held a drill in the Sellwood Y. M. C. A. Friday night in charge of Claude Aquist, scoutmaster. Two patrols have been formed and it is expected enough boys for another patrol will enlist. Fred Davis was elected assistant scoutmaster at the last meeting. Arrangements are being made for a picnic to raise funds to purchase uniforms.

WOODSTOCK SCHOOL HAS FESTIVAL.—The winding of the Maypole and May festival of the Woodstock school, which was postponed last week will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock. More than 100 children will take part. The primary grades will give folk dances and 15 girls will dance about the Maypole. The 12-piece school orchestra will play and songs and games will be enjoyed.

SCHOOL HAS ART EXHIBIT.—The Highland Parent-Teacher Association will have its annual meeting and election of officers, Tuesday, May 2, at 8 o'clock. Teachers of the school are conducting an art exhibit at the school which has been visited by a large number of people and will close about the middle of the week.

OCULT TO BE DISCUSSED.—"Rationalism and the Occult" will be the topic for discussion at the meeting of the Portland Rationalist Society at its meeting in room A, Central Library, tonight at 8 o'clock. H. C. Dithoff will lead the discussion and other points of view will be presented from that floor.

$909,150 TURNED OVER TO TREASURER.—A "turn-over" of $909,150 was made to County Treasurer Lewis by Sheriff Harburt yesterday from tax collections. The money was apportioned, according to figures prepared by E. S. Huckabay, chief deputy in the tax department, chiefly as follows: City of Portland, $308,802; school district No. 2, $330,925; state, $99,388; county general fund, $90,150; county roads, $71,750; and Port of Portland, $98,346.

CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED.—The Norwegian Danish Evangelical Congregational church just completed at Sumner and East Twenty-third street North will be dedicated at 3 P. M. today. Superintendent Sullens, Dr. L. D. Lyle and other speakers will be present. Rev. Mr. Sakariassen from Seattle will preach at 11 A. M. and Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 8 o'clock.

ARSON CHARGES DISMISSED.—Evidence being insufficient to connect them with a fire, which was not obviously incendiary, indictments against A. J. Clark and Mrs. K. Hill were dismissed by Circuit Judge Morrow on Friday, May 6, at the university. They were indicted on May 23 on the charge of burning with intent to defraud insurer. The dismissal was on the motion of Deputy District Attorney Collier.

LAYMEN'S "DOLLAR DINNER" PLANNED.—A laymen's "dollar dinner" celebrating the first anniversary of Bishop Walter Sumner's arrival in Portland, will be held May 23, in the orange room of the Oregon Hotel. The dinner plans are in the hands of Dr. S. E. Joseph and a committee of the Episcopal Laymen's Association. The dinner is open to all who wish to attend.

DEBATE TITLE SOUGHT. JEFFERSON, OR., IS OUT AFTER STATE CHAMPIONSHIP. School in First Year Defeats Old-Time Competitors—Princeton to Be Met. May 14.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 6.—(Special.)—Jefferson, Or., High School, with its student body of 56 students, is the debating champion of Western Oregon. And not satisfied with these laurels an attempt will be made on Friday, May 14, at the university to wrest the laurels held by Princeton High School for the eastern section of the state, so that Jefferson may claim the debate championship of the state of Oregon.

This is the Jefferson High School's first year in debate. Except for the final supreme contest, the debate season is closed. The high school was entered in seven debates and of the total 21 different judges, only two votes were lost. These eight schools, which were defeated by the novices from Jefferson: Neskowin, Salem, Woodburn, Escalada, Astoria, Klaskanin Falls and North Bend. It was the Salem High School that won the championship last year.

The Jefferson debating squad is composed of Kenneth Armstrong, Mary Bute, James Levan, Levan, Helen Freeman, Karl Booth and Gladys Overholzer. R. W. Glass, superintendent; Miss Jennie Hollister and school faculty coaching the debaters.

MRS. F. MURPHY IS BURIED. Resident of Jefferson, Or., Is Survived by Daughter.

Mrs. Frances Murphy died at Jefferson, Or., April 30, at the age of 83 years. The sudden call came without warning through a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Murphy devoted much of her time to works of philanthropy. Surviving her are a daughter, Mrs. Emma Smith, and a brother, Milton E. Hearn, of Jefferson, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Hankins, of Portland. The funeral was attended by a large gathering of friends, and there were many floral tributes. Impressive ritualistic services were held.

