T round out the club season the current literature department of the Portland Woman's Club will give a luncheon on Friday at 1 o'clock in the Hotel Oregon.

The meeting of the club last Friday was one of the best of the many good meetings of the season.

In Hotel Imperial tomorrow the Portland Psychology Club will hold a luncheon at noon.

Within a few days the Portland delegation will hear the call, "All aboard for New York," and will be en route to the big biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

committee, and she has the assistance of Mrs. A. B. Clark, president of Central Delphian Club; Mrs. A. M. Webster, president Sunnyside Parent-Teacher Association; Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst, president Laurelhurst Study Club, and Mrs. Albert Hicks, president Vernon Parent-Teacher Association.

The Corriente Club held a delightful meeting on Tuesday with Mrs. Chester Depending. Although the programme contained "creaky-crawly topics," it had no horrors for the members, who are ardent students of nature.

The Coterie will hold its closing meeting Wednesday morning in the Imperial Hotel at 11 o'clock, when the annual reports will be read and the following programme given: Vocal solo, Mrs. G. F. Alexander; recitation, "The Kindliest Thing We Can Say at Parting"; reading, "Four Bars in the Key of G"; Mrs. C. M. Kiggins; "Auld Lang Syne," the club.

The members of the Central Delphian Club met at the home of Mrs. Hollingsworth Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and had a delightful study on "The Art of Conversation," which was an extra topic taken up in this course and reported to the dining-room, where an elaborate repast was served.

Women's Exchange Scores Very Prosperous Year.

Organization Holds Annual Meeting, Hears Report by Miss Falling and Elects Officers.

IF all the little heart stories could be written about the good that is done by the Women's Exchange, they would fill volumes. Last Monday afternoon at the annual meeting of the society at 18 1/2 First street, letters from some of the consignors were read. The women felt that their efforts on behalf of less fortunate sisters had been in vain.

Our Thanksgiving sale was very attractive and much larger than last year. A new feature was introduced which proved very successful in the way of a household table consisting of jams, jellies, fruit-cake, pies and mince-meat. In fact, most any delicious entree one might wish, all being donated by our ever-willing and loyal members.

The Exchange has the highest type of work on sale. When the consignors do not know just what to make they are given suggestions. The fancy work is exquisite. The cakes and delicacies are delicious. Since the restaurant has been discontinued, the Exchange has been far more profitable than it was. The recent charity ball netted $920.

Willamette Chapter, D. A. R., will have a card party on Tuesday in Portland Heights Clubhouse.

There will be a W. C. T. U. meeting on Tuesday night in Ockley Green Park. Prominent speakers will be present.

Mrs. Alice Webster gave an interesting talk on the relation of art to the development of character at Central W. C. T. U. meeting on Wednesday.

An all-day evangelistic service will be held at Central Union headquarters on Wednesday, Mrs. M. Sleeth will have charge of the 11 o'clock session, Mrs.

Edith Whiteside will make a short address at 2 o'clock, and at 3 P. M. the meeting will be turned over to Mrs. J. E. Sanner, the superintendent of Sabbath observance. Mrs. Sanner has arranged a programme of readings, addresses and songs.

On Friday evening, May 26, a national medal contest will be held at the social center, 17 1/2 Eleventh street. This will be the first national oratorical contest to be held at the Social Center, and Mrs. C. A. Ponnay, the superintendent, will present a programme.

Mrs. J. A. Pettit left last Tuesday for the East. She will visit her mother before attending the biennial in New York City.

Mrs. E. F. Mullay presided at one of the most successful luncheons of the week. On Tuesday she was toastmistress for the Political Study Club in the Chamber of Commerce. About 100 attended.

Mrs. Philip Gevarts has done excellent work for several clubs. Her programme recently at the Political Study Club was greatly enjoyed.

The Alberta Woman's Improvement Club met Tuesday night and voted to ask a permit from the City Commissioners to place the market booths on each side of the walk at the north-east corner of Alberta and East Twenty-third street North, and to cover the walk and booths with canvas. The market committee of men from the Alberta Welfare and Improvement League is co-operating with the club, planning to open a market on May 29.

The annual banquet of the Delphian Society will take place Monday evening, May 22, at 8:30, at the Temple of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, at Twelfth and Taylor streets. The evening will be devoted to short addresses, good music and a social time among the members and their friends.

