ners Are Indicated.

large to the Republican convention the highest vote: Charles W. Fulton, Charles H. Carey, Arthur C. Spencer and George J. Cameron, in that order.

Hughes' Victory Grows.
Charles E. Hughes at last accounts was 10,626 votes ahead of Senator Cummins, and Senator Burton was nearly 4,000 votes behind Cummins in this county.

Ben W. Olcott had increased his Multnomah County majority over Charles B. Moore to 3777 votes with few precincts to hear from.

Thomas M. Fairbairn had increased his lead for Sheriff over Robert L.
Stevens to 8353 votes.

Anti-Catholic Ticket Strong.
Now that the ruck and welter of the conflict to some degree is over, the big outstanding fact of this primary election is the success that attended the anti-Catholic propaganda.

Thousands of voters apparently heeded the appeal of the anti-Catholics to make religion a political issue, and voted the so-called "patriots," or A. P.
A. ticket, straight.

Of 33 candidates endorsed on the A. P. A. ticket, "men we trust," 28 have been nominated.

"Unknowns" Show in Leads.
This is all the more remarkable when it is taken into consideration that some of the A. P. A. endorsees were political unknowns.

Two at least of the 12 successful candidates for Representative in the Legislature—Robert C. Tucker and C. Mackay—come under this category. In a political way neither had ever been heard of.

Dr. H. M. Patton, another political unknown, is runner-up in the contest for State Senator, only 1000 votes behind the lowest of the five nominees, and far ahead of other candidates much better known than he. Dr. Patton was on the A. P. A. ticket.

Of the five nominees for State Senator four of them—Moser, Olson, Huston and Orton—were A. P. A. endorsees.

Kavanaugh Is Renominated.
Judge J. P. Kavanaugh, candidate for renomination for Circuit Judge of Department No. 1, is the only man the A. P. A. faction set out to "get" who opponent, who had the A. P. A. informant, has run much stronger than was expected.

Joseph W. Beveridge defeated John B.
Coffey for County Clerk on what was virtually a straight A. P. A. issue.

For the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge of Department No. 1, Frank S. Grant, the successful candidate, had the A. P. A. endorsement.

One of the surprises of the election was the nomination of Robert C. Tucker for Circuit Judge of Department No. 2 over W. M. Davis by a good majority.
Mr. Tucker was an A. P. A. endorsee.

Indorsees Delegates Win.
For delegates to the Third Congressional ticket, with 10 candidates and two to elect, the two successful ones, Ralph W. Hoyt and Clarence R.
Hotchkiss, were on the "Patriots" or A. P. A. ticket.

The A. P. A. organization kept out of the fight for delegate-at-large and for Secretary of State. For Presidential electors, five to elect, three of its four endorsees, W. I. Cotel, W. P. Keady and W. C. North, were selected by the voters.

George Tazwell, the successful candidate for the Republican nomination for County Judge of Department No. 1, incumbent, without any doubt was successful because he had the A. P. A. endorsement.

Nine of 12 Win Out.
Of the 12 successful candidates for Representative in the Legislature, the following nine had A. P. A. endorsements:

John M. Mann, D. C. Lewis, K. K.
Kubli, Herbert Gordon, Arthur C. Callan, L. C. Mackay, O. Laugaard, E.
J. Goode, George T. Willett.

A. A. Muel, for County Commissioner, Dr. F. H. Dammasch for Coroner, and Mark W. Petersen for Constable, all had A. P. A. endorsement. J. Peterson's victory was another "dope" upset, for with the opposition to Andy Weinberger, incumbent, split three ways, he had been regarded as a sure winner.

Superintendent Fight Open.
No endorsement for County School Superintendent was made on the A. P. A. ticket, although J. Peterson, the Secretary of State, was on its political merits without religious entanglements.

F. G. Buchtel, nominated for Public Service Commissioner, Western Oregon, also had the A. P. A. endorsement.

Bitterness Is Felt.
Not all the candidates who did not receive the A. P. A. endorsement were Catholics by any means. But where two or more Protestants were candidates for certain offices, the selection on the A. P. A. ticket was made of the man regarded as "safest."

It will be many a day before the bitterness caused by this injection of what is purely and simply a religious test for political preferment into a political campaign, will be forgotten in Multnomah County and elsewhere in Oregon where the A. P. A. issue was raised.

Followers are complete returns from 333 precincts out of 475.

tive on the editorial board of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly, which paper has been taken over by the State Teachers' Association and will henceforth be published by them. Dr. Doney is a writer of no mean ability.

MR. WEST HARKENS

Ex-Governor Expected to Run for Congress as "Dry."