MRS. C. E. HANSEN BURIED. Salem Woman Succumbs at Carlton While on Health Trip.

Mrs. Clara Eliza Hansen, wife of Paul Hansen, of Salem, passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Kutch, in Carlton, Or., April 27, where she had gone on a visit in the hope of improving her health. Mrs. Hansen, formerly Miss Clara Thomasen, was born in that city on November 29, 1878, where she spent her early childhood. She was married to Paul Hansen in 1905 and they took up their residence in Salem, where they lived for two years, afterward going to Medford. The funeral was conducted from the PORTLAND COUPLE ARE PRINCIPALS IN UNIQUE WEDDING.

Miss Mae Whitten, only daughter of Mrs. Joseph Edward Berwick, was married to Robert Hugh Berwick, only son of her husband, Joseph Edward Berwick, on Tuesday, May 2, at the home of their parents, the grandfather of the bride, Rev. T. Brouillette, officiating. Mrs. Brouillette is the father of the bride's mother, and also officiated at her wedding, and her daughter donned her bridal veil, orange blossoms, and other parts of her wedding raiment Tuesday night.

Rev. C. L. Hamilton and Rev. A. A. Ford, former pastors of the bride, assisted at the ceremony. Miss Helen Poling sang "I Love You Truly," and at the conclusion of the service Miss Katherine Rowing, of Newberg, sang "A Perfect Day." Mrs. Charles Lapp played the wedding march. The house was a bower of garden flowers and about 60 relatives and friends attended the ceremony.

The young people have known each other a little over two years, their parents having been married just two years ago. Young Mrs. Berwick is attending Albany College, but did not remain to graduate, as she was determined to marry in spite of parental opposition to their extreme youth.

Proceeding the wedding ceremony, Miss Helen Poling sang "I Love You Truly," and at the conclusion of the service Miss Katherine Rowing, of Newberg, sang "A Perfect Day." Mrs. Charles Lapp played the wedding march. The house was a bower of garden flowers and about 60 relatives and friends attended the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a reception was held, and a number of out-of-town guests attended. The bridegroom has for three years been connected with a well-known printing concern in Portland, and the young people upon their return from a brief wedding trip, will make their home in this city.

THROUGH TURNS OUT FOR "CHADURRAE FOLLIES '16"

Portland Talent Produces Good Entertainment at Lincoln High School Auditorium—Prominent Folk Attend as Patrons and Patronesses.

Miss Viola Helms

"The Chadurrae Follies 1916" brought over 1000 people to the Lincoln High School auditorium last night. A large number of prominent local people assisted in the programme, and the Oregon Navy Militia Orchestra under the direction of H. E. Abell provided music. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Tobias.

The whole "vaudeville" was a success and a tribute to the direction of Owen Edward Durkin and Leo Chaffin, stage manager. The following programme was given: Orchestra; Bryan Conannon, tenor; Maud McKnight and Leo DeFoe, Southern comedians; "Cross the Mason-Dixon Line"; Mary Jane and Anna Rose Harold, juvenile entertainers; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rittenberg, in novelty dancing; with Walter Gerstel at piano; Dr. Emil Enns, pianist; Albert Gollender, bass soloist; Arthur Ward, "Impersonation of Dr. Jekyll"; Louis Kaufman, boy violinist; Gertrude Moore and Margaret Moore, "A Bit of Music"; Miss Beatrice McCormick, in her interpretations of "Violins of Salome"; O. E. Durkin and company—Mr. Durkin and Misses Carrie Davis, Hannah Gilroy, Olive Mitchell, Agnes Tannier, Anne Walker-Durkin, Viola Held, Laura Hall, Marion Greenwood, Margaret Rae—in popular dances; Mrs. E. MRS. FITZSIMMONS SAYS SHE'LL RETURN WHEN HE REFORMS. Excessive Drinking Caused Her to Leave Him, She Says—Thinks He Can Beat Willard.

Mrs. Bob Fitzsimmons, wife No. 4 of the ex-champion, declares that just as soon as she has converted her husband from the error of his ways she will return and make a home for him.