Chapter "N" P. E. O. will meet on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. M. A. Zollinger, 1225 Tillamook street.

Chapter C. P. E. O. Sisterhood will meet with Mrs. R. E. Kellogg, 984 Hawthorne avenue, on Saturday, at 2 o'clock. A lecture on "The Future" will be given by Miss Schollar, of James John High School.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club will hold its annual picnic next Tuesday, at Peninsula Park, 15 o'clock. Members will take Kanton car.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the home of Mrs. David Levy, 22 Third street, Thursday, May 18, at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is requested, and it is to be the last social meeting of the year.

Chapter A of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, held an open meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. T. H. Edwards. The house was made very attractive by a profusion of Spring blossoms.

Miss Leone Cass Baer gave a clever recitation, "Flowers and Things Theatrical." The vocalists of the afternoon were Miss Lelia Covle and Mrs. Bruce Stewart, accompanied by Miss Brown.

First Congregational Church Holds Memorial.

Silver Circle of Ladies' Aid Society Pays Tribute to Mrs. W. P. Jones and Mrs. M. Jones.

ON Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. George M. Parker, on Portland Heights, the silver circle of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational Church observed a memorial hour dedicated to the memory of two members, Mrs. W. P. Jones and Mrs. M. Jones, who passed away during the month of March.

Resolutions of appreciation and sympathy were read by the president, Mrs. W. B. Knapp. Eulogies to the memory of Mrs. W. P. Jones and Mrs. M. Jones were given by Mrs. R. C. Taylor; tributes from the hand of the pastor's wife, by Mrs. L. D. Dyott, from the Deaconsess, by Mrs. Lincoln Johnston; also from Mrs. A. C. C. K. and Mrs. N. B. Leonard.

The Vancouver, Central and Irvington Women's Christian Temperance Unions held a joint meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alice Mattie, 503 West Thirteenth street. One hundred or more members, friends and teachers were present. Mrs. Harriet Dunlap, state president, gave an address. Mrs. E. Thayer, state corresponding secretary, spoke on the effects of the enforcement of the prohibition law. Mrs. Lillian Davis, state president, transferred her membership from the Kelson union to the Central union. The Clarke County officers present were Mrs. Mable Scott, president; Mrs. Jennie Taylor, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Melda Rathbone, recording secretary; of Felida; Elizabeth Knight, state president; Vancouver, and Miss Ella Thompson, treasurer.

Miss Lera Elliott gave a reading entitled "The Noble Charge." Miss Lenora Richardson sang a beautiful solo. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. The program was directed to Camas to deliver addresses at a meeting at that place.

Mrs. Pennybacker has asked all State Federation Presidents to request their delegations to pay special attention to delegates from Alaska, Cuba and the territories overseas at the biennial, Wednesday evening, May 24.

The Marchioness of Aberdeen and Tennant, president of the International Council of Women, will attend the biennial, accompanied by her friend, Mrs. W. E. Sanford, of Hamilton, Ont., to which Mrs. C. A. Hart is president, will elect on June 2, and immediately after the business session, there will be a reception in compliment to the teachers of the school, in giving this social grant.

The first address of president's evening will be delivered by Madame Blanche de Baralt, Ph. D., of Havana, Cuba. The next address will be "They Come Bearing Gifts" will appear representatives of Ireland, Poland, Russia, and other countries, these being such eminent women as Miss Lenora O'Reilly, Madame August Strindberg, Mary Antin, etc. The speaker will be Mrs. Dudley Field Malone, Collector of the Port of New York. At the last meeting of the Story Club, Miss Porter, of Kenton; Miss Hancock, of Tower; and Miss Barr, of Buckman School, gave the programme.

Following are extracts from Mrs. Isaac Swett's report at the meeting of the Council of Jewish Women:

We are this year inaugurating the friendly visiting committee, which is to be a friendly visit to the member who is ill, most. Members will please notify this committee of member's illness coming to their attention.

Our programme during this year have been reports of a very high standard. It seems that to mention any is to fall properly to appreciate others, and yet our members have shown a wonderful beautiful way. Let us hope that this year many of our members of the National Reciprocity Bureau that other sections may enjoy the delightful performance.