STATEMENT IS WITHHELD

Hope That C. L. McKenna May Have Beaten J. A. Jeffery in Democratic Race Cited as Delaying Announcement.

Oswald West, ex-Governor of Oregon, probably will accept the nomination tendered him by the Prohibition party, at its state nominating convention here Friday, for Representative in Congress from the Third District.

This does not come from Mr. West.
He said yesterday that he would not discuss the matter until later.

"I have nothing to say now," said the ex-Governor. "I shall give out a statement later, probably about the first of the week."

However, it was explained last night by a friend of Mr. West that he very probably would accept the nomination from the Prohibitionists or run as an independent with the Prohibition party endorsement.

Many Democrats, this friend said, are urging Mr. West to come out as an independent candidate. So long, however, as there is any remote possibility that C. L. McKenna may have gained the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district over John A. Jeffery, Mr.
West would not indicate his position, it was further explained.

Owing to the general dissatisfaction among Democrats over the candidacy for the Congressional nomination of John A. Jeffery, who took a very active part in the L. W. movement here a few years ago, Mr. West joined with other party leaders a few days before the primary in urging Democrats to write in Mr. McKenna's name on the ballot.

It is virtually certain, however, that Mr. Jeffery has obtained the Democratic nomination. Almost equally certain is the fact that he will get very little whole-hearted Democratic support.

Consequently, the Democrats are looking to Mr. West, disguised as a "non-partisan" independent with a Prohibition flavor, to take up the Democratic burden at the general election.

SON DISCOVERS SUICIDE

MOTHER, MISSING DAY, IS FOUND HANGING IN ATTIC.

William S. Overlin Finds Body After 24 Hours and Deed Is Attributed to Mental Unbalance.

In search for his mother, missing since the previous day, William S. Over-lin, of 625 East Seventeenth street, climbed into the attic yesterday afternoon and found her body swinging from a rafter. It was found that she had committed suicide at least 24 hours before.

Mrs. Katherine Overlin was 55 years of age and for some time is said to have shown evidences of mental unbalance.
Thursday night she went to Lents to visit with friends. Her son was also absent from home that night, but returned on Friday. He made no search for his mother, presuming that she was still at Lents.

Her continued absence yesterday morning alarmed him, and he went to Lents to see if she was at the home where she visited. Upon learning that she had returned Friday afternoon, he hastened back and made a thorough search of the residence.

Mrs. Overlin had entered the attic through the ceiling hatchway of an upstairs bedroom, standing on a small ladder near the bed. She had tied a rope to the rafters, made a perfect slip-knot, fixed it about her neck, and stepped from a cross-girder two feet above the attic floor.

There are no other relatives in this city, but a daughter resides in Seattle.
The body was taken to the public mortuary by Deputy Coroner Lowe. No inquest will be held.

CHURCH OFFICES FILLED

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL BROTH-ERHOOD HOLDS ELECTION.

"Ladies' Night," With Service by Men as Feature, Marks Final Meeting Prior to Vacation Period.

The last meeting of the Brotherhood of the First Congregational Church prior to the vacation period was held in the church parlors, Park and Madison streets, last Monday night. It was "ladies' night," and the attendance was large. A novel feature of the evening was the conspicuously careful service of the men in waiting upon the guests.

"During the dinner hour music was provided by the orchestra of the Sunday school, after which the election of officers was held, resulting as follows:
O. B. Riddle, president; E. T. Stretcher, vice-president; J. R. Martin, secretary; treasurer. Two musical numbers were given by Mrs. L. B. Bartlett, Mrs. Ella Coleman and A. Stewart, the first the Chinook translation of "My Old Kentucky Home" and the second "The One Behind the Man Behind the Gun," as a solo by Mr. Stewart, with the chorus.

Rev. William M. Zumbro, D. D., for 22 years president of the American College at Madura, Southern India, spoke. President Zumbro left Portland last Tuesday for Vancouver, B. C., to take steamer for India to resume his labors after a furlough of several months. His wife and two young daughters accompanied him. It was the first visit of the children in the United States.

Social Workers' Club to Elect.

The Social Workers' Club will hold a dinner at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night at 6:30, at which the important feature of the programme will be the election of officers for the ensuing year. Jacob Kanzler, secretary of the Civic Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, will talk on "Confidential Exchanges." Dr. C. H. Chapman on "The Oregon State Conference of Social Agencies," and John H. Stevenson, who will preside, will talk on the National Conference of Charities and Corrections. Reservations for the dinner should be telephoned not later than tomorrow to Mrs. W. I. Swank, at East 148.