"I left Bob because he drank too much," she says, "but he has quit now, and in every letter tells me that he is waiting for me. I love Bob still, but can't go back till he has accepted the faith."

"I would give anything to see Bob in the ring with Jess Willard. Bob was a scientific fighter; Willard is merely a giant. When Bob fought Corbett it was a test of skill, while the Willard-Johnson match was merely a battle of brute strength. I believe Bob could make it interesting for the champion yet."

Mrs. Fitzsimmons will tell the story of her life at the Y. M. C. A. at 3:30 o'clock today, speaking on "The Winning Fight." Tonight she will speak at 7:30 o'clock at the Rose City Park Community Church, Forty-fifth and Hancock streets.

HERE IT IS! JAEGER BROS. SPECIAL $100 DIAMOND RING "SPRING TIME IS RING TIME" GET YOURS NOW (READ BELOW.) A BUSINESS STORY Dealing With the Quality Jewelry Establishment of Jaeger Bros. ABOUT DIAMONDS Your diamond should be a Jaeger diamond. That is, if you wish the utmost value for the price which you pay, and of course you do. Here is proof by example that this store's offerings are unusual. Monday morning we place on display and sell a complete series of a special cash purchase aggregating $2500. These diamonds were secured direct from one of America's greatest diamond cutters (not through jobbers or wholesalers). And, in turn, they are offered direct to the patron of this quality shop with a cash discount deducted, which means extraordinary values. Three-fourths of the purchase is being converted into Jaeger Bros. Special $100 Diamond Rings, and truly special they are. See them tomorrow, or at your convenience. Also see the many unmounted stones which will be set in jewelry of any class or kind you wish. And every one of these diamonds is backed by this firm's enviable reputation, and they may be exchanged any time at the price which the customer has paid. Note—People familiar with diamonds know that their value cannot be judged by weight or size. It is the color and perfection of cut that count. Therefore, purchase yours by purchasing from a reliable firm. Tell your friends that Jaeger is the diamond expert of knowing people, and tell them why. Out-of-Town People Order by mail, subject to examination. Delivery charges prepaid. JAEGER BROS. Jewelers, Opticians, 131-133 Sixth St., Oregonian Bldg.

DAIRYMAN RETURNS HOME. Wife Says Husband Had Been Drinking Since First of Year. I. N. Skeels, proprietor of the Green Hill Dairy, on the Powell Valley road near Kelly's butte, who disappeared Thursday, and for whom search was being made in the fear that he had met with foul play, has returned home, according to a report made to the police yesterday. Skeels had about $200 with him at the time of his disappearance and for that reason it was feared that some one had made away with him for his money. Mrs. Skeels, reported to the police that her husband had been drinking profusely since the first of the year, securing liquor somewhere on the Mount Scott line. He told her he was going to buy a ticket to Norway when he left home Thursday morning.

Don't Try to 'Borrow' This Home 'Buy It' With Your Rent Money

Now, we know you'd like to "RENT" this lovely new six-room bungalow, located on a 50x158-foot lot, on East Ankeny street, near East Thirty-ninth street, right across the street from beautiful LAURELHURST PARK; that you would gladly pay $30 to $35 per month rent on a two years' lease.

That's a symptom of the disease you have—the "rent disease." WELL, IT CAN'T BE DONE.

But, listen: Don't be beat out of a home of your own just because a friend, some time or other, made an unwise investment in a home. You can BUY this lovely little well-built home for $3850. A small cash payment and $40 a month will do it (just $5 per month more than the rent money you are willing to toss into the river.) You couldn't begin to build it for this money NOW.

Why, on account of its incomparable location you could live here for a few years, RENT FREE, and then sell it for more than you paid for it.

Just read this: It has a large living-room with six-foot plate glass window, beautiful dining-room overlooking park, with elaborate built-in buffet, artistic fireplace and decorations, hardwood floors, finished in old ivory and white enamel with genuine mahogany trimmings, two well-ventilated bedrooms with large closets, fine bathroom with clothes chute, a kitchen any woman would be proud of, nifty den, full cement basement, splendid furnace, nice fixtures, shades, lawn will be graded and seeded.

Your good business judgment is telling you right now, "Seize this charming bargain." It won't keep. Somebody will get it TODAY, and we have no more lots for sale at this point. Will that somebody be YOU?
